

Poveda's 'Lawlessness and Reform' Probes FBI of Post-Hoover Era

Dr. Tony G. Poveda's first book, Lawlessness and Reform: The FBI in Transition, was published this month by Brooks/Cole Publishing Co., a division of Wadsworth. The book is part of a series on contemporary issues in crime and justice published by Brooks/Cole.

An associate professor of sociology at SUNY Plattsburgh since 1970, Poveda has spent ten years conducting research on and writing about the FBI. "Lawlessness and Reform," he said, "is a critical inquiry into the FBI as it emerged following Hoover's death and the Watergate Scandal, which, among other things, disclosed past abuses of the FBI and the intelligence agencies. Unlike many other books, it is not focused on J. Edgar Hoover or on the FBI during his tenure. It instead discerns what is new and distinctive about the contemporary FBI."

Poveda continued, "It is more than a descriptive account of post-Hoover changes. It also attempts to show how lawless practices become institutionalized in otherwise legitimate organizations and focuses on the subsequent efforts to reform those practices. Centered on the theme of lawlessness and reform, FBI organizational behavior is considered in terms of patterns in history and social structure rather than simply the aberration of Hoover's personality."

Poveda holds a Ph.D. in criminology from the University of California at Berkeley. He is a former chairperson of the sociology department and former coordinator of the college's criminal justice program.

Gov. Cuomo Appoints Walker to Seven-Year College Council Term

Jacqueline Connell Walker of Plattsburgh has been appointed by Governor Mario Cuomo to the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council. Her term, effective in mid-December, will end on June 30, 1997.

The College Council supervises the operations and affairs of the college, in accordance with the rules established by the State University Trustees. Nine of its members are appointed by the governor, and the tenth, who serves a one-year term, is the duly elected President of the Student Association. Members receive no compensation for their services. The Council meets monthly and its meetings are open to the public.

Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren commented, "We are very pleased to have Jacqueline Walker join our College Council. Through her long-time work with the Plattsburgh College Foundation, she has proven herself to be interested in SUNY Plattsburgh and very supportive of the college's mission. We are delighted with her appointment and look forward to a long and productive association."

Walker, a registered nurse with Amidon Associates, has been active with the Plattsburgh College Foundation for several years. She is a former member of the Board of Directors and has co-chaired the annual Friends Campaign for five years.

Walker is a former member of the Board of Direc-

(Continued on next page)

Room Rents to Increase by $50 Per Term Effective Fall of '90

Room rent in campus residence halls will increase by $50 per semester, effective next fall.

William Laundry, director of campus life, said that the increase will bring room rent to $1,900 per year ($950 per semester). Laundry is a member of the college's Dormitory Income Fund Reimbursable Committee, which reviewed the need for additional revenue and consulted with appropriate student groups, including residence hall presidents and the president of the Student Association, before proposing the increase to President Charles O. Warren.

"In considering the hike in room rent," said Laundry, "we took into account inflationary increases in the cost of residence hall operations and projects we hope to initiate in the coming year — for example, we anticipate painting 80 percent of the rooms on campus. Even with the increase," he concluded, "we believe that SUNY Plattsburgh will continue to rank lowest in room rent costs among the University's four-year campuses."

Message to Trustees:

'Fund-raising Growth Dependent Upon Staffing, Added Resources'

Additional support staff and resources, greater involvement of SUNY Central Administration and a more responsive state government are the keys to "the future role of development in the State University of New York."

That's the heart of the message conveyed to the University's Board of Trustees by Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations and development. Garrant addressed the Trustees on Dec. 21 in Albany as representative of fund-raising professionals in the 64-campus SUNY system.

After tracing the success of some development efforts underway in the University, including the program that has placed Plattsburgh at the forefront among fund-raising endeavors in SUNY over the past 25 years, Garrant proposed several measures that could have a beneficial impact in the future.

Garrant called on SUNY Central to provide expertise and services in planned giving to the system's campuses, and urged the Trustees and chancellor to consider development as a top priority and to assume an active role in fund-raising. He encouraged appointment of a development person in Central Administration who will have access to the University's top administrators and would consult regularly with the individual campuses. He also advocated bringing state government into the (fund-raising) process, noting that several states currently support matching grant programs as a means to encourage colleges to seek private funds.

Garrant summarized his remarks by comparing SUNY's development staffing (57 total) to Michigan's (136). "What is needed (in SUNY)," concluded Garrant, "are more state-funded professionals to conduct development programs, including annual giving, research of major donor prospects, deferred giving, and organization of special and major gift agendas."

$7,000 Rowlson Endowment Fund Created on 'Alumni Connection'

A strong "alumni connection" was a leading factor in establishment of one of the Plattsburgh College Foundation's newest endowments — the Jane Prescott Rowlson Memorial Scholarship.

The endowment was created by a $7,000 gift from Dr. Ira A. Rowlson Jr. of Plattsburgh in honor of his late wife. Dr. Rowlson, a retired dentist, explained that four Rowlson children attended the Campus School at SUNY Plattsburgh, and three of the four, as well as a daughter-in-law and son-in-law, received degrees from the college.

Mrs. Rowlson's interest and talent in art and her Keeseville background also figure in the endowment plan. The Rowlson scholarship, expected to total $500 or more per year by 1991, will be awarded to an art major whose gpa is at least 3.0, with preference going to Keeseville residents who are graduates of Ausable Valley Central School. Faculty from the college's art department will recommend candidates for the scholarship.

Walker (Continued from page 1)

tors of the Council of Community Services. She served a five-year term, ending in 1986, on the Plattsburgh City School Board. While a member of that board, she served as its representative to the New York State School Board Association. She was also secretary to the New York State Small Cities Association, which is comprised of school board members from various cities across the state.

A North Country native, she is a graduate of Keeseville High School and the former Champlain Valley Hospital School of Nursing.

New Look

SUNY Plattsburgh Public Safety Officers Alex Benware (L) and Gene Mossey model "new era" uniforms for campus safety and security personnel that became standard apparel state-wide effective Dec. 15. The distinctive, bluish/gray uniforms, complete with stetson-style hat and prominent New York State seal shoulder insignia, strongly resemble those of other police agencies, including the New York State Police.

Authority on Alcohol, Drug Use Next Distinguished Professor

Dr. Nigel South, a British authority on patterns of alcohol and drug use, types of drug distribution enterprises and the effects of public policy on the drug business, will be the spring semester's first Distinguished Visiting Professor. Hosted by the sociology department, South will be on campus January 18-31.

South will lecture in several sociology classes, will conduct a seminar with the university honors group, and will deliver two public lectures. On January 24, he will speak on "From Heroin to Crack: Have 'Get Tough' Policies Made the Drug Problem Worse?" and on January 30, he will discuss "Drug Markets and Law Enforcement: Policing the Variety of Drug Dealers." Both talks will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge and are free and open to the campus and community.

South is currently a research sociologist for the Institute for the Study of Drug Dependence in London. He also serves as a research associate for the Middlesex Polytechnic's Centre for Criminology. South has published seven books, including Policing the Drug Business, Message in a Bottle, and A Land Fit for Heroin? Drug Policies, Prevention and Practice. His other publications include numerous scholarly articles on topics ranging from private security to work-related crime to alcohol and education and treatment.

For more information on South's visit, contact Dr. Robert Weiss in the sociology department.

Personnel Staffing Improves with Addition of Forster, Tabor

The long-term personnel shortage in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action has been alleviated with the reassignment of one administrator and the appointment of another.

President Charles O. Warren has announced that Beverly Forster, previously assistant to the president, has accepted a one-year assignment to administrative duties in the Personnel Office. Meanwhile, Robert Tabor has been appointed to the position of senior personnel associate.

Forster, who will handle general administrative tasks in personnel, joined the college in 1966 as a member of the classified staff and served in secretarial positions for several years in both academic and administrative offices. She was appointed assistant to the president in 1983 by former President Joseph C. Burke. She holds both the B.A. in general studies (1980) and the M.A. in liberal studies (1987) from SUNY Plattsburgh.

Tabor comes to the college from the Barre, VT

Five Elected to Review Panel on Promotion, Salary Increases

Five professional employees have been elected by fellow members of United University Professions to serve on a College Review Panel. They are: Diana Akey, telecommunications director; Suzanne Daley, director of academic advisement; Richard Higgins, director of admissions; Ronald Hobson, assistant dean of the School of Business and Economics; and Suzanne Sokolowski, director of financial aid.

The panel, created under the UUP agreement, will review applications for promotions resulting from a permanent significant increase in duties and responsibilities. They will also review applications for salary increases resulting from permanent and significant increases in duties and responsibilities which are not accompanied by a change in title or rank.

plant of Malden Mills Industries, Inc. of Lawrence, MA, where he had served as manager of personnel, industrial engineering and safety since the fall of 1987. Previously, he spent 10 years in management and supervisory roles at Harris Graphics in Champlain, and from 1965 to 1977 he held administrative positions with General Railway Signal Co. in Rochester.

In his new post, Tabor, who received the B.S. in industrial management in 1972 from Rochester Institute of Technology, will supervise employment/recruitment of Civil Service classified personnel, administer classification/compensation and employee benefits, administer labor relations with campus bargaining units, and serve as campus training and development coordinator.

Pyramid Grant

Bryan Touchstone (L), general manager of Champlain Centres in Plattsburgh, visited the campus recently to examine equipment purchased with a grant from the Pyramid Corporation, owners of the Champlain Centres. The $6,000 grant provided computer equipment, furniture and instruction videos from the hotel and restaurant management program at SUNY Plattsburgh. Shown with Touchstone is Michael Oliver, assistant professor of hotel and restaurant management in the Center for Human Resources.

SPOTLIGHT

"Lady with a Maine Lobster," a poem by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, professor of French and Portuguese, appeared in the November 1989 issue of Visions in the Metamorphosis Poetry Series. . . Dr. Pirouz Shoar Ghaffari, assistant professor of communication, presented a paper entitled "News of the Outside World in the Iranian Press, 1979-1989" to the annual conference of the Middle East Studies Association, held recently in Toronto. Ghaffari and Dr. Patricia Higgins, professor of anthropology, have been appointed co-editors of the Center for Iranian Research and Analysis' newsletter for a two-year term. . . Dr. Charles Herod, professor of minority studies, and Augustina Herod, assistant professor of nursing, are co-authors of "Core Values, Myths, and Myth Systems in Afro-American National Consciousness," an article published by Canadian Review of Studies in Nationalism, XVII, 1-2 (1990). . . Dennis Kimmage, librarian, contributed several essays to the publication, "Access to Library Resources through Technology and Preservation: Proceedings of the 1988 U.S.-U.S.S.R. Seminar" (Robert P. Doyle, ed., Chicago: ALA, 1989). . . "Erich W. Skwara: Widerspruch und Synthese in Leben und Werk," an article by Dr. Jurgen Kleist, assistant professor in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, appears in the September/October issue of Literature und Kritik, one of Austria's leading literary journals. . . Alan Lessler, director of the Economic Development and Technical Assistance Center, spoke on "Organizing for Action" at a workshop held recently for the business community in Schroon Lake. . . Dr. Naomi McCormick, professor of psychology, is co-author of "Sex, Sex Role Identification, and College Students' Projective Drawings, an article that will appear in a forthcoming issue of the Journal of Clinical Psychology. Her collaborator on the article was Kerek Arnoff, a recent MA graduate of the college's applied psychology program who works currently at the McGill University Counseling Center. McCormick and Dr. William Tooke, assistant professor of psychology, are co-authors of "Rational Emotive Therapy (RET) in the College Classroom," a paper to be presented in Keystone, CO, at the World Congress on Mental Health Counseling, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of RET. MA applied psychology graduates Shaloni Misra and Carole Schiffman Kjellander co-edited the paper. . . Dr. Mary L. Roark, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, authored a chapter on "Sexual Violence" in the book, Responding to Campus Violence, edited by Jan Sherrill and Dorothy Siegal of Towson State University and published recently by Jossey-Bass. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, is the author of three recent articles: "The Geography of Scandinavia: A Selected Bibliography of Readings"; "Ohio Soybean Production: A Geographic Inquiry"; and a review of "Chinatowns: Towns Within Cities in Canada," which appears in the American Review of Canadian Studies.

Basketball Alumni Return for Reunion Contest on Saturday

Former Cardinal basketball stars will return to campus this week and once again don their uniforms for an alumni contest. Basketball coach Larry Cowan said the game is scheduled for 4 p.m. on January 20 in Memorial Hall.

John Longware '56 and Bob Garrow '52, both members of the Cardinal Sports Halls of Fame, will coach the two teams. Among those indicating they will attend are Jeff Aimonetti '70, Todd Kiernan '89, Mike Kukie '58, Wayne Lashway '62, Mark McIntyre '88, Gus Perna '52, Tom Rice '79, Ron Rizzo '82, Mark Whyte '84 and Don Verkey '73. Several other well-known alumni are also expected to play.

Cowan said the alumni players will also attend the varsity's contests against Oneonta State (Friday, January 19 at 8 p. m.) and New Paltz (Saturday, January 20 at 8 p.m.). Additionally, the Alumni Association will host a post-game reception in their honor on Friday evening in the Centennial Room and the Cardinal Booster Club will host a post-game party on Saturday evening at Peabody's.

'Showcase' Planning on Schedule

Plans are moving forward for Showcase '90, a day devoted to spotlighting faculty, student and staff creative and scholarly endeavors. Showcase '90 is scheduled for Wednesday, April 11 and classes are suspended on that day in order to allow all members of the campus community to participate.

Showcase '90 committee chair Edward Miller said that more than 25 special events are already planned for the day's program. "Last year," he said, "more than 100 presenters took part. We hope that this year's number will be even higher and that every area on campus will be presented."

All faculty members have received a letter inviting them to participate. Proposals should be submitted on the abstract form by March 2. Extra forms are available through the office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Deans' Offices, Chairpersons, Center Directors and members of the organizing committee.

Rep. Chisholm to Lecture Here on February 7

Former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm, the fiery political maverick who beat the odds in becoming the first black woman in history to win election to the U.S. House of Representatives, will visit SUNY Plattsburgh on Wednesday, Feb. 7.

Chisholm's preliminary itinerary calls for her to meet informally with students prior to delivering a 7:30 p.m. public lecture on Wednesday in Giltz Auditorium in Hawkins Hall. Her visit, sponsored by Plattsburgh's Centennial Celebration Committee, coincides with the college's observance of "Black History Month" throughout February.

A native of New York City, Chisholm grew up in Brooklyn — surviving the Great Depression and poverty to earn the B.A. degree, cum laude, from Brooklyn College. Her career in politics began in the early 1950s at the lowest rung on Brooklyn's political ladder. Gaining the reputation as a fighter dedicated to putting the needs of the people ahead of political expediency, she won election to the New York State Assembly.

Chisholm's landmark election to Congress occurred in 1968, and she served four terms before announcing her decision in 1982 not to seek reelection. She made history again four years later when she ran a serious campaign for the Democratic Party nomination for president. She was unsuccessful, but her ideals and commitment became imbedded in America's consciousness.

Former Congresswoman Chisholm is the author of
(Continued on following page)

Pearl Named to College Council as Successor to Penelope Clute

Robert G. Pearl of Cliff Haven, Plattsburgh, has been appointed by Gov. Cuomo to the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council.

Pearl, manager of the real estate firm of Westland Homes Inc., will serve the Council through June 30, 1995. He succeeds Penelope Clute, Clinton County District Attorney, who resigned several months ago.

"Robert Pearl will be a welcome addition to our College Council," commented SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren. "He possesses a keen business sense, and he is known and respected widely in our community as a person who values education highly and cares deeply about young people."

Prior to joining Westland Homes in 1975, Pearl, a native of Plattsburgh, served two years as Clinton County planning administrator and 14 years as business manager of Plattsburgh Dairy Co. From 1974 to 1976 he was Clinton County director of the Capital District Off Track Betting Corp. He has been a member of the Town of Plattsburgh Planning Board for about 25 years, and he serves currently as its chairperson.

Pearl is a past president of the United Fund of Clinton County, a Rotarian and a past Grand Knight of Plattsburgh Council #255 of the Knights of Columbus. A U.S. Army veteran, he graduated from St. John's Academy in Plattsburgh. Pearl received the B.A. in business administration in 1952 from Champlain College, which then was located on property known today as the "old base" at Plattsburgh Air Force Base.

Pearl resides with his wife, Jane Gates Pearl (SUNY Plattsburgh, class of '57) at 17 Champlain Drive in

(Continued on following page)

Survey Shows:

'Experience' Program Working; Freshmen Studying More

Freshmen not only are more satisfied with the 'freshman experience,' they are spending more time studying, according to a survey administered by Cheryl Hogle and Dr. Lary Shaffer, coordinators of the Freshman Experience.

Hogle explained that the freshmen enrolled in a Freshman Experience Seminar (about half of the freshman class) were surveyed during the last two weeks of the semester about their participation in the program. The same survey was conducted at the end of the fall, 1988 semester.

Hogle said, "Although we got off to a slightly rocky start in 1988, the adjustments we made in 1989 appear to be having beneficial effects."

Asked how satisfied they were with the freshman year experience, 66.5 percent were very satisfied this year, compared with 53.6 percent in 1988. More than 94 percent of this year's freshmen thought having a faculty mentor on the floor was a good idea, compared to 57.9 last year.

While seventy percent had more contact than expected with other faculty members this year, versus last year's 58.8 percent, Shaffer said, "We cannot attribute this directly to the freshman experience, nevertheless increased faculty-student interaction has been a goal of ours and we are glad to see it happening, whatever the reasons."

More than half reported they often or very often discussed academic concerns with their faculty mentor, up from 13.9 percent in 1988. Hogle and Shaffer suggested that this is likely due to the change to a seminar format.

Finally, this year's freshmen reported a noticeable increase in the number of hours they spend each week doing homework. Last year, 37.6 percent reported they studied less than 10 hours a week, while 35.3

percent said they studied more than 15 hours a week. This year, 56.9 percent said they spend more than 15 hours a week on their academic work, while the number who study less than 10 hours dropped to 22 percent. Shaffer said, "our new and tougher academic standards will very probably result in continued progress in this area."

Senior English Major VanAllen ODK's Leader-of-the-Year Pick

Lori VanAllen, a senior English education major from Massapequa Park has been selected as the campus Leader of the Year by Omicron Delta Kappa (ODK). VanAllen is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, the national freshman honor society and Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honor society, and is included in the latest edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

She is a member of both the indoor and outdoor track teams and has placed in SUNYAC championship meets in both sports. She is a resident assistant, a member of the Academic Affairs Board and a member of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Organization. She has participated in various other campus organizations, including the College Chorale and the "Cardinal Points" staff.

VanAllen will now compete with students from other ODK chapters in several northeastern states for regional honors.

Chisholm to Lecture (Continued from page 1)

two books: the autobiographical Unbought and Unbossed and The Good Fight, the story of her bid for the presidency. She has been lauded for her efforts on behalf of Black colleges, compensatory education, minimum wage for domestics, American Indians, the Haitian refugees, migrant farmworkers, and the poor.

Besides the bachelor's degree, Chisholm holds the M.A. in educational supervision from Columbia University. She has received honorary degrees from more than 30 colleges and universities.

Pearl Appointed (Continued from page 1)

Cliff Haven. The Pearls are parents of five children — all college graduates, including two who received degrees from SUNY four-year colleges.

The College Council oversees the operations and affairs of the college in accordance with regulations established by the SUNY Trustees. Pearl is one of nine members appointed by the governor (the tenth being the president of the college's Student Association) and the second to be confirmed in recent weeks. Jacqueline Walker of Plattsburgh was appointed in mid-December.

College, Toronto Presidents to Sign Formal Exchange Agreement

President Charles Warren and Dr. Lynd Forgunson, president of University College of the University of Toronto, will sign a formal agreement on Friday to begin a student exchange program between the two university systems. The program was negotiated through the Center for the Study of Canada.

Warren commented, "The University of Toronto is an outstanding institution. We are delighted with the excellent opportunities that will be afforded University of Toronto and State University of New York students through this new cooperative agreement. We look forward to many years of a valuable, productive association."

Dr. Jeanne Kissner, the Center's associate director, explained that the agreement will allow students at any SUNY institution to study at any of the colleges (and in any program) at the University of Toronto and vice versa. SUNY Plattsburgh will process all applications from SUNY students to participate in the exchange.

The exchange agreement is similar to several already in existence. "SUNY students already may opt to study in Quebec at McGill, Concordia, LaValle, the University of Montreal or the University of Quebec at Chicoutimi," Kissner said, "as well as at Carlton University in Ottawa and the University of Windsor. This latest agreement opens the door to another outstanding institution of higher learning."

Koste's 'Success Story' Wins OCLC Work Station for Library

Thanks to Craig Koste's perseverance and a former faculty member's fascination with Pinocchio, Feinberg Library has one more On-Line Computer Library Center work station for cataloging acquisitions.

Craig Koste and Librarian Cerise Oberman with prototype of OCLC work station Koste won in "best success story" competition.

tions and for access to hundreds of libraries across the country via Inter-Library Loan (ILL).

Koste won the work station — the top prize, valued at $2,400 — in a "Best Inter-Library Loan Success Story" competition sponsored by the On-Line Computer Library Center, Inc. His entry was declared the winner earlier this month in Chicago during the mid-winter meetings of the American Library Association.

Koste, a library clerk II, and a 1969 SUNY Plattsburgh graduate, explained that his "success story" began several years ago when Richard Wunderlich, a former member of the faculty, expressed an interest in reading the original version of Carlo Colodi's Pinocchio. A project quickly developed in which Koste, assisted by Mary Turner, also a member of Feinberg's classified staff, used ILL to find and retrieve every edition of Pinocchio ever printed.

"OCLC played an integral part in our search," said Koste, "and it amazed Wunderlich with its possibilities for locating and verifying Pinocchios. He eventually traveled the country to look at all the variations of the book. Even after leaving this college for (the College of) St. Rose, Wunderlich continued to call and write asking for OCLC help."

A few years passed by, said Koste, before he would hear again of Wunderlich and his research on Pinocchio. Then, Koste received Wunderlich's "The Pinocchio Catalog: Being a Descriptive Bibliography and Printing History of English Language Translations and Other Renditions Appearing in the United States, 1892-1987," published by Greenwood Press in its Bibliographies and Indexes in World Literature series. In his acknowledgements, the author liberally praises Koste for his help and cooperation.

"The finished product is amazing," commented Koste. "It was appropriate to send a thank-you note to Wunderlich. . . written on his own OCLC record."

Residence Staff GPA's Climb

Residence hall staff members achieved an overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.313 during the fall semester, the highest fall semester average in at least five years. Seventy-four of the 102 resident assistants and residence hall directors achieved higher than a 3.0 gpa, and 37 made the dean's list (with a gpa of 3.5 or better).

Five staff members earned a 4.0, the highest gpa possible. They are Peter Lauzon, Deidre Markle, Deb McDonald, Dennis Rasco and Cyndi Strever.

All 12 residence halls had a staff semester gpa over 3.0. Harrington and Kent Halls tied for the highest, with 3.495.

Higgins' NSF Project Probes Minorities' Educational Success

Dr. Patricia Higgins, professor of anthropology, has won a two-year $66,255 grant from the National Science Foundation to support a research project on "Immigrant Minorities, Education and Ethnicity."

She explained the project. "A major focus of educational anthropology has been to explain why some minorities achieve greater rates of academic success than do others. Some of the variables that may account for differences in how well minority populations do in school include their relative satisfaction within society, their expectations of school and society, the existence of realistic options, their commitment to oppositional cultural distinctiveness, and their attitudes toward acculturation and assimilation. Other variables include socioeconomic status, gender and proficiency in English."

Foundation Gets $25,000 Gift From Elva O. Guilbault Trust

The Plattsburgh College Foundation has received a $25,000 contribution from the estate of the late Elva O. Guilbault in support of scholarships for undergraduates studying for careers in health-related professions.

The gift is the third from the Guilbault Trust since its establishment three years ago and brings the total contributed to the program to $65,000. To be eligible for a Guilbault scholarship, students must be Clinton County residents who are attending SUNY Plattsburgh on a full-time basis. Programs at the college that meet the "health-related" restriction include nursing, audiology and speech pathology, clinical dietetics, medical technology, and four-year professional options in pre-medical, pre-dental and physical therapy.

The Guilbault Trust is administered by Plattsburgh attorney James E. Keable, its trustee. Keable, who serves as legal counsel to the Foundation, is directly involved in the selection of scholarship recipients.

"Mr. Keable has been a good friend and loyal supporter of the College Foundation for many years," commented Don Garrant, the Foundation's executive director. "We appreciate his help with the Guilbault Trust and we're grateful that he's knowledgeable about our purposes and conscious of our needs."

Elva O. Guilbault, a Plattsburgh resident, was a dental hygienist for many years in the office of Dr. Leroy Earl of West Chazy. She died on March 18, 1985 at the age of 84 as the result of a car-pedestrian accident.

"My research," she continued, "will test earlier findings concerning the performance of immigrant minorities in American schools by comparing the performance of a previously little-studied minority with that of the mainstream and other minority groups." Higgins' subject population will be Iranian students in Santa Clara, California, where there is a sizable concentration of Iranian immigrants.

Higgins plans to work with school officials, the students themselves, their families, and various community institutions and events that support Iranian culture. She began her work there earlier this month and will spend the next eight months gathering data. Higgins will return to campus in the fall to begin analyzing the data.

A member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty since 1973, Higgins has focused her research efforts on Iranian education. She wrote her dissertation on "Socialization in Modern Iranian Elementary Schools," and from 1977-78, she was a Fulbright Lecturer at Tehran University. She has written several articles and made numerous presentations on Iranian culture and education.

Hall, Stuart to Give Recital

The Center for Art, Music and Theatre and the Music Council will present a voice recital on January 30 featuring baritone Robert Hall accompanied by pianist Kathryn Stuart. The recital will be held in the E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium at 8 p.m. and is free and open to the campus and community.

Hall and Stuart will perform a variety of vocal literature, including German lieder, French chansons and British and American folk songs. Hall is a visiting assistant professor and Stuart is an associate professor.

Centennial Lecture Program Features Canadian Art Curator

Christine Boyanoski, assistant curator of Canadian historical art at the Art Gallery of Ontario in Toronto, will present a slide-lecture program on Monday (Jan. 29) at 7 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. The program, co-sponsored by the Centennial Celebration Committee and the Center for the Study of Canada, is free and open to the public.

The presentation by Boyanoski, who is also curator of "Permeable Border: Art of Canada and the United States, 1920-1940," will focus on her recent exhibition in Toronto. Special attention will be given to the works of Rockwell Kent, whose painting, "The Adirondacks," is part of that exhibition.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25 - THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

FRIDAY, JANUARY, 26

1 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee feature "Uncle Buck." Open to the campus only. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, JANUARY 29

7 pm — Upward Bound Tutor/Counselor Summer Employment Informational. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

6 pm — Financial Aid Workshop for EOP Students. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Champlain Chamber Music Series featuring Robert Hall, baritone and Kathryn Stuart, piano. Sponsored by the Music Department and the Music Council. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

Bortnick: Radon Poses No Threat

Members of the campus community do not have to worry about exposure to radon, according to the results of recent testing on campus.

Edward Bortnick, the campus environmental health officer, reported this week that several buildings were tested for the toxic gas during the semester break. The tests were analyzed by the Radon Testing Corporation of America.

"All 15 tests were well below the EPA guidelines of 4 pico curies per liter," Bortnick said. "The highest reading was 1.30 pCi/Liter, which is the average indoor level. The next highest reading was .70 pCi/Liter, which is the average outdoor level. The remaining readings were in the range of average outdoor levels."

Bortnick added, "The college will continue to make every effort to provide a safe environment for students, faculty and staff."

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31

5 pm — Financial Aid Application Workshop for Off-Campus Students. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

5 pm — Financial Aid Application Workshop for Off-Campus Students. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (4) (Economics, Marketing & Management — 2 Positions — Tenure Track & Sabbatic Replacement) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Chemistry P/T — Jan. '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

Education — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor) — January '90

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Psychology — Fall '90

Professional

Writing Specialist (Learning Center) — Fall '90

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Women's Track Team Takes Cardinal Classic; Hockey Cards Win 2

The Plattsburgh State women's indoor track team won their own Cardinal Classic on Saturday, beating out second place Middlebury College by more than 70 points. Desiree Peart, Jennifer Loomis, and Mary Hurteau all won events for the Cards. Peart qualified for the SUNYAC, NYSWCAA, and ECAC championships with her performance in the shot put.

The men's team took second in the tournament, finishing behind St. Lawrence University. Eric Allen set a school record in the 55 meter dash, qualifying him for the SUNYAC and NYSCT&FA championships.

The men's hockey team had an up and down week. The Cards blanked Potsdam 5-0 on Tuesday, then lost at rival Elmira College, 9-6, three days later. The icers would rebound, though, drubbing Cortland State 9-1 on Saturday.

The women's basketball team won its first SUNYAC contest, beating New Paltz 59-51 Saturday behind Alicia LaValley's 21 points. Earlier in the week, Plattsburgh lost to Oneonta State 59-40.

The men's cagers had a rough week, losing to St. Lawrence on Tuesday, 88-74; to Oneonta State 50-43 on Friday; and to New Paltz 63-62 in double overtime on Saturday.

The men's and women's swimming and diving teams were in Potsdam over the weekend for a double-dual meet against Potsdam and LeMoyne. The women lost to Potsdam, 88-25, but beat LeMoyne 82-26. Kelly Kreuzer won the 100 yd. butterfly and helped win the 200 yd. medley relay against LeMoyne. Against Potsdam, she won the 50 yd. freestyle. The men lost to LeMoyne 64-29 and Potsdam 100-19.

SPOTLIGHT

"Some Current Publications," an annotated listing of topics by Dr. Anna Battigelli, assistant professor of English, appears in the most recent issue of "RESTORATION: Studies in English Literary Culture, 1660-1700," a semi-annual journal supported by the Better English Fund at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. . . "The Proceedings of the SUNY Student Computing Access Program Conference, 1989," contains three papers by SUNY Plattsburgh faculty members. The authors and article titles are: Dr. Ronald Davis, associate professor of English, "Desktop Publishing in the Journalism Curriculum: Issues and Opinions"; Dr. Peter Hornby and Margaret Hornby, professor and lecturer, respectively, of psychology, "A Microcomputer Based Instructional Laboratory in Psychology"; and Drs. Nicholas Mammano and Roger Sandwick, professor and assistant professor, respectively, of chemistry, "Applications of a Spreadsheet to Advanced Chemistry Laboratory". . . Robert D. Hofer, associate professor of mathematics, delivered an address at the Fall 1989 meeting of the Seaway Section of the Mathematical Association of America entitled "What is going on at Potsdam?" According to Hofer, mathematics programs at SUNY Potsdam have received much attention lately because of the large numbers of majors they graduate. Over 20 percent of recent graduating classes there have been mathematics majors. . . Dr. Padi Gulati, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, presented a paper entitled "Political Ideology and Differences in the Provision of Services to the Disabled Elderly in New York and Quebec" biennial meeting of the Association for Canadian Studies in the U.S. held recently in San Francisco. . . Dr. Roberta L. Wacker-Mundy, assistant professor in the Department of Hearing and Speech Science, participated in a miniseminar entitled "Women in ASHA: Strategies for Success" at the recent 1989 annual convention of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association held in St. Louis, MO. Wacker-Mundy also chaired a miniseminar entitled "A Clinical Challenge in Articulation" at that meeting.

Remembering Dr. King

Students inspect exhibit in the Angell College Center lobby tracing the life and career of the late Dr. Martin Luther King and acclaiming his accomplishments in advancing the Civil Rights Movement in the United States. The exhibit, still on display, was coordinated and assembled largely through the efforts of Will Matos, an admissions counselor.

Annual Meeting Today

Private Giving to Foundation Nears $600,000

The Plattsburgh College Foundation today will report that it generated nearly $600,000 in private gifts during 1989.

Announcement of the record-setting achievement — 1989 marks the first year giving to the Foundation surpasses the half-million dollar plateau without the benefit of one major contribution — will be made at

GIVING RESULTS: 1989

Campaigns	Goal	Results	% Over Goal
Annual Giving	$350,000	$403,368.95	+ 15.2
Centennial Campaign	100,000	131,796.99	+ 31.8
Endowment Giving	—0—	46,644.03
TOTAL	$450,000	$581,809.97	+ 29.3

the campus and community organization's annual meeting, scheduled for 4 o'clock this afternoon in Ballroom B of the Angell College Center. Components of the Foundation's overall development program in the past year included annual giving, giving to the special Centennial Campaign and endowment giving.

SOURCES OF INCOME FOR TOTAL GIVING: 1989

Alumni	$185,672.91
Business/Corporate	141,646.34
Faculty/Staff	53,255.07
Foundations/Trusts	48,570.00
Friends	85,742.75
Organizations	38,023.90
Parents	28,899.00
TOTAL GIVING FOR 1989	$581,809.97

Fund-raising results for 1989 show a grand total of $581,809.97. Annual giving produced $403,368.95 while first-year cash contributions to the five-year $500,000 Centennial Campaign totaled $131,796.99. The two separate drives combined topped the $450,000 goal for the year by an impressive 29.3 percent. Giving to endowments, meanwhile, generated $46,644.03 in additional income.

"The response to our appeals for support has been overwhelming," commented SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren. "It reaffirms alumni gratitude and affinity toward their alma mater as well as community confidence in and support of our college. We're especially indebted to the many community leaders and volunteers whose ideas, expertise and enthusiasm guaranteed a successful result."

SUNY Plattsburgh alumni paced all sources of support during the fund-raising year with gifts totaling $185,672.91. In terms of actual dollars, alumni contributions to all campaigns in 1989 increased by an unprecedented 57 percent in comparison with the

(Continued on following page)

$129,000 NSF Grant Supports

Seidel-Rogol's Study of RUI

Dr. Bonnie Seidel-Rogol, assistant professor of biological sciences, has been awarded a research grant of $129,000 through the Research for Undergraduate Institutions Program to study RUI, a nuclear gene required for mitochondrial function in Neurospora Crassa. This award, funded by the National Science Foundation, will be evenly distributed over the next three years to provide summer salaries for two undergraduate research assistants, supplies and scientific equipment, and the funds to hire a part-time technician.

Seidel-Rogol and her assistants will be studying the effects of RUI, a nuclear gene involved in maintaining mitochondrial DNA. She explained her project, "RUI controls mitochondrial stability and replication in the DNA. When this gene is defective, the mitochondrial DNA break down."

Seidel-Rogol earned her Ph.D. from Rutgers and has been teaching at SUNY Plattsburgh since 1985. She is collaborating on this effort with Dr. Helmut Bertrand, Chairman of the Microbiology Department at the University of Guelph, Canada.

SA's Sherman Addresses Voter Education at Assembly Hearing

SA President William Sherman last week addressed a public hearing held by the New York State Assembly's Standing Committees on Election Law, Education, and Higher Education. The topic was voter education and participation among 18-24 year olds.

Sherman told members of the committees that, in Clinton County, college students have been denied the right to vote. SUNY Plattsburgh students, he said, were originally allowed to vote in Clinton County elections in 1982. However, in 1987, that decision was reinterpreted and only off-campus students were allowed to cast their ballots in Plattsburgh. In 1989, he explained, local election commissioners again changed their interpretation of the law and withdrew voting rights from all Plattsburgh State students. None of those decisions, he said, were the result of changes in the election law.

Sherman questioned the rationale behind the various reasons cited by the commissioners for their decision. He cited the economic and public service contributions to the area made by the students and the college itself. He argued against the residency evaluation form students must complete in order to register.

Saying, "We must allow all students in all counties their constitutional right to vote," Sherman urged the legislators to maximize voting opportunities for 18-24 year olds.

A to Z: 1st Alumni Directory Lists Thousands of Graduates

The SUNY Plattsburgh Alumni Directory has arrived! Scheduled to coincide with the college's Centennial Celebration, the directory lists the addresses, telephone numbers, and occupations of thousands of graduates, beginning with Susan Abaffy '88 and ending with Mariann Zysk '80.

The directory lists alumni alphabetically, by class year and by their place of residence. A brief inspection of the directory reveals some interesting facts. For instance, 12 alumni are currently living in Alaska, while 15 have taken up residence in Hawaii. Six call Australia home.

The list of residents of New York State takes up more than 30 pages. At the other end of the spectrum, South Dakota and Iowa list only three alumni and Idaho claims just two. North Dakota is missing from the list entirely.

Alumni who completed and returned the questionnaires to Carlton Graphics, the publishing company, have their occupations and places of business listed as well as their home address. Those alumni who did not respond are listed as shown in the Alumni Office records. Alumni who are not listed either are not in the alumni files or requested that their names not be included.

Directories may be purchased at $33.95 per copy for the softcover edition or $43.95 for hardcover. Checks should be made payable to Carleton Graphics and sent to the alumni office (Kehoe 811).

Giving in '89 Nears $600,000 (Continued from page 1)

previous year.

Gifts from the business community totaled $141,646.34, making 1989 the first year contributions from this constituency surpassed the $100,000 mark — and beating that mark by a substantial margin. Remaining sources of Foundation support included community "friends" ($85,742.75), SUNY Plattsburgh faculty and staff ($53,255.07), foundations and trusts ($48,570), organizations ($38,023.90), and parents of Plattsburgh students ($28,899).

The parents campaign completed only its third year in 1989, and its year-to-year gains have been substantial. Income during the past year exceeded the 1988 total by nearly $9,000, participation increased by 167 parent donors, and the average gift totaled $31, up $4.70 in a year's time.

The Foundation's endowment fund was enriched by three new gifts in 1989. They included a $5,000 endowment established by composer-recording artist-television personality Tom Chapin '64 from proceeds from his June 15 "Founder's Day" benefit concert in Hawkins Hall; a $7,000 endowment for scholarships for art students created by Dr. Ira Rowson Jr., a prominent Plattsburgh dentist, in memory of his late wife, Jane; and an endowment honoring Joyce Papineau, who retired in December after many years as executive secretary of the Student Association, established on the initiative of current and former students and valued at more than $4,000.

Donor participation is up in nearly every category. The increase surpassed 500 and includes 354 new alumni, 126 additional parent contributors, 85 new community friends and 23 new businesses.

The Centennial Celebration Committee presents:

A public lecture by the
HON. SHIRLEY CHISHOLM

on

"Social Justice in America. . . the Individual and the Community"

Wednesday, February 7, 1990

E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall

Seven to Join Foundation Board; Several Named to Corporation

Five persons from the community will be elected to the Plattsburgh College Foundation's Board of Directors during today's annual meeting of the Foundation, while two others will be appointed to the Board.

Proposed for election to three-year terms as directors are John Atwater, Larry Jeffords, Patrick Murnane, Barbara Murray and William Owens.

Atwater

Jeffords

Murnane

Murray

Owens

Damianos

Sherman

Xenophon "Jim" Damianos M.D. '51 will be appointed to a three-year term as representative of the college's Alumni Association, and Student Association President William Sherman will be appointed by SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren as the student representative to the Foundation.

Atwater, now owner of Modern Home Aluminum Corp. and Custom Window Co., is a veteran of more than 30 years in the insurance business. He is currently nearing the end of a five-year term on the Board of Directors of Champlain Valley Physicians Hospital. Jeffords is president and owner of Jeffords Steel & Engineering Co. The former vice president of Vermont Structural Steel Corp. has served several terms in the past as a director of the Foundation-affiliated Cardinal Booster Club.

Murnane is president of Murnane Associates Inc., commercial and general contractors. During the past year he served as co-chair of the Foundation's highly successful business campaign, and before that he was a campaign captain for the business drive. Murray, president and owner of Champlain Valley Electric Supply Co., Inc., will be beginning her third term as a member of the Foundation Board. She also has co-chaired the business campaign and has been active for several years in soliciting funds for that drive. Owens is a partner in the law firm of FitzPatrick, Trombley, Owens and Lahtinen. He has chaired or co-chaired the Foundation's friends campaign during the past three years.

Damianos is a family practice physician in Stony Brook. He and wife Virginia '51 have been active in the Alumni Association for many years and frequently serve as hosts to college people who visit Long Island for business purposes. Dr. Damianos was his alma mater's Alumnus of the Year in 1971. He was also selected as Long Island's "Man of the Year" in 1986. Sherman is a senior sociology major from Schenectady. Prior to his election as SA president, he served as its executive vice president and, before that, as a senator.

Two others will be reappointed to the Board today:

Beth N. Johnson of Tupper Lake, as College Council representative, and Dr. Annette Manganel, professor emeritus of education, as faculty representative.

Several persons will be named as new members of the corporation. The new community members will be Donna Avery, regional vice president of National Savings Bank; Roger Burke, general manager of Pepsi Cola Bottling Co. of Keeseville; John McKenna, architect and president, McKenna Associates; and Diane Reynolds, president of the Lake Placid Sinfonietta.

Joining Damianos as a new alumni member of the corporation will be Robert Brunell, vice president and chief executive officer of Noel J. Brunell & Son Inc. paving contractors. Matthew Malvese, the SA's vice president for finance, will join Sherman as a student member, and Florence Callahan, professor emeritus of education, and Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, will become the corporation's new faculty members.

Sigma XI Lecture Presentation to Focus on Color Photography

James Edwards of Eastman Kodak will give a public lecture on "The Inside Story of Color Photography" at 8 p.m. on February 20 in Room 106 of Hudson Hall. Edwards is a research associate and technical team leader of Eastman Kodak's Color Photography Division. The talk is free and open to the public.

Edwards' talk is co-sponsored by the Plattsburgh Chapter of Sigma Xi and the Northern New York Section of the American Chemical Society. The lecture will be preceded by dinner at 6 p.m. at Windows on the Bay.

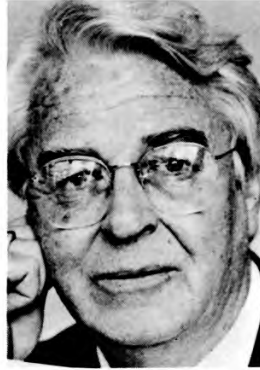

'Wellness Committee' Created; Launches Campus-wide Survey

A President's Advisory Committee on Wellness has been established to focus on issues of health and wellness on the SUNY Plattsburgh campus.

The committee is wasting no time in addressing its purpose. In cooperation with the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), a campus-wide health and wellness survey will be mailed to all employees this week. Copies of the survey will be available to students also, and they may obtain copies from their residence hall directors, at the Angell Center desk or clip them from this week's issue of Cardinal Points.

Woods, Leading Apartheid Critic, Headlines Black History Month

February is Black History Month and 18 different events have been scheduled during the next four weeks to celebrate multicultural diversity. Headlining the month's activities is a lecture by former U.S. Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm, set for 7:30 p.m. on February 7 in the E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium (and announced in last week's issue of "Weekly").

On February 13, Donald Woods, a white South African leader of the fight against apartheid, will speak at 7 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom. As editor-in-chief of the "Daily Dispatch," Woods consistently attacked the racial policy and was prosecuted in court seven times for his continuing criticism of government policy. Arrested in 1977 for publishing details of the killing of black leader Steve Biko, he was placed under virtual house arrest and forbidden to write, speak publicly, be quoted in the press, speak with more than one other person at a time or even to be in the room with more than one other person.

Three months later, he fled to Lesotho with his wife and five children. The Woods family emigrated to London where they now live. In 1978, Woods was appointed Director of the Lincoln Trust, a foundation which supplies information about apartheid to the international media. In 1985, he was appointed special adviser to the 49-nation Commonwealth Secretariat in London. Woods has written three books on South Africa, Biko, Asking for Trouble, and Black and White.

SPOTLIGHT

"Pequenina," a poem in Portuguese by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, professor of French and Portuguese, appeared in a collection A Diaspora em Letra Viva published in Lisbon, Portugal. . . Mary Dossin and Marcia Gottschall of the Special Services project, and peer writing tutor Ron Flax, Christine Kelly, Ralph Risch and Rich Wisneski, gave a presentation on "Students Empowering Learning Disabled Students" at the recent Higher Education Opportunity Program 20th Anniversary Conference in Albany. . . Dr. David A. Franzi, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Sciences, is co-author of two papers accepted for the 1990 Northeastern Section Meeting of the Geological Society of America. Their titles are: "Downwasting of Bering Glacier as Analog for New York Glaciation" and "Ice-marginal Glacial Environments of the Bering Glacier Piedmont Lobe, A Possible Analog for the Late Pleistocene of New York." Franzi also presented an invited lecture recently entitled "The Geological Significance of Fossil Muskox Vertebrae Discovered Near Elizabethtown, New York" to the New York State

The movie "Cry Freedom," which chronicles Woods' friendship with Steve Biko, will be shown as the SA movie on Sunday, February 11, just two days before Woods' visit to campus.

Another highlight of the month will be a performance on February 21 by rapper Kris Parker, known professionally as KRS-One. Parker, 23, was a runaway at 13 and lived in the streets for six years. He has just released his third LP "Ghetto Music: The Blueprint of Hip Hop."

"The Africans," a series of eight video tapes outlining the cultural conflict, cultural synthesis, religious heritages and lifestyles in Africa, will be shown Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8 p.m. from February 1 through February 27. All movies are free and will be shown in Room 205 of Yokum Hall.

On February 1, members of AKEBA will read some of their own poetry as well as works by well-known Afro-American poets. The poetry reading will be held at 7 p.m. in the Centennial Room.

A multicultural sensitivity workshop will teach participants what it is like to be a minority in a group. The session will be held at 6 p.m. on February 12 in the Amnesty Room.

The Minority Concerns Committee will host a multicultural forum for open discussion on February 19 and a multicultural dinner on February 26. AKEBA will host a gospel choir concert on February 17 and will present a play on February 28.

Black History Month events are co-sponsored by the Minority Concerns Committee, the Office of Campus Life, Student Association, College Auxiliary Services, AKEBA and the Centennial Committee

Biological Survey, Albany on 19 January, 1990. . . Dr. Edwin Hamblet, professor of French, reviewed Andre Bourassa's Refus global et ses environs in the Winter 1990 issue of Quebec Studies, the official journal of the American Council for Quebec Studies. . . Dr. Richard Lamb, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Sciences, is the author of a planning report on "Subdividing in the Catskills: The Environmental and Fiscal Impacts," which he prepared for the Catskill Center for Conservation and Development, Inc. . . Dr. Daniel Vogt, assistant professor of biology, presented a paper entitled, "Arctic vs. Temperate Bumblebees: Are There Thermoregulatory Differences?" at the centennial meeting of the American Society of Zoologists, held recently in Boston. . . CORRECTION: Our apologies to Margaret Anderson, psychology lecturer, who co-authored a paper, with Dr. Peter Hornby, professor of psychology, in the "Proceedings of the SUNY Student Computing Access Program Conference, 1989." Anderson was incorrectly identified in last week's "Weekly."

this week on campus

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1 - THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8
Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1

5 pm — Financial Aid Application Workshop for Off-Campus Students. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

1 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.
7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents "Desk Set" starring Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn. (Donations for the League for Control and Protection of Animals as well as clothing and non-perishable food for the needy will be greatly appreciated.) Newman Center.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 4

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Lock Up." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

7 pm — R.A.P. Training for "Dating, Mating and Communicating" workshop. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 - 10 pm — International Awareness Forum presents William Culver, Susan Fernandez, Bryan Higgins, James Lindgren and Stuart Voss; a Faculty Panel discussing "The Panama Invasion." Sponsored by CEES, Dean of Arts and Science, History Department and the Political Science Department. Angell Center Ballroom.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

4:15 pm — Financial Aid Workshop for EOP Students. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

NOTES

Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) or further information. Walk-ins are welcome.

The SUNY Plattsburgh Reading Clinic announces openings for clients for the spring semester. We provide individual tutoring two times a week for an hour at a time. Clients of all ages will be accepted from school age to adults. The clinic will begin February 12 and run for seven weeks until April 13. Clinic hours are 3:00 to 7:00 Monday through Thursday. An initial screening will be completed prior to acceptance into our program. For more information call the Reading Clinic at 564-5145. An open house program is scheduled on Friday, February 9 in Sibley Hall, Room 332, 3 to 5:30 pm. Come join us and tour our clinic.

Education majors: If you're planning to take Block III during the 90/91 academic year (1st or 2nd semester) you must report to the following room at the times indicated as follows:

Mon., Feb. 12, 4 pm, Sibley Hall Cafetorium — All Elementary Education Majors (N-6 & N-9); Tues., Feb. 13, 4 pm, Sibley Hall Room 200 — all Secondary Education Majors and Health Education Majors; Wed., Feb. 14, 4 pm, Sibley Hall Room 113 — Special Education Majors & Speech and Hearing Majors; Thurs., Feb. 15, 3:15 pm, Sibley Hall Cafetorium — all Graduate Education Majors; and Fri., Feb. 16, 4 pm, Sibley Hall Room 100 — For all students who could not attend any of the above meetings. Conflict with classes? Report to Sibley Hall Room 406. Deadline for applications: Feb. 23, 1990.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Win vs. Colonials Averts No-win Week for Cardinal Sports Teams

Last week was a week to forget on the Plattsburgh State sports scene.

The men's hockey team routed the hapless Binghamton Colonials by an 8-1 margin Friday at Binghamton, but it was all down hill from there in that sport and in basketball and in swimming. Hamilton trounced the hockey Cards on Saturday, 6-1; the men's and women's basketball teams each dropped a pair during the week, to SUNYAC foes Albany and Oswego; and the swimmers were beaten by Clarkson and John Abbott College.

Two Cardinal basketball players performed well in defeat. Todd Wright tallied 35 points and Aimee Gomlak scored 30, respectively, in their teams' back-to-back losses to Albany and Oswego.

Agreement Signed

SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren signs formal agreement establishing a formal exchange agreement between the SUNY and University of Toronto systems. Looking on are Dr. Lynd Forgonson (L), president of Toronto's University College, and Dr. Richard Beach, director of SUNY Plattsburgh's Center for the Study of Canada. Center staff negotiated the agreement for SUNY. The signing ceremony occurred last Friday.

'90-91 Calendar Adopted

The college has adopted a calendar for the 1990-91 academic year. The calendar, in its entirety:

FALL SEMESTER 1990

Sat., Aug. 25	Residence Halls Open for New Students Registration/Advisement
Sun., Aug. 26	Residence Halls Open for Returning Students Course Adjustment
Mon., Aug. 27	Fall Semester Classes Begin
Mon., Oct. 8	No Classes — Columbus Day Observance
Tues., Oct. 9	No Classes
Tues., Oct. 23	MIDTERM GRADES DUE
Mon., Oct. 29	Advisement Begins
Tues., Nov. 13	Advisement Ends
Fri., Nov. 16	Classes End (6:00 p.m.) Thanksgiving Break
Sat., Nov. 17	Residence Halls Close (Noon)
Sun., Nov. 25	Residence Halls Open (Noon)
Mon., Nov. 26	Classes Resume
Mon., Dec. 17	Final Exams Begin

Fri., Dec. 21	Fall Semester Ends (Noon) Graduation 2:00 p.m. Residence Halls Close (5:00 p.m.)
Mon., Dec. 31	FINAL GRADES DUE

SPRING SEMESTER 1991

Mon., Jan. 21	Residence Halls Open for New Students (Noon)
Tues., Jan. 22	Residence Halls Open for Returning Students Course Adjustment Begins Morning Registration/Advisement
Wed., Jan. 23	Spring Semester Classes Begin
Wed., Mar. 13	Classes End (10:00 p.m.) Spring Break
Thurs., Mar. 14	Residence Halls Close (Noon)
Tues., Mar. 19	MIDTERM GRADES DUE
Sun., Mar. 24	Residence Halls Open (Noon)
Mon., Mar. 25	Classes Resume Advisement Begins
Tues., Apr. 9	Advisement Ends
Mon., May 13	Final Exams Begin
Fri., May 17	Spring Semester Ends (Noon)
Sat., May 18	Graduation 11:00 a.m.
Fri., May 24	FINAL GRADES DUE

Eminent Canadian Woman Politician MacDonald Visits Wednesday

The Honorable Flora MacDonald, one of the most prominent women in Canadian politics during the past two decades, will visit the campus Wednesday, February 14 to meet with students and give a public lecture.

MacDonald's public lecture, entitled "Important Issues in the Canada-United States Relationship," will be held in the Cardinal Lounge beginning at 4 p.m. She will address comparative women's issues, U.S. cultural influence on Canada, the Meech Lake Accord, communication policy and the Free Trade Agreement. The lecture is free and open to the public.

MacDonald, a native Nova Scotian, has been involved in Conservative politics most of her professional life. She was national secretary of the Progressive Conservative Party during the late 60's and was first elected to the House of Commons in 1972, representing the riding of Kingston, Ontario.

She served as opposition critic for Indian affairs and Northern development. In 1976, she was an unsuccessful candidate for the leadership of the P.C. party, but by then, was well-established as a spokesperson on such important national issues as the constitution, national defense, external affairs and reform of the penitentiary system.

Re-elected to Parliament in 1979, she became Minister of External Affairs in the minority government of Joe Clark, the first woman to hold such an important federal Cabinet post.

In 1984, she became Minister of Employment and Immigration in the first Mulroney government, and in 1986, was named Minister for Culture and Communications. MacDonald retired from politics in November, 1988.

U. of Maine's Morici, Class of '70, Begins Residency on Monday

The second Distinguished Alumnus, Dr. Peter Morici '70, will be in residence on campus February 12-14. Morici is currently an associate professor of economics and Canadian Studies at the University of Maine. He is also an adjunct senior fellow of the National Planning Association (NPA) in Washington, D.C.

During his campus stay, Morici will be a guest lecturer in several classes, meet with faculty in the School of Business and Economics and the Center for the Study of Canada, host a session sponsored by the Office of Career and Life Planning, and meet informally with several groups of students. He will also give a public lecture on "The United States' Competitive Position" at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, February 12 in the Centennial Room.

Morici held several positions at the NPA between 1978 and 1988, when he joined the U. of Maine faculty. His final post with the NPA was that of vice president, and, in that capacity, he directed the association's research on international economic policy.

Morici is a senior fellow at the Iacocca Institute at Lehigh University and the Institute for Canada-U.S. Business Studies at Pace University, an adjunct fellow at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, a member of the Atlantic Council, and vice president of the North American Economics and Finance Association. From 1985 to 1989, he served.

(Continued on next page)

Senior Waldenberger Killed in I-87 Truck-Pickup Crash

Dean Waldenberger, a senior English/journalism major from Bolton Landing, NY, was killed in an accident on Interstate 87 on Monday, February 5. Waldenberger was the son of Dean and Wanda Waldenberger of Bolton Landing.

Waldenberger and a companion, Peter R. Owens of Glens Falls, were traveling north in a pickup truck. After passing a tractor trailer, Waldenberger lost control of his truck, striking several guard rails and skidding in front of the tractor trailer, which was unable to avoid hitting the students' vehicle. The driver of the tractor trailer was not injured and no tickets were issued.

Owens, a sophomore at SUNY Plattsburgh, is in the CVPH Medical Center with a fractured leg.

Calling hours will be held at the Regan and Denny Funeral Home, Quaker Road, Queensbury Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral services will be held at the funeral home at 2 p.m. on Thursday, February 8.

Dismissals Up But Spring Semester Enrollments Remain Steady

Despite a significant increase in the number of students dismissed for academic reasons, enrollment for the spring semester remains at the anticipated level, according to Jan Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management.

Admissions Director Richard Higgins said last week that approximately 400 new students enrolled for the spring semester. "This year, 20 new freshmen enrolled in January, about 275 students transferred to SUNY Plattsburgh, and 105 former students were re-admitted." Higgins said the applicant pool for mid-year admission totalled 1,131 about 4.6% higher than last year.

Edwards said that the yield rate (the percentage of students who accept the college's offer of admission) this semester was approximately 65%, which is the highest it has even been. The next highest yield rate for the spring semester, she said, was approximately 63%, which occurred two years ago.

Higgins said that noticeable increases were seen in

New UUP Recognition Program Provides Cash for Excellence

A new recognition program will provide 150 cash awards of approximately $3,000 each to members of the UUP throughout SUNY. The Excellence Awards have been created by New York State and UUP to recognize excellence among all members of the bargaining unit.

SUNY Plattsburgh is slated to receive at least three of the one-time awards. Three candidates and an alternate will be selected by a campus committee, comprised of three members appointed by President Charles Warren and three UUP members appointed by John Reilley, president of UUP. Warren appointed Dr. Ann Hasting, Dr. E. Thomas Moran, and Janet Saunders to the committee, and Patricia Bentley, Patty Perrillo, and Dr. Douglas Skopp were appointed by Reilley.

Nominations are currently being solicited and should be sent to the Excellence Awards Committee, c/o Campus Mail Room by February 21. After an initial screening of the letters of nominations, the committee may request additional supporting materials. Further information is available from members of the committee.

Morici in Residence (Continued from page 1)

ed as secretary-treasurer of the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States.

Morici is the author of four books and numerous monographs and journal articles. His most recent work, Reassessing American Competitiveness, is a comprehensive assessemnt of the interrelated factors that should be addressed to improve the country's trade performance.

A political science major at SUNY Plattsburgh, several majors chosen by the incoming transfer students. "We saw increases in students applying to accounting, business, environmental science, nursing, mathematics, psychology, sociology, secondary education/English and secondary education/social studies."

Suzanne Daley, coordinator of academic advisement, discussed academic dismissals. "Under the new policy, which requires a grade point average of 2.0 for continued enrollment," she said, "232 students were dismissed. Another 136 were reinstated as a result of the appeals process. Additionally, 184 new students (with 18 credit hours or less) who had grade point averages between 1.6 and 2.0 were allowed to continue after completing an educational plan which outlines how they expect to improve their grades."

Last year, Daley said, 127 students were dismissed after the fall semester and 504 were placed on academic probation.

Campus-wide 'Wellness Survey' Shows Good Early Return Rate

A campus-wide survey on issues of health and wellness among faculty, staff and students is producing a respectable response.

Initiated only last week with a mailing to about 800 employees, the survey had generated a 32 percent response rate as of the early part of this week. "This is encouraging," said Employee Assistance Program coordinator Helen Rock, who is coordinating the survey project in cooperation with a newly established President's Advisory Committee on Wellness. "However, to achieve an accurate picture and to assess needs, we're counting on receiving responses from many more of our colleagues."

Rock said returns from students are lagging. "Student participation should pick up after the survey appears in Cardinal Points," she said, "and that should happen very soon."

Dr. Dave Robertson chairs the wellness committee. Besides Rock, its members are Paula Acree, Leith Bardon, Lois Beach, student Pam Boulrice, Jean Coates, Marilyn Morton, Dr. Merritt Spear, Sally Stay, and Nancy Warren.

Morici earned his Ph.D. in economics from SUNY Albany in 1974.

The Distinguished Visiting Alumni Program, initiated as part of the college's Centennial Celebration, brings to campus alumni who have distinguished themselves in their careers. Rose Pandozy '70, Clinton County Commissioner of Social Services, was the first participant. In coming months, the program will feature visits by ten additional alumni.

Shipman Begins 6th Term as Foundation President; Luck Honored

Curtis E. Shipman, president, chief executive officer and chairman of the board of Keeseville National Bank, has been elected to a sixth term as president of the Plattsburgh College Foundation.

Election of officers of the Foundation's Board of Directors was held last Thursday at the board's first meeting of 1990. Terms continue until the directors' organizational meeting in February of 1991.

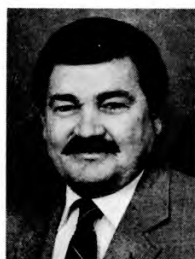

Also elected to board offices were Clifford

Shipman and college President Charles O. Warren. Don Garrant, executive assistant to the president, was reappointed as the Foundation's executive director.

During Thursday's meeting, the directors approved 1990 operating budgets for the Foundation and for the Cardinal Booster Club. They also unanimously approved designation of Albert N. Luck as the organization's first "Honorary Director." Luck, a member of the Foundation board for several terms,

Shipman

Calongne

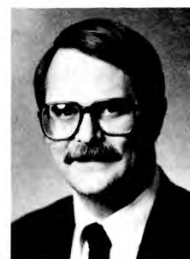

Kelly

Calongne, vice president/operations for Northern Insuring Agency, Inc., first vice president; Elizabeth Kelly, president of Holcomb Abstract Corp., second vice president; Olive M. Flynt, retired former assistant to the president at SUNY Plattsburgh, secretary; and John Homburger, senior business officer at the college, treasurer.

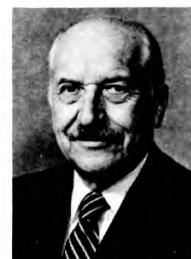

The Foundation's Executive Committee will consist of Calongne, Kelly and Marie L. Beemer, former Plattsburgh businesswomen, and ex-officio members was the recipient of a "special and well-deserved honor" bestowed by the board to recognized individuals "who have rendered distinguished service to the Foundation (as board members) for at least two, three-year terms."

Flynt

Homburger

Luck

The Honorary Director title has been approved as an amendment to the Foundation's By-Laws by the organization's general membership at the Foundation's annual meeting earlier Thursday afternoon. Persons holding the title will be invited to participate in all board meetings as non-voting members.

Marketing Survey: PSTV Catching on With Cable-Viewing Public

A survey of cable television subscribers in the local community indicates that a sizeable percentage watch broadcasting that originates from the SUNY Plattsburgh campus.

Albert R. Montanaro, associate professor and chairperson of the Department of Communication, explained that students in Dr. Nancy Church's fall 1989 semester marketing research class conducted a survey to ascertain the level of viewership for PSTV, Channel 10 on the local cable network. The study, he said, involved a telephone survey of 234 residents selected at random from the Plattsburgh telephone book. More than half of that number were identified as cable subscribers who watch PSTV programming on occasion.

"We are most encouraged by the results of the survey," commented Montanaro. "In view of the modest extent of our operation and the competition, we consider this to be a positive indicator of our impact and potential impact on the community."

Nineteen items comprise the summary findings by the marketing students. They include:

- Of those who receive cable TV in their homes, 59 % said they watched PSTV.
- Using unaided recall, 30 respondents said they watched North Country Nights, 23 respondents said they watched Cardinal Hockey, 13 reported watching Newswatch 10, 9 reported watching The Beat, 5 respondents said they had watched NCTV, and 2 people said they had watched Cardinal Basketball on PSTV. Fifteen respondents gave other programming answers.
- The highest viewing of PSTV was in the 25-34 (66%), 35-49 (72%), and 55-64 (65%) age categories.
- In a comparison of viewing between full-time students and non-students or non-full-time students, the results indicated that more non-students (64%) watched PSTV than full-time students (42.5%).
- Of those sample members who said they received cable TV and have ever watched PSTV, the following percentages reported watching each program: North Country Nightly (32%); NCTV (25%); The Beat (34%); Newswatch 10 (49%); Cardinal Hockey (53%); and Cardinal Basketball (19%).

Win Drought Continues for Cardinal Five; Geneseo Tops Icers

The slump continues for the college's men's winter sports teams. The Cardinal basketball team dropped three games during the past week: 79-59 to Potsdam at home and 81-79 to Fredonia and 102-69 to Buffalo State, both on the road. Buffalo is the top ranked Division III team in the nation.

The women's team was 1-2 against the same schools. They nipped arch-rival Potsdam, 54-53, but were soundly defeated by Fredonia, 65-45, and Buffalo, 97-48. The Cards' Margot Lynch tallied 18 points against Potsdam and 12 in the loss to Fredonia.

In hockey, Geneseo took a commanding lead in the race for first place in the SUNYAC regular season standings with a 4-3 victory over Plattsburgh Saturday at Stafford Arena. The Ice Knights have beaten the Cardinals twice during the 1989-90 campaign.

In track, the Cards hosted the Plattsburgh State Open on Saturday. Suzanne Kennedy was a double winner for the women, taking the 800 and 1,500-meter runs. For the men, Vinny Nittoli won the triple jump with a SUNYAC qualifying jump of 42'4.5". He also ran an 8.6 second 55-meter dash, also qualifying him for the SUNYAC championships.

The women's swim team lost to Skidmore on Tuesday, 150-91. On Saturday, they were drubbed by Middlebury, 131-71. The men also lost to Middlebury Saturday, 118.90.

SPOTLIGHT

A photograph by Robin Brown, college photographer, is being used by Access Services in SUNY's division of Student Affairs and Special Programs on the cover of a special reprint of "Another Country," an article by Lisa Schwarzbaum published originally in the New York Daily News Magazine. The reprint will be used to assist in the recruitment of New York City students from underrepresented groups to the University's upstate campuses. Brown's photo is a black and white print of the color photograph that appears on the current SUNY Plattsburgh viewbook. . . The December 1989 issue of the Money Paper contained an article based on a previously published article by Dr. James J. Coffey, associate professor in the School of Business and Economics, entitled "Saving Taxes by Reserving a Life Estate When Making Gifts," which was published in the November 1989 issue of the New York State Bar Journal. . . Dr. Dennis Costanzo, associate professor of art history, has published a biographical essay and annotated bibliography on Edgar Degas in Salem Press's Great Lives in History series. He has also been invited to contribute articles on the painters Agnes Martin and Joan Mitchell to Garland Press's forthcoming Encyclopedia of North American Women Artists. . . Janet M. Edwards, assistant to the president for enrollment management, was a member of a panel that discussed "Enrollment Planning and Transfer Students" at a recent SUNY-wide conference on Enrollment Planning and Management. . . Dr. Jurgen Kleist, assistant professor in the Department of Foreign Language and Literature, is the author of "Das Dilemma der Kunst," a book published in a series of the studies of modern German literature edited by Peter D.G. Brown. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Sciences, is the author of three recently published works: a book review that appeared in The American Review of Canadian Studies; another, "The Developer's Frontier: The Making of the Western New York Landscape," in the November-December 1989 issue of Urban Geography; and "Studies in the Economic Geography of the British Isles: A Selected Bibliography."

CORRECTION: Dr. Bonnie Seidel-Rogol's grant will allow her to study the natural death (nd) gene, not as stated in last week's "Weekly." Her project is funded by the National Science Foundation through its Research for Undergraduate Institutions Program.

Alpha Chi Rho Given IAB OK to Solicit Items at Home Games

Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, with the approval of the Intercollegiate Athletic Board, will conduct a food and clothing drive during two athletic events next week.

Brett Liquori, vice president of the fraternity, said in a letter to Athletic Director Peter Luguri, "Over the years, our members have regarded community service activities as a fraternal obligation. We would now like to reaffirm our commitment to the college and the community."

The fraternity is asking hockey and basketball fans to bring canned food and used clothing in good condition to the basketball game versus Geneseo State on Friday, February 16 or to the ice hockey game versus Oswego on Saturday, February 17. The brothers will provide boxes, transportation and manpower to collect and transport the food and clothing donated by the spectators.

Liquori said the food will be donated to the Interfaith Food Shelf and the clothing will go to the Community Development Center.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8 - THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Role Conflict: The Nigerian Woman in American Culture" by Dr. Marcellina Offaha. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Financial Aid Workshop for EOP students. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — "The Africans: New Gods." Yokum 205.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9

1 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

7:30 pm — Ice Hockey vs. Cortland. Field House.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents, "And Now Miguel." Donations accepted to benefit the establishment of a PSUC Amnesty International Club. Clothing and non-perishable food will be accepted for needy local people. Newman Center.

8 pm — Friday Night Movie Series: "Chariots of Fire" sponsored by Campus Life and Activities Coordination Board. Open to the campus. Student tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

8 & 10 pm — A showing for students under 21 — Point Comedy Club with Mario Joiner. Food and drink specials with table service. Sponsored by the Activities Coordination Board. Open to the campus. S.A. members $3, public/faculty/staff $5. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk one week prior to the show. Angell Center Point. (Program repeated at 10 pm.)

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10

7:30 pm — Ice Hockey vs. Fredonia. Field House.

8 pm — St. Valentine's Day Dance. Dance to the Latin beat. Snacks provided. D.J. (live). Sponsored by the North Country Latinos/Latin American Studies Program. Tickets are $3 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk or call 564-5827. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Mandala Folk Dance Ensemble co-sponsored by the Council on the Arts for Clinton County, College Theatre Association and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Vancouver Chamber Choir Concert/SUNY Plattsburgh Choral Festival sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. S.A. members $1, public

$7, faculty/staff $4. Tickets on sale at the Hartman Theatre Box Office. St. John's Roman Catholic Church.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Cry Freedom." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12

7 pm — Soviet film: "The Theme." Discussion to follow. Feinberg Library, Room 105.

7 pm — Ames Department Store pre-meeting informational session sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Campus Poets Series present Kim Berg and Jeff Cochran. Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, Faculty of Arts and Science. Newman Center.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meetings. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13

11:30 am — UUP Teleconference. Refreshments will be served. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Dr. Pirouz Shoar-Ghaffari, Department of Communications, speaking on "Iran After Ayatola Khomeini," and Dr. Adnan Abu-Ghazaleh, Department of History, speaking on "The Arab-Israel Talks." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 pm — Women's Basketball vs. Union. Memorial Hall.

7 pm — Donald Woods: "Cry Freedom: Apartheid and Tragedy in South Africa." Reception to follow in the Cardinal Lounge. Sponsored by Minority Concerns, Student Association, Centennial Committee, College Auxiliary Services and Campus Life. Angell Center Ballroom.

7:30 pm — Ice Hockey vs. Elmira. Field House.

8 pm — Men's Basketball vs. Union. Memorial Hall.

8 pm — Champlain Chamber Music Series Concert. Music faculty and friends. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — "The Africans: Tools of Exploitations." Yokum 205.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14

4 pm — The Honorable Flora MacDonald, former member of the Canadian Parliament, "Important Issues in the Canada-United States Relationship." Cardinal Lounge. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada and the Women's Studies Program.

7:30 pm — Club Canada meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — Visiting the Adirondacks Series presents Mike Story of the Adirondack Park Interpretive Center, speaking on The Natural History of the Adirondacks — What is Here Naturally and Why is it So Special? Sponsored by the Office of Campus Life. Angell College Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "The Anglo-Saxon Queen: Saint or Jezebel" by Dr. Judith Abbott. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — The Morality of Insider Trading with Dr. John Yardan. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — "The Africans: The Conflicts." Yokum 205.

NOTES

Do you feel stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) for further information. Walk-ins are welcome.

The 1990-91 Financial Aid application, the Financial Aid Form, is now available at the Financial Aid Office, 4th floor of Kehoe, and at the College Center Information Desk. File the FAF by March 1, 1990 with the College Scholarship Service to receive first consideration for College Foundation Scholarships, College Work-Study Grants, Educational Opportunity Grants, Federal Nursing Loans, Perkins Loans, and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants. The FAF also serves as the application for the Pell Grant, TAP, and the Stafford Loan. Students applying only for the Pell and TAP programs may use the forms provided by the federal and state governments which are or will be available in Financial Aid. In addition to filing the FAF, aid applicants must also submit signed copies of their parents' and their own 1989 federal and state income tax returns directly to the Financial Aid Office by April 15. Furthermore, students who are currently enrolled and are interested in being evaluated for Work-Study eligibility for 1990-91 must check option 1 or 2 to question 5a of the FAF. Preprinted Stafford Loan applications will automatically be sent to students who indicate their willingness to borrow on the FAF. Loan applications will be accepted in the Financial Aid office after May 1 for the 1990-91 academic year. Students who want to apply for College Work-Study, Pell Grant, a Stafford Loan for summer school attendance are required to complete a separate "summer" application currently available in the Financial Aid Office.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (4) (Economics, Marketing & Management — 2 Positions — Tenure Track & Sabbatic Replacement) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Chemistry P/T — Jan. '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
(Adjunct Instructor) — January '90

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Psychology — Fall '90

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Vita Bank — Part-time Faculty — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center — (Learning Center)

Research Foundation

Research Support Specialist P/T (Biology Dept.)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Senate Resolves:

Student-Athletes Eligibility to be Tied to Academic Progress

Student athletes at SUNY Plattsburgh will have to make continued progress toward achieving a baccalaureate degree if they are to maintain eligibility, when a policy approved unanimously last week by the Faculty Senate goes into effect next fall.

The resolution approved was as follows: In order for a student to continue to participate (practice or compete) in intercollegiate athletics, he/she must register for at least 12 credit hours per semester and must complete at least 21 credit hours in his/her first academic year at Plattsburgh and must complete at least 24 credit hours in all other academic years.

It was further resolved that developmental credit hours, while not counting toward graduation, would count toward this requirement. Student-athletes would not be declared ineligible at mid-season and credit hours taken during the summer would count toward completion of the required annual hours.

Director of Athletics Peter Luguri said the policy was approved unanimously by the faculty of the department of physical education, athletics and recreational sports in May, 1988 and has been reviewed and approved by Student Affairs, the Faculty of Professional Studies, the vice president for academic affairs, the dean's council and the executive staff. It then was sent to the Senate Standing Committee on Academic Policies for review. President Charles Warren has indicated he will sign the policy.

"We take our responsibilities to our student athletes very seriously," Luguri said. "We believe we have a moral and ethical responsibility to ensure that they are moving toward their baccalaureate degree if they are to represent the college."

The new academic progress policy, he said, is part of an initiative through which the college will not only set expectations for student athletes, but will make every effort to help the athletes meet those standards. "We are in our second year of offering a monitored
(Continued on next page)

Senate Backs Hours Requirement for Graduation Honors Citation

After considerable discussion, the Faculty Senate last week passed a resolution regarding honors designation at graduation.

Beginning with students graduating as of May, 1991, students must complete a minimum of 60 hours of course work (with a minimum of 45 credit hours graded A through E) at SUNY Plattsburgh to be eligible for honors designations at commencement.

The rationale for the policy, recommended to the Senate by the Standing Committee on Academic Policies, was based on the fact that bestowal of graduation honors should signify that a student has had a significant association with an institution. Students currently must complete 45 credit hours for the honors designation, but 15 of those hours may be on the pass-fail basis, and 30 graded credit hours was not considered to be a 'significant association.'

The policy will now go to President Charles O. Warren for his consideration.

Alumnus in Residence

(L-R) — 1970 graduate Dr. Peter Morici, associate professor of economics and Canadian studies at the University of Maine and adjunct senior fellow of the National Planning Association in Washington, D.C., meets with former SUNY Plattsburgh economics professors — Dr. Warren Dixon and Dr. Prem Ghandi. Morici was on campus this week as the second Distinguished Visiting Alumnus in a year-long program sponsored by the Centennial Celebration Committee that is bringing several successful graduates in varied career fields to campus to lecture, participate in classes and meet informally with students and faculty.

Albany Firm Gets Contract for Hawkins Hall Restoration Planning

The architectural consulting firm of Ryan, Petersen, Mallin and Mendel of Albany has been awarded a contract valued at $800,000 to plan the restoration of historic Hawkins Hall.

The firm was one of more than 80 that expressed an interest in the project, which was funded for planning in the state's 1989-90 capital budget. Full restoration of Hawkins Hall, occupied in 1932 and located on the site of the Plattsburgh Normal School's original building, is expected to cost nearly $6 million and may take five years or longer to complete.

According to J. Derek Allan, director of facilities, the Ryan-Petersen-Mallin-Mendel firm was the first choice of a campus committee that met with and interviewed five architectural consultants found "eminently qualified to fulfill the program." The college's recommendation was approved by the State University Construction Fund, which is the authority charged with responsibility for administration of design and construction contracts.

Allan said the contract low bidder has 30 employees, including 11 registered architects. Prior to interviewing here, two of the firm's senior partners visited the campus twice to familiarize themselves with the nature and scope of the project.

"This firm has worked with restoration in a wide variety of historically significant buildings," said Allan, "including Albany City Hall, the Mechanicville Library, Westminster Presbyterian Church in Albany, and Norstar Bank in Menands. Its senior partners promise to be part of a 'hands-on' team that will work very closely with college personnel."

Allan said that a representative of the firm visited the campus recently along with engineering consultants to establish a list of sub-consultants for Construction Fund approval and affirmative action requirements. "With these precursors in place," he said, "we can expect official approval of consultant contract services very soon."

Forensic Team Back in Action; Finishes 4th in Ithaca Tourney

The college's forensic team is back in competition and will be at Cornell University next week for a tournament. The team recently took fourth place in an eight-team tourney at Ithaca College. Team members made finals in seven of the ten events.

Susan Zwick took the team's only first place (in informative speaking), but Karen Yoos, Chris Holfestor, Deirdre Sutton and duo Laura Sugarman and Alex Krawarik placed in the top six in various events.

Forensic coach/director Al Montanaro said, "Last year, the team graduated all but two of its total membership and we are faced with the task of rebuilding a squad comprised of more than a dozen novices. However, we have several new people who are showing a good deal of promise and we're looking forward to being much improved by the championship season in April."

Eligibility (Continued from page 1)

supervised study session five nights a week for our athletes," Luguri explained. "We are also working closely with faculty to monitor class attendance, completion of work assignments, and referral to appropriate academic support services, such as tutoring."

Luguri added, "While the NCAA requires that an athlete be enrolled in 12 credit hours each semester, they do not require that those courses be completed or passed. To my knowledge, we are the first institution to require completion and passing of 21 credit hours in the first year and 24 credit hours every other year."

Newest Member of ODK

Former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm is flanked by students Twanda McFadden (L) and Vanessa Figueroa, public relations director and president, respectively, of Akeba, the college's multi-cultural organization. McFadden and Figueroa were members of a committee that planned and promoted the recent Chisholm visit, and they served as her escorts during her speaking engagement on campus as guest of the college's Centennial Celebration Committee. The eloquent Chisholm captivated an audience of about 500. Prior to her address in Giltz Auditorium in Hawkins Hall, Chisholm was inducted into the college's Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society.

En Con Supports Bogucki-Gruendling Lampricide Impact Study

Drs. Donald Bogucki and Gerhard Gruendling, both professors in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, have won a $72,245 three-year grant from the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. The grant will support the assessment of the impacts of Bayer 73 (a lampricide) on non-target macroinvertebrates in Lake Champlain delta areas.

EnCon plans to apply two lampricides to streams and deltas of Lake Champlain in an effort to reduce the population of sea lampreys. Current plans call for TFM to be applied to several streams in 1990 and for Bayer 73 to be applied to the delta areas in 1991.

Sea lampreys, Gruendling explained, go upriver to spawn. When the eggs hatch, the young lampreys swim downstream until they find a sandy area in either the stream or delta area. They burrow into the bottom and remain there until they become adults, a period of several years. It is expected that one lampricide application will kill several generations of sea lampreys.

"We have a great deal of information on both experimental and actual effects of TFM on the non-target populations, but very little field research has been done on the actual effects of Bayer 73 on those populations," Gruendling said. "We have already begun to sample the various groups, such as snails, clams, mussels and other invertebrates in the areas to be impacted. We will continue to conduct evaluations during and after the lampricides are applied."

Bogucki added, "Basically, we will be looking at two specific sites in the Peru area. Other studies suggest a relatively rapid recovery rate and we would expect to see just that. These lampricides have been applied in Seneca Lake and Cayuga Lake, but there were no detailed studies conducted on the food chain. This is a good opportunity to do those studies."

While Bogucki and Gruendling will be looking at how the lampricides impact on invertebrates, other research teams will evaluate the impact on fish, birds and amphibians.

This is the third lamprey-related project that Bogucki and Gruendling have been involved with since 1985. They were involved in assessing the impact of lampricide application to wetlands and delta organisms. They also did stream gauging to determine suitable water levels for lampricide application.

'74 Grad Maher Next Up in Distinguished Visiting Alumni Series

The Distinguished Visiting Alumni Series will continue next week with a visit by Dr. Robert Maher, a 1974 graduate. Maher, who is currently principal of Cornwall Central School, has won national recognition for his innovative approach to educational programs in the areas of student leadership, staff motivation and school discipline.

Maher will be in residence on campus February 19 and 20. During his stay, he will meet with various groups of education majors and members of the faculty of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services. He will also host a session sponsored by the Career Life Planning Office to discuss career opportunities in the field of education. At 7:30 p.m. on Monday evening in the Cardinal Lounge, he will give a campus-wide presentation.

In addition to his baccalaureate degree (sociology/criminal justice/special education), Maher earned an M.S. in education from SUNY Plattsburgh. He also holds an Ed.D. from Fordham University.

Prior to assuming his current post in 1988, Maher spent several years as a teacher, and later dean of students and assistant principal at Lakeland Schools.

He was previously a counselor/social worker at St. Joseph's Home.

Maher was the SUNY Plattsburgh Alumnus of the Year in 1978. He was inducted into the Cardinal Sports Hall of Fame in 1985, in recognition of his professional achievements in education as well as his athletic accomplishments during his undergraduate years. Maher captained both the varsity basketball and baseball teams and won not only the SUNY Chancellor's Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award, but an NCAA Outstanding College Athlete of America Award. While pursuing his master's degree on campus, Maher served as varsity baseball coach, assistant varsity basketball coach and as a sports information intern in the Office of College Relations.

In 1986, Maher won the National Freedom Certificate from the Valley Forge Freedom Foundation. That program recognizes educators who have designed educational programs that foster citizenship, positive self-concept, responsibility, social awareness and volunteerism.

He is the author of three books, Character Development and Leadership Training (National Association of Secondary School Principals, 1988), The Training of School Administrators (University of Michigan Press, 1987), and Leadership: A Positive Course of Study (P.P.I. Publishers, 1985). He has also published several articles in professional journals and produced five audiotapes and videotapes on student leadership and discipline.

Hockey Team Wins 2; Woes Continue for Men's Basketball Squad

The men's ice hockey team won both games played during the past week, drubbing Cortland 10-3 and edging Fredonia 5-3. Against Cortland, Martin Beliveau picked up four points on goal and three assists, while Matt Furtado notched two goals and an assist. In the Fredonia game, Jim Powers and Sean Haggerty both tallied a goal and two assists; Beliveau scored the game winning, short-handed goal.

The men's basketball team suffered three losses. Last Wednesday, Clarkson beat Plattsburgh 116-94, offsetting a 23-point performance by Andy Dumas. Two days later the Cardinals lost at Cortland, 97-84, and on Saturday they dropped a squeaker to Binghamton, 75-71. Todd Wright scored 23 points against the Colonials while Dumas had 14.

The women's basketball team endured a similar fate, losing to Clarkson, 94-55, Cortland, 95-20, and Binghamton, 67-46. Alicia LaValley scored 39 points in the three-game set.

The men's and women's swimming/diving team lost its final regular-season meet against Albany; the men by a 114-92 margin and the women by 122-85. Robert Lucchessi was a double winner for the men, however, taking the 100- and 500-yard freestyle events. Joanne Elsasser won both women's diving events and Diedre Sweeney won the 500-yard freestyle.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. James Ashe, professor and coordinator of graduate programs in administration supervision, and Dr. Nicholas F. Troisi, Dean of the Faculty of Professional Studies, will serve as panelists in a discussion of "Performance-Based Preparation of Principals: The New York Survey" at the upcoming 1990 convention of the National Association of Secondary School Principals in San Diego. . . An article titled "The Community Centered Model: A Garden Variety Approach or a Radical Transformation of Community Practice" by Dr. Padi Gulati, associate professor, Center for Human Resources, and Dr. Geoffrey Guest, assistant professor in the Center, was published in the January 1990 issue of Social Work, the primary journal of the 110,000-member National Association of Social Work. The article is based on the findings of a Quebec Research Grant awarded in 1988. . . Dr. Ralph Hunkins, professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, is the author of a review of two books about public education in Canada published in Educational Studies: A Journal in the Foundations of Education, Winter, 1989. The books are Quality in Canadian Public Education: A Critical Assessment by Hugh A. Stevenson and J. Donald Wilson (Eds.) and Exploring the Teaching Milieu by Alice L. Boberg (ed.). . . Dr. Gerald F. Kokoszka, professor of chemistry, has been reappointed to the Board of Directors of The Research Foundation of State University of New York for a term of January 1, 1990 to December 31, 1992. . . An article on Irish novelist William Trevor by Dr. Thomas Morrissey, professor of English, has been accepted by a national journal. "Trevor's Fools of Fortune: The Rape of Ireland" will appear in November in Notes on Modern Irish Literature. . . Alan Lessler, director of the SUNY Plattsburgh Technical Assistance Center, recently gave a talk to the Rotary Club of Plattsburgh about the Center's programs and the economic development process in communities. Also, he met with the local Project 2000 Commission to discuss comprehensive planning, goals setting and implementation activities in the City of Plattsburgh.

About 40 Former Cardinal Icers to Return for All-Alumni Game

An estimated 40 former Cardinal hockey players from the club sport era to the glory years of the mid-1980s and thereafter will return to campus this weekend to take part in the annual all-alumni game and reunion program.

The Red vs. White all-alumni contest, which in years past has featured wide-open play and plenty of scoring, will be played at 5 p.m. on Saturday in Stafford Arena. Admission is free.

"This year's event was planned to coincide with the Cardinal varsity's encounter with arch-rival Oswego State at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday," commented Albert Mihalek, president of the Cardinal Booster Club. The Booster Club co-sponsors the hockey reunion weekend with the college's Alumni Association.

"Plattsburgh-Oswego ranks perhaps as the hottest rivalry in all of Division III hockey," continued Mihalek, "and every former Cardinal player has felt the intensity associated with competing in the year's 'biggest game' on home ice. The atmosphere should enhance the reunion and provide an incentive for the current Cardinal team."

The Booster Club and the Alumni Association will co-host a post-game reception for the returning alumni players, boosters, College Foundation friends and members and coaches of the 1989-90 Cardinal team, to be held in the Angell Center Blue Room. A Booster Club or Century Club card will be required for free admission; others will be charged a fee.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15 - THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 15

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "The Anglo-Saxon Queen: Saint or Jezebel" by Dr. Judith Abbott. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — The Morality of Insider Trading with Dr. John Yardan.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16

1 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

3:45 pm — Men's JV basketball vs. Clinton Community College. Memorial Hall.

6 pm — Women's basketball vs. Geneseo. Memorial Hall.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring 1990 Film Festival presents, "The Little Fugitive." Donations to benefit the Environmental Action Committee, while clothing and non-perishables will be accepted for needy of the community.

8 pm — Men's basketball vs. Geneseo. Memorial Hall.

8 pm — Friday Night Movie Series presents, "Gandhi." Sponsored by Campus Life and Activities Coordination Board. Tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

6 am — Weekly ski trip to Stowe. Bus leaves from Kehoe. Sponsored by the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to members only. Tickets are $20 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk.

9 am - 5 pm — Bowl-a-thon to benefit the Big Brother-Big Sister program. Call Marguerite Adams (565-4758) for details. Memorial Hall bowling alleys.

2 pm — Armchair Theatre — weekly drama reading open to everyone. Sponsored by Alpha Psi Omega, Theatre Honor Fraternity. Myers Fine Arts Lobby.

6 pm — Women's basketball vs. Brockport. Memorial Hall.

7:30 pm — Ice Hockey vs. Oswego. Field House.

8 pm — Men's basketball vs. Brockport. Memorial Hall.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents, "Innocent Man." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets are on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19

8 pm — John Allman, Author of "Curve Away From Stillness" will read from his recent poetry. Sponsored by the English Department Visiting Poets and Writers Series. CVH Commons.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Alumni Program presents a lecture by Dr. Robert Maher '74. Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 20

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — City of Plattsburgh Mayor Clyde Rabideau will speak at a joint meeting of the Marketing Club and ACE, a new entrepreneur organization working toward SA recognition. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 21

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

7 pm — KRS-ONE (Kris Parker), speaker for Black History Month. Sponsored by Campus Life and the Minority Concerns Committee. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Visiting the Adirondacks Series: A presentation on the formation of the Adirondack Park and the rise of the Adirondack Park Agency. Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Songs of Women's Lives: The Unsung Heroines" by Eleanor Stoller. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — "Careers in Students Affairs," sponsored by the Center for Career/Life Planning, the Center for Human Resources, and the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. Kehoe Building, 6th floor conference room.

5 pm — "The Art of Eating," sponsored by the Marketing Association. Reservations required. Angell Center Centennial Room.

NOTES

Do you feel stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) for further information. Walk-ins are welcome.

The Educational Opportunity Program is seeking applications for summer Peer Tutor/Counselors. The E.O.P. Summer Program will run for six weeks — from June 26 through August 3, 1990. In addition, there will be three days of training, from June 20 through the 22nd. Peer Tutor/Counselors will earn approximately $1,200-$1,250 for the six-week session and will be provided with room and board. Feel free to stop in the EOP office for more information. Applications may be picked up in the E.O.P. office, Algonquin Hall, Room, 103, and must be returned no later than Friday, March 9, 1990.

Undergraduate students engaged in pre-medical studies who are legal residents of the city of Plattsburgh or of Clinton County are eligible to apply for financial support through the Dr. Robert S. MacDonald Scholarship Fund. Applications are available from Dr. George Sheats, Chemistry Chairperson, 207 Beaumont Hall. The deadline for submitting applications and academic transcripts is April 3, 1990.

Financial aid deadlines and information: February 28, 1990 is the deadline for submission of all 1989-90 PLUS, Stafford and SLS loans to the Financial Aid Office.

March 1, 1990 is the date financial aid forms should be filed with the College Scholarship Service to receive first consideration for campus based aid.

April 15, 1990 is the deadline for 1989 tax returns to be received by the Financial Aid Office for first consideration for campus based aid.

Summer Financial Aid: A form must be completed in the Financial Aid Office to be considered for Pell, Stafford and SLS loans and College Work-Study.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (4) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
(Adjunct Instructor) — January '90

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Psychology — Fall '90

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Vita Bank — Part-time Faculty — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center — (Learning Center)

Research Foundation

Research Support Specialist P/T (Biology Dept.)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

University Sets Timetable for Campuses to Consider Parking Fee

The issue of a SUNY-imposed parking fee for all members of the college community has surfaced again, and campus officials are preparing to face it squarely on the assumption those affected will begin paying it this summer or in the fall.

The college recently received notice from University counsel that the SUNY Trustees, in January, approved a rules amendment authorizing campuses to establish a parking fee program and to begin the process of proposing parking fee regulations. The amendment, in capsulized form, provides that:

- Campus parking fee programs are to be submitted to College Councils for review and approval after April 13 and prior to May 8;
- Council action (will be completed) by May 8 to allow the Trustees to approve in final form all proposed parking regulations at their May 22 meeting;

- Parking fee amounts (will be) substantially based on an analysis of the costs attributable to the operation and maintenance of University-owned campus parking fees;
- The final parking fee level (will be) subject to approval of the Chancellor, or designee; and,
- Fees may then be imposed at the campuses after publication . . . in the State Register for June 13.

United University Professions, which represents University faculty and professional staff, is one of two unions that have refused to negotiate the parking issue with SUNY. The state Office of Employee Relations has filed an improper practice charge against UUP with the Public Employment Relations Board. The University's Student Association (SASU), meanwhile, has labeled the parking fee as "a back-door tui-

(Continued on next page)

Morlock Assumes Part-Time Post as Coordinator of Assessment

Dr. Henry Morlock, professor of psychology, has been named to the newly created part-time post of coordinator of assessment activities.

Dr. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, announced the appointment which is effective immediately. "We wanted to involve a faculty member," he said, "who combines college level leadership and research capabilities. We're very pleased that Dr. Morlock has accepted the challenge."

Morlock's duties will include organizing an assessment planning committee to oversee campus-wide assessment activities; working with academic departments to develop comprehensive examinations; administration of the various surveys and tests which have been underway for the past few years; and analyzing data, preparing reports, and distributing information to the faculty.

Morlock has been a member of the psychology department faculty since 1965 and has chaired the department for the past three years. He received the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1979. Morlock has been involved with assessment since the FIPSE-sponsored five-campus project began nearly three years ago. He is also associated with the Writing Across the Curriculum program, specifically in its evaluation.

The assessment activities office will be located within the office of the vice president for academic affairs on the third floor of the Kehoe Building (telephone 564-4087). During the academic year, Morlock will be available in that office eight to ten hours each week. During the summer months, the office will be open full-time.

President Sets Open Meeting Schedule Over Coming Week

President Charles O. Warren has scheduled a series of open meetings over the next week where he and other members of the Executive Staff will be available to answer questions on matters of budget, planning or any other topics that arise.

All members of the campus community are welcome to attend. The schedule:

Friday, Feb. 23, 8-9 a.m. — Cardinal Lounge

Tuesday, Feb. 27, 8 - 9 a.m. — Cardinal Lounge

Tuesday, Feb. 27, Noon to 1 p.m. — Sibley, Room 100

Thursday, March 1, Noon to 1 p.m. — Hawkins Hall (Small Auditorium)

Human Resources Center Director Chase to Return to Teaching

Dr. Marilyn Chase, director of the Center for Human Resources since its creation in 1982, is stepping down from that post to return to the teaching faculty at the end of this semester.

Chase will continue to hold her academic rank of associate professor. "I've been an administrator for ten years," she said, "and I'm looking forward to going back to the classroom."

Dr. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, said, "The past ten years has been a period of growth and development for the Center and Dr. Chase has been a very energetic and hardworking director." Under her direction, the popular hotel/restaurant management program was instituted and the fashion buying and merchandising program was implemented.

Moran said that the search for a new director will, of necessity, be an internal one, since there is no vacant line for the position. He has already met with the Center faculty to solicit applications for the post. The new director, he said, will be selected in consultation with faculty members.

Chase was appointed to the faculty in 1967 as an assistant professor of home economics. She was promoted to associate professor in 1978 and served as chair of the home economics department from 1980 to 1982, when she was appointed acting director of the center during its first year.

Psychologist Rothblum to Offer Workshop on Procrastination

"Procrastination and Fear of Failure: What Causes It? How to Treat It" is the topic of a workshop to be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 28 in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge at SUNY Plattsburgh.

The workshop will be conducted by Dr. Esther Rothblum, an associate professor of clinical psychology at the University of Vermont and a nationally recognized expert on the subject of procrastination. Rothblum, who has written more than 30 articles and has contributed chapters to six books on the subject, maintains that "an astonishing number of children, adolescents and adults sabotage opportunities for success and relationships with others by putting off work or commitments until the last minute — often because they are terrified of failing."

During the workshop, Rothblum will discuss situations in which procrastination is common and the reasons why people procrastinate. Participants will then evaluate their own "procrastination profile" and learn how to decrease procrastination and fear of failure in their own lives and in those of their students, clients and employees.

Enrollment in the workshop will be limited to enhance it experientially. Information about registration is available through the college's Center for Lifelong Learning, the workshop sponsor.

During her visit to campus, Rothblum will also be the guest speaker at Women's Studies Forum to be held at 12:15 p.m. on Thursday, March 1 in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. Her topic will be "Loving Boldly: Issues Facing Lesbians."

Parking Fee (Continued from page 1)

tion increase."

SUNY hopes to raise $4 million through parking fees to offset a budget shortfall. Newspaper articles have set the fee at $132 per year.

"We believe that amount ($132) is the most any person would be expected to pay on any University campus," commented John Homburger, senior business officer. Homburger has been asked by President Charles O. Warren to form a committee representative of all college constituencies that will be charged to develop "an equitable implementation plan" for this campus.

"We interpret the Trustees' amendment as giving us the authority to establish the fee level here in relation to direct costs of maintaining parking facilities. We don't know how that will come out," he added, "but is $132 represents the break-even figure at the largest SUNY campus. The fee here could be lower."

Several complex issues must be dealt with locally that transcend the University's directive. For example, said Homburger, if fairness is fundamental to the process, how will the fee schedule apply to part-time students? to those who commute? Will there be an extra fee for those who register more than one auto? Will there be a reduced fee for students and faculty as opposed to 12-month employees, and how will it be collected?

"We're sure many more equally perplexing questions will confront the committee," said Homburger, "without even mentioning the matter of convenient parking versus available parking. . ."

Expert on Women in the Economy Will Lecture Twice on Tuesday

Dr. Barbara Bergmann, reputed to be the world's leading authority on women's roles in the economy, will visit the SUNY Plattsburgh campus Tuesday (Feb. 27) to give two public lectures and to meet with college special interest groups.

Bergmann, currently Distinguished Professor of Economics at American University in Washington, D.C., will discuss "A Policy Agenda for the Sex Role Revolution" at 12:15 p.m. in Room 200 of Yokum Hall, and "Does Pay Equity Make Economic Sense?" at 7:30 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom. Following her afternoon presentation, she will meet with the college's Commission on Women and its Affirmative Action Committee.

A member of the editorial boards of the American Economic Review and Challenge Magazine, Bergmann is a referee for most of the major journals in the field of economics, and she has served as a columnist on economic affairs for both The New York Times and The Los Angeles Times. Her most recent books are A Macrosimulated Transactions Model of the United States Economy and The Economics Emergence of Women. The latter is currently in use in economics and women's studies courses at both SUNY Plattsburgh and the University of Vermont.

Bergmann's areas of expertise on economic topics and issues extends from wage differentials, discrimination, comparable worth and affirmative action to economic problems of the housewife, child support, and women's labor force participation. She has chaired the American Economic Association's Committee on the Status of Women in the Economics Profession, and she has provided expert testimony many times in discrimination and affirmative action suits involving colleges, government agencies and corporations.

Besides American, Bergmann has been a member of the faculties at Harvard, Brandeis and the University of Maryland. She has served as president of the Eastern Economic Association, vice president of the American Economic Association, senior staff economist on President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisors, advisor to the Census Bureau and the Congressional Budget Office, and senior staff member of the Brookings Institution.

All Employees to Get Required Training in Right to Know Law

Every SUNY Plattsburgh employee will receive training on the Right-to-Know Law prior to June 1, according to Environmental Health Officer Ed Bortnick. Bortnick said the New York State Department of Labor has mandated that every employer must inform all employees about their right-to-know about chemical hazards in the workplace.

Bortnick explained that the program is already underway and all maintenance and operations employees have participated in one of the training sessions. The sessions include a 17-minute film on safety and will be offered several times in each campus building (except residence halls) between now and the end of May. Information on time and place will be distributed by department heads.

Bortnick added that the campus safety committee has written a policy for campus implementation of the right-to-know law. The document is currently being reviewed by the executive staff.

John Terry Dies at 71

The SUNY Plattsburgh campus community mourns John F. Terry Sr., professor emeritus of mathematics, who died last Tuesday (Feb. 14) at his home in Plattsburgh. He was 71.

Mr. Terry, who held degrees from Hartwick College and Clarkson University, joined the college in 1964 as assistant professor of mathematics. He retired in 1983 at the rank of associate professor. Well known in the community, Mr. Terry was an avid golfer, a coach and a respected umpire and official of high school baseball and football, and a member of several professional organizations.

Printmaker Myers to Lecture for Visual Artists Series

The Visual Artist Series will present a lecture by printmaker Frances Myers at 8 p.m. on Thursday, March 1 in the Cardinal Lounge. The lecture is free and open to the campus and community.

Myers' work is currently included in two traveling exhibitions organized by the USIA, one in Russia and one in the Middle East. It is also reproduced and discussed in Ross and Romano's The Complete Printmaker and in Watrous' A Century of American Printmaking.

Myers is currently an assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. Her work is included in many public print collections in the United States and Europe.

Teacher-to-Teacher Program Hosts Soviet Physicist Komarov

A Teacher-to-Teacher Program, sponsored by the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, hosted a visit to campus and to area schools by Russian physicist Vladimir Komarov.

Komarov, a former faculty member at Leningrad University, spent three days in the community last week. He met with Block I and II students, education faculty, student teachers, arts and science faculty members, and students and faculty from the physics department.

Komarov spent time with elementary and secondary students and teachers at St. John's School, Plattsburgh Middle and High School, Saranac Central, Ausable Valley Central School, and Northside School. He also presented a physics seminar for college and high school teachers.

Komarov holds a Ph.D. from the Moscow Academy Institute of Chemical Physics. He has served as a scientific associate at Leningrad University and as an assistant professor of physics at Leningrad Technological Institute. He has spent several summers as an ecology activist in the Lake Baikal area. Komarov is currently teaching in the Germantown Friends School in Philadelphia.

39 Student-Athletes Earn Spot on Fall Semester All-Academic Team

Tennis and soccer athletes dominate the women's fall 1989 All-Academic First Team while five performers in as many sports comprise the men's team.

Collectively, 39 of 168 students who competed in intercollegiate athletics last semester achieved a grade-point average of at least 3.0 to earn a spot either among the top ten academically or "honorable mention" status. The All-Academic Team is compiled by the Department of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreational Sports (PEARS).

Kerry Hodgens, a junior speech and hearing major from Middletown, led all student-athletes in academic performance with a 4.0 gpa. She was joined on the women's team by Melissa Frenyea, junior, soccer, 3.838, education, Morrisville; Julie Dobert, senior, cross country, 3.825, accounting, Rennselaer; Allison Elston, sophomore, tennis, 3.7, undeclared, Dix Hills; and Dana Ronca, freshman, soccer, 3.68, undeclared, Scotia.

Cross country runner Daniel Pollay, a junior accounting major from Cato, earned a 3.86 gpa for the fall's top ranking academically among men athletes. His All-Academic Teammates are David Kocsis, sophomore, hockey, 3.775, psychology, Glendora, CA; Robert Lucchesi, freshman, swimming, 3.75, criminal justice, New Paltz; Chad Deweese, freshman, soccer, 3.56, criminal justice, Scotia; and John Kmack, sophomore, basketball, 3.5, business, Potsdam.

Members of the women's honorable mention team (gpa of 3.0 or higher) include basketball players Aimee Gomlak, Tracey Poissant, and Kristen Trembley; soccer players Ellen DeLuca, Kelly LaDuke, and Allison Mickle; cross country runners Heather Jefson, Suzanne Kennedy, and Jennifer Loomis; tennis players Tracy Fossetta, Kelly Gates, Laura Hammond, and Sonya Stanley; and swimmers/divers Joanne Elasser, Kelly Kreuzer, and Kerry Sinnenberg.

The men's honorable mention list includes basketball players Anthony Guidi and Sean Mabey; cross country runners Patrick Clear, Eric Powell, David Seguin, and Rich Wisneski; soccer players Johnathan Chapman and Emericano Coimbra; and swimmers/divers Paul Auger, Randy Kelley, and Patrick Prag.

Distinguished Visitors

A February 7 Centennial Celebration lecture presentation by former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm began a month-long series of campus visits by renowned personalities on the national and international scene. Above: journalist Donald Woods, apartheid critic whose escape from his native South Africa was chronicled in the acclaimed film, "Cry Freedom," meets the press prior to his lecture on campus during the college's observance of Black History Month. Below: the Hon. Flora MacDonald, former Canadian Parliamentarian and later her country's Minister of External Affairs, meets with student members of Club Canada as guest of the Center for the Study of Canada. Both were on campus during the past week.

Iowa Distinguished Professor Next Distinguished Professor Here

The department of communication will host the next Distinguished Visiting Professor. Dr. Samuel L. Becker, who is the University of Iowa Foundation Distinguished Professor of Communication Studies, will be in residence from February 26 through March 9.

Among his other activities on campus, Dr. Becker will present three public lectures. At 4 p.m. on February 28 in Yokum Hall 208, he will discuss "From Ballot Box to Boob Box: The Reshaping of Government," examining the relationship of the mass media, politics and government. "Finding Reality: Media Help or Hindrance" is the topic he will consider at 7:30 p.m. on March 5 in Yokum Hall 200. Finally he will address "Athletics vs. Academics: A Marriage of Inconvenience?" at 7:30 p.m. on March 8 in the Angell Center Ballroom.

Becker is a member of the editorial boards of "Critical Studies in Mass Communication," "Human Communication Research" and "Journal of Applied Communication Research." He is a former president of the Speech Communication Association. He co-edited the textbook Media In Society: Readings in Mass Communication.

His scholarly and non-scholarly interests are wide ranging. Becker is currently doing research on the prevention of adolescent tobacco use. He has served as a faculty representative to the Big Ten Conference and the NCAA. He is also active with program evaluation of higher education institutions.

Becker's visit is being coordinated by Dr. Jim Kim, associate professor of communication.

'Masque of Beauty and Beast' Next Hartman Theatre Offering

The Theatre and Music Departments of the Center for Art, Music and Theatre will present "The Masque of Beauty and the Beast," a play with music, in the Hartman Theatre February 28 - March 3, nightly at 8 p.m., and at 2 p.m. on March 4.

Dr. Marshall Onofrio, assistant professor of music, has written a new musical score for Michael Brill's dramatization of the classic tale, which is set in verse. Onofrio will conduct a chamber orchestra in the performance of his score, which includes songs, dances, and music to support dialogues and scene changes. Dr. Timothy Palkovic, associate professor of theatre, is directing the production.

Kim Hartshorn, assistant professor of theatre, is designing scenes and lights; Dr. Ruth Kline, assistant professor of theatre, is creating the costumes; and Sara Fendley is choreographing the production and will play the role of the Mother Figure.

Appearing in the title roles are Kristen Becken and Joseph Steven Parungao. Also in the cast are Katrina VanOrder, Robert Pearl, Nikki Bruhn, Tom Ramie and Deborah Ann Zinnanti.

Tickets ($5 general public, $4 SUNY faculty/staff, and $1 SA members) are available at the Hartman Theatre Box Office.

Center for the Study of Canada Gets Grant for Resource Center

The Center for the Study of Canada has been notified that the U.S. Department of Education has awarded the Northeast Resource Center on Canada a third year renewal of $171,258. The Resource Center is a cooperative venture of SUNY Plattsburgh, the University of Maine and the University of Vermont.

Dr. Richard Beach, Center director, said, "This is the largest single grant for area studies of the 96 awarded nationally under this program. We are encouraged that this year's award is slightly larger than the one we received in 1989, especially since the total funding available nationally was not increased."

The money will be used for library acquisitions, faculty research and travel, partial funding of the Ontario Summer Seminar and the French-Canadian Institute for Language and Culture, student-faculty excursions and program operation.

Maher 'On the Block'

Distinguished Visiting Alumnus Dr. Robert Maher '74 meets with Block II students in a session at the Center for Teacher Education during his stay on campus earlier this week. Maher, who has won national recognition for his innovative approach to educational programs in student leadership, staff motivation and school discipline, is principal of Cornwall Central School.

Card Cagers Win Final 3; Playoff-Bound Hockey Team Earns Split

The Cardinal men's basketball team ended its 1989-90 campaign on a high note, winning their final three games during the past week. The women, however, closed out their season with as many losses.

Andy Dumas tallied 17 points and three other Cardinals scored in double figures in Plattsburgh's 75-67 triumph over Union on Tuesday. Todd Wright's 20 markers led the Cards past highly rated Geneseo on Friday, 84-71, and Wright pumped-in 28 points and pulled down 14 rebounds as Plattsburgh edged Brockport, 72-67, the following night. The Cardinals finished the season at 9-15 overall and 3-12 against SUNYAC opponents.

The women were soundly defeated in their final three games. Union defeated them, 74-53, Geneseo trounced them, 68-35, and they lost to Brockport, 79-64, on Saturday. Their record fell to 3-19 on the season and 2-13 in conference play.

In hockey, the Cardinals gained a split in their last two games of the regular season. Elmira came back from a three-goal deficit with six of their own in the second period on Tuesday, and held on for a 6-5 win. The Cards rebounded with a 7-4 victory over Oswego on Saturday, as Jim Duran picked up a pair of goals and an assist. Plattsburgh is 17-8-1 and 12-2 in SUNYAC going into this weekend's conference playoffs at Geneseo. The winner of that tournament gets an automatic bid to the upcoming NCAA playoffs. Geneseo is the only conference team to beat the Cardinals this season.

At the SUNYAC Men's and Women's Indoor Track Championships in Cortland last weekend, Plattsburgh's men placed seventh, and women finished fifth behind victorious Fredonia and Cortland, respectively. Eric Allen was second in the 55 meter dash; Alex Rios placed fourth in the 55 meter hurdles; and the men's 4 x 800 relay team came in third. For the women, Desiree Peart placed second in the shot put, while Suzanne Kennedy ran fourth in the 1500-and 3000-meter events.

SPOTLIGHT

Margaret Anderson, lecturer in psychology, and Dr. Peter Hornby, professor, collaborated on two recent presentations: "Computer Use in Psychology Instruction: A Ten-Year Perspective," and "A Review of Software for Introductory Psychology Instruction," both at the annual meeting of the Society for Computers for Psychology, held in Atlanta. The papers have been accepted for publication in Behavior Research Methods, Instruments and Computers. . . "Lamennais and Liberation Theology," an article by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, professor in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, appears in the winter issue of Nineteenth-Century French Studies. . . The poem "9 November 1989" by Dr. Jurgen Kleist, assistant professor in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, which deals with the fall of the Berlin Wall, has been accepted for publication in an anthology which is edited by Prof. Wolfgang Mieder, University of Vermont, and will be published in the summer of 1990. . . The book-length Portuguese-to-English translation of Brazilian writer Clarice Lispector's Soulstorm by Dr. Alexis Levitin, professor of English, was described as "brilliant" in a recent review in The San Francisco Chronicle. . . By invitation of the Colonial Williamburg Foundation, Dr. James Lindgren, assistant professor of history, recently served as a consultant for the interpretation of Carter's Grove Plantation, an eighteenth century Georgian mansion on an 800-acre tract of land there. He also spoke about Virginia's politics and society at the time of the plantation's enlargement during the Colonial Revival movement during the 1920's, and he presented a talk — sponsored by the Foundation and the Commonwealth Center of the College of William and Mary — entitled "Virginia Needs Living Heroes: Historic Preservation as Inspiration in the Progressive Era" for the Williamsburg community. In the past year, Lindgren has published articles on Virginia's historic preservation movement in Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Virginia Cavalcade, and William and Mary Magazine. . . Dr. Naomi McCormick, professor of psychology, has been active in publishing recently. Her chapter entitled "The Courtship Game: Power in the Sexual Encounter," from Changing Boundaries: Gender Roles and Sexual Behavior, has been reprinted in Dating, Marriage and Divorce. Also, McCormick's "Feminism as Family Tradition: Two Generations of Feminist Therapists" has been accepted for publication in Women and Therapy. Last fall, McCormick was appointed to the editorial board of the Journal of Psychology and Human Sexuality, and in November she was elected co-chair of the Feminist Interest Group at the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex. . . Dr. Michael P. Wolfe, director, and Drs. Nick Stupiansky and Carmi Wells, assistant professors in the Center for Teacher Education, presented a workshop entitled, "Becoming a Competent Beginning Teacher: A Proud Past and A Promising Future" at the recent National Association of Teacher Educators Convention.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22 - THURSDAY, MARCH 1

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents "Songs of Women's Lives: The Unsung Heroines" by Eleanor Stoller. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Office of Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents, "20,000,000 Miles to Earth." Donations to benefit UNICEF. Clothing and non-perishables accepted for the benefit of the local needy. Newman Center.

8 pm — World-famous Hypnotist Frank Santos. Sponsored by the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to the campus and public. Tickets: S.A. members $3, public $5, faculty/staff $4 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk one week prior. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Friday Night Movie Series presents: "Terms of Endearment." Sponsored by the Office of Campus Life and the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to the campus. Tickets are 50¢ and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24

9 - 11 pm — Free Ice Skating (open to faculty and staff) sponsored by the Office of Campus Life. Field House.

Weekly Ski Trip to Mad River Glen sponsored by the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to members only. Tickets are $20 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25

12 - 2 pm — Club International is recruiting models for their International Fashion Show to be held April 7. Anyone interested in helping out, please attend. Open to the campus. Sibley Cafeteria.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Lethal Weapon II." Open to the campus. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

7 - 9 pm — R.A.P. Training for "Date Rape" workshop. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26

7 - 9 pm — "What is Panhellenic?" Sponsored by the Greek Council and the Office of Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 - 9 pm — Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Informational. Sponsored by Phi Sigma Sorority and the North Country Council on Alcoholism. Angell Center Ballroom.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27

10:30 am - 2 pm — Dr. David King, Professor with the Arab Baptist Theological Seminar, Beirut, Lebanon will be available to meet with those interested in current mid-east affairs. Open to the campus. Sponsored by the Baptist Campus Ministries. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

11:30 am — U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 pm — Brown Bag Recital featuring music students and faculty. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 - 5 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Melvin Donaho, Department of Communications speaking on "Did You Take Out the Garbage?" The impact of our inability to handle trivia or to ask and answer questions on our lives. Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 - 8 pm — Andersen Consulting will hold an informational session to discuss current "M.I.S. Consulting Positions" with the firm. Sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

9 am - 3 pm — Workshop: "Procrastination and Fear of Failure" with Dr. Esther Rothblum. Sponsored by the Psychology Department and the Center for Lifelong Learning. Contact the Center for Lifelong Learning for costs and registration. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 — The English Department sponsors Reading Aloud — Readers Reading Writers (approximately 45 minutes). Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1

8 - 11 pm — Frances Myers, a Visiting Artist, will be giving a lecture and slide show on her art. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum: "Loving Boldly — Issues Facing Lesbians" with Dr. Esther Rothblum, University of Vermont. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, Office of Campus Life and the College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

NOTES

Do you feel stressed? The Psychological Services Center is running a Stress Management Clinic. Students will be taught on an individual basis to relax and control their tension using relaxation techniques and biofeedback equipment. The Clinic services are open to all students and are free of charge. You may phone ahead for an appointment (564-3086) for further information. Walk-ins are welcome.

The Educational Opportunity Program is seeking applications for summer Peer Tutor/Counselors. The E.O.P. Summer Program will run for six weeks — from June 26 through August 3, 1990. In addition, there will be three days of training, from June 20 through the 22nd. Peer Tutor/Counselors will earn approximately $1,200-$1,250 for the six-week session and will be provided with room and board. Feel free to stop in the EOP office for more information. Applications may be picked up in the E.O.P. office, Algonquin Hall, Room, 103, and must be returned no later than Friday, March 9, 1990.

Undergraduate students engaged in pre-medical studies who are legal residents of the city of Plattsburgh or of Clinton County are eligible to apply for financial support through the Dr. Robert S. MacDonald Scholarship Fund. Applications are available from Dr. George Sheats, Chemistry Chairperson, 207 Beaumont Hall. The deadline for submitting applications and academic transcripts is April 3, 1990.

Financial aid deadlines and information: February 28, 1990 is the deadline for submission of all 1989-90 PLUS, Stafford and SLS loans to the Financial Aid Office.

March 1, 1990 is the date financial aid forms should be filed with the College Scholarship Service to receive first consideration for campus based aid.

April 15, 1990 is the deadline for 1989 tax returns to be received by the Financial Aid Office for first consideration for campus based aid.

Summer Financial Aid: A form must be completed in the Financial Aid Office to be considered for Pell, Stafford and SLS loans and College Work-Study.

Internships: Sociology and Criminal Justice students interested in registering for internships for Fall 1990 semester are requested to attend an informational meeting on Thursday, March 1 at 4:00 pm in Room 239 Redcay. General inquiries welcome. Contact Dr. Weiss, Ext. 3310.

The Sexual Harassment Committee is sponsoring a workshop for faculty/staff on Monday, February 26 from 2 - 4:30 pm in the Cardinal Lounge. Please call Bette Brohel at 2280 if you are interested in attending.

Reminder to Faculty, Staff and Students: The deadline for submission of abstracts for Showcase '90 is Friday, March 2. Please submit abstract forms to Dr. Ed Miller, Beaumont Hall.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Cal's Bellah to Explore 'Meaning of Current World Revolution'

Robert N. Bellah, Elliott Professor of Sociology at the University of California at Berkeley and author of the national best-seller Habits of the Heart, will give a public lecture here next Wednesday (March 7) in a program sponsored by the college's Centennial Celebration Committee.

A scholar, analyst and commentator on world affairs and the American psyche, Bellah will discuss "The Meaning for Us of the Current World Revolution" and relate the topic to the thoughts and lifestyles of individual Americans today. His presentation will take place at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Hartman Theatre in the Myers Fine Arts Building, and a reception will follow immediately in the Winkel Sculpture Court.

"Robert Bellah asks 'How ought we to live? Are American rugged individualists or passive conformists? and What does "community" mean to Americans?'" commented Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs, who is coordinating his visit. "If the Centennial lecture series is intended to relate education at SUNY Plattsburgh to some of the best thinking and most pressing concerns in America today, Dr. Bellah is certainly qualified to carry it forward."

A member of the California at Berkeley faculty since 1967, where he chairs both the sociology department and the Center for Japanese and Korean Studies, Bellah had taught previously at Harvard, Stanford and McGill universities. He is an expert on the Middle East and Far East, and he has published books on Islamic and Japanese religion.

Of Habits of the Heart, which Bellah wrote in collaboration with other researchers, a prominent reviewer wrote: "(It) holds up a mirror to American values, makes us examine ourselves, and dares us to question where our society is going. (It) will make you question your own habits and look into your own heart. Not many books possess that ability."

Bellah's most recent book is Uncivilized Religion: Interreligious Hostility in America (Crossroad, 1987), which explores the controversy about the relation between religion and politics.

Distinguished Visiting Alumna:

Wisconsin-Madison Psychologist Devine '81 to Begin Residency

The fourth Distinguished Visiting Alumna, Dr. Patricia Devine '81, will be in residence on the campus March 4-6. Devine, who is currently assistant professor of psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, will meet with students and faculty, participate in a workshop sponsored by the Career Life Planning Center and teach an Honors Seminar in conjunction with Assistant Dean of the School of Business Ronald Hobson.

Devine will also give three formal presentations. On Monday, she will discuss "Inhibiting Prejudiced Responses: A Constant Battle" at 7:30 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge. The following day, she will be the guest speaker at a Psychology Department Colloquy on the subject of "Inner Conflict and Prejudice" at 1:15 p.m. (location to be announced) and a 4:15 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge, she will speak on "Reflections on Undergraduate Teaching and Learning," as part of the Tuesday Reflections Series.

During her undergraduate years at SUNY Plattsburgh, Devine did extensive research on eyewitness identification under the supervision of Dr. Roy Malpass, professor of behavioral science. She co-authored several journal articles with Malpass and co-presented their research at scholarly meetings in Arizona, Connecticut, Canada, New York, Boston, the Netherlands, and at Oxford University. In 1980, she received the Undergraduate Research Award, given by Sigma Xi, and in 1980 and 1981, she won the Redcay Award for Excellence in the Behavioral Sciences.

Devine served as president of the campus chapter of Psi Chi and was a founding member of Omicron Delta Kappa. She earned her bachelor's degree summa cum laude.

Devine earned her master's degree and doctorate from Ohio State University. Her doctoral disserta-

(Continued on next page)

Variety Spices Friday's First 'Cultural Diversity Celebration'

Films, lectures, a seminar and a multi-cultural music production make up "Celebrating Cultural Diversity," an ambitious day-long series of events coordinated by the Women's Studies program and scheduled for Friday (March 2), mostly in the Angell Center. All are open to the campus community and the community at-large.

Modeled after the college's annual "Canada Day" program, the cultural diversity celebration, explains Dr. Jennifer Scanlon, assistant professor in the Women's Studies program, has been planned for Friday to capitalize on carry-over interest in Black History Month in February and the observance of Women's History Month throughout March. It is a collaborative activity, she adds, that is designed to "expose the campus community to its own diversity."

Friday's events begin at 10 a.m. with a showing of the film "A Class Divided" in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. At 11 a.m., also in the Cardinal Lounge, SUNY Plattsburgh alumna Margot Thomas '71, of Albany, an attorney who formerly served as legal advisor to New York State Assembly Speaker Melvin Miller, will speak on "Lobbying for the Rights of Women."

The Cardinal Lounge will be the site of the first three afternoon programs. At noon, Dr. James Armstrong, associate professor of anthropology, and Patricia Bentley, associate librarian, will discuss "Homophobia 101 — A Context for SUNY Plattsburgh." Films entitled "Two Lies" and "Color Schemes" will be shown during the next hour, and at 2 p.m., Tia Cross, a community activist from Burlington, Vt., will talk on "Unlearning Racism and Sexism." The program will move to the Angell Center Blue Room for a 3 p.m. "assertiveness seminar" led by Tom Fobel, a local martial arts instructor, entitled "How to Avoid Sexual Manipulation."

The celebration will conclude at 8:30 p.m. in Giltz Auditorium with a performance of "Women of the Calabash." The program is billed as "a multi-cultural event" by an African American trio that has earned acclaim for its originality in "resurrecting lost African tion, entitled "Automatic and Controlled Processes in Stereotyping and Prejudice," received several awards, including one from the American Psychological Association's Society for Psychological Study of Social Issues.

Devine in Residence

(Continued from page 1)

Devine is a member of the editorial board of "Personality and Social Psychology Bulletin" and last year was a member of the editorial board of the "Journal of Personality and Social Psychology." She is co-editor of Social Cognition: Contributions to Classic Issues in Social Psychology, which is slated for publication by Springer-Verlag.

cultures," for its musical dexterity in performing on "a huge assortment of instruments, from flutes and drums to iron bells . . ." and for its power "in pulling audiences from their seats to pay tribute to the voices of South Africa, Nigeria, Martinique — and Mississippi, too."

14 From Plattsburgh to Attend 'SUNY Day' Parlay in Capital

A 14-person delegation of SUNY Plattsburgh faculty, staff, students and College Council will take part in "SUNY Day" activities in Albany on Tuesday (March 6).

SUNY Day in the state capital is a University-wide event coordinated by Central Administration's Office of Governmental and University Relations. It will consist of a breakfast meeting honoring state legislators who are State University alumni; a morning series of presentations and discussions centering on higher education issues before the Legislature, culminating with a panel session featuring the chairpersons of the Senate and Assembly Committee on Higher Education; and an afternoon devoted to person-to-person meetings between individual campus representatives and their Senate and Assembly representatives.

President Charles O. Warren will lead the Plattsburgh delegation. Joining him will be College Council Chairperson Robert Garrow and Council members Arnold Amell, Wayne Byrne, Jacqueline Walker and Sally Webb; campus CSEA President Elizabeth Lennon; Student Association President William Sherman, SA Executive Vice President Mike Jette, and Connie Hollenbach, SA vice president for Central Affairs; Dr. Raymond Domenico, chairperson of the Faculty Senate; Patricia Bentley, UUP secretary-treasurer and academic delegate; Don Garrant, executive assistant to the president; and Malcolm Lavery, director of development and alumni affairs.

Environmental Science Graduate Quimby to Lecture Wednesday

A graduate of the college's environmental science program before it became a component of the Center for Earth and Environmental Science will return to campus for a speaking engagement next week.

Dr. Peter A. Quimby '77, research ecologist and director of science at the Temagami Wilderness Society in Toronto, will lecture on "Ecology of Old Growth Pine Forests in Temagami, Ontario" at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday (March 7) in Room 110 of Ward Hall. The lecture is open to all.

Quimby will visit SUNY Plattsburgh as the guest of the environmental science program at Miner Center and the Center for the Study of Canada.

Centennial 'Alumni Art Exhibition' to Feature 100-Plus Works

A show of works by 35 SUNY Plattsburgh alumni will be installed in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery from March 3 through April 12.

Edward Brohel, director of the SUNY Plattsburgh Art Museum, said that the Alumni Art Exhibition is being presented as a special Centennial Celebration, in conjunction with the art department and the Alumni Association. The show will open with a reception from 5 to 7 p.m. on March 3. At least 20 of the artists represented in the show will be in attendance and everyone is welcome to attend.

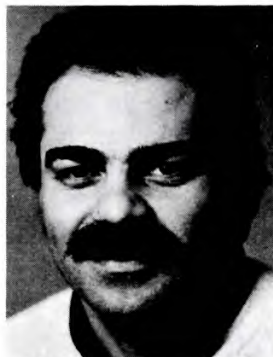

The exhibition features more than 100 works by alumni who, Brohel said, "have continued and adapted the training they received in the SUNY Plattsburgh art program into various professions in the fine and applied visual arts." The show will include paintings, sculptures, ceramics, photographs, commercial designs, wallpaper production, architectural proposals, book illustrations and jewelry.

Artists included in the show are: Alyce Ashe '79, Lisa Breznak '75, Jeff Clarke '81, David Brian Cole '88, David Colosi '89, Mark Davison '85, Bob Epstein '72, Heather Evans '83, Bruce Feeley '82, Diane Formissano '83, Roxanne Frobel '75, Rachel Garrison '79, Bennett Gewirtz '73, Howard Goodman '78, Tom Gordon '79, Greg Holmes '76, Michael Hughes '85, Howard Jennings '69, Tom Jennings '75, Steven Kolodny '73, Merrell Leavitt '71, Diane Levesque '80, Christine Lofaso '73, Laura McGuire '88, Karen Norton '86, Dennis O'Reilly '72, Michael Puccio '89, Peter Russom '85, Robert Sardell '72, Glenn Shultis '79, Michael Sweeney '86, Steven Twardzik '79, Marc Violante '88, Laura Winn '89, and Martin Wolin, Jr. '76.

Alzheimer's Center Grant to Provide Respite Care for Caregivers

SUNY Plattsburgh's Alzheimer's Disease Assistance Center (ADAC) has won a $7,500 grant from the Brookdale Foundation in New York City to provide respite care for caregivers of dementia patients. Dr. Taher Zandi is the project director.

Zandi explained the need for the program. "Alzheimer's Disease has a devastating effect not only on its victim, but on the victim's family and friends. Family caregivers are on duty twenty-four hours a day and, as a result, often burn out both physically and psychologically. This is particularly true in this area, where access for respite for caregivers has been very limited."

This grant will serve as initial funding for the respite program, which will also be supported by the New York State Health Department. The respite program will function Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and will be housed temporarily in Sibley Hall room 417. Ten patients can be accommodated at a time. Three full-time staff members, including registered nurses and an activities director, will provide the patients with suitable daily activities that will enhance their level of functioning in the community. Zandi said this program is expected to help postpone the immediate need for institutionalization.

Caregivers will have the opportunity to participate in educational programs either individually or in group sessions.

ADAC was founded in 1988 through a grant from the NYS Health Department and serves clients in Clinton, Essex, Franklin, Warren and St. Lawrence Counties.

Scholar Weekend '90 Attracts 25 for Two-Day Campus Visit

Twenty-five or more prospective students — members of a very select group of academically qualified high school seniors — will visit the campus Sunday and Monday (March 4-5) to participate in "Scholar Weekend 1990."

According to Admissions Counselor Karen Light, who is coordinating the program, the students — accompanied by their parents — are scheduled to arrive here Sunday afternoon (March 4). While on campus through Monday, the visitors will attend presentations designed to acquaint them with the admissions process, campus life, the college's honors program, and the Student Association. The students will take meals in college dining halls, stay overnight in a residence hall as guests of host SUNY Plattsburgh students, attend classes, meet individually with faculty and tour the campus.

Light said that Scholar Weekend participants are among accepted freshmen whose high school averages are in the high 80s at least and whose SAT scores are 1000 or higher. "They are high caliber students, the type any institution would be happy to enroll," she said. Light noted that members of a variety of campus student organizations will serve as volunteer hosts for the visitors.

The program, now in its third year, has yielded positive results in the past. Admissions Director Richard Higgins said that, once they visit the college and experience its hospitality, a fair percentage of students who attend Scholar Weekend tend to leave an admission deposit before departing for home.

Hockey Cards Take SUNYAC Title; Earn Bid to NCAA Tournament

The Plattsburgh hockey Cardinals scratched and clawed their way to the SUNYAC championship (and an automatic bid to NCAA post-season action) Saturday with a come-from-behind 5-4 win over Geneseo, at Geneseo, in the conference tournament. Colin Hahnfeld tallied the game-winning goal and assisted on two others to pace the Cardinal attack. Plattsburgh advanced to the final round by trouncing Fredonia, 6-0, on Friday.

In other sports action last week, the Cardinal women's basketball team, with Alicia LaValley scoring 17 points, closed out its season Thursday with a hard-fought 68-65 victory over St. Lawrence; the

Nursing Education Task Force to View Nursing Program Here

A "Nursing Education Task Force" will visit the college next Tuesday (March 6) to review the Department of Nursing's enrollment management program and to recommend ways to enhance the department's efforts to meet the nursing needs of the North Country.

"This is an exciting time for nursing educators," commented Dr. Jeanette Coleman, director of nursing. "The student body in nursing is changing, and it is our responsibility to further develop our program and to pursue short- and long-range goals to accommodate change."

The task force, she said, will look at enrollment management in nursing from the standpoint of student recruitment and retention — "... to tell us where we are and advise us on where it is we want to go." It will be composed of Dr. Mary Collins, dean of the School of Nursing at SUNY Binghamton; Dr. Mary X. Britten, associate dean of nursing at Binghamton; Dr. Gretchen Crawford, director of the nursing program for the New York State Nursing Association; and Frances West, vice president of the Nursing Services Division at Champlain Valley Physicians Hospital.

"The nationwide shortage of nurses is well-documented," Coleman said, "and contributing factors include the opportunities for women. But we can see a turn-around, a trend toward the profession among older students. Some are seeking second careers. Others are looking for job stability, and still others are attracted to nursing careers because of new and challenging roles in the field or because salaries and benefits have increased substantially in recent years.

"We intend to remain in the forefront in nursing education," she continued, "and this review by an external group of highly qualified peers should serve this purpose."

women's swimming team finished eighth in the SUNYAC championship meet at Binghamton; and the women's indoor track team finished 12th in the New York State Collegiate Athletic Association championships, held at the college Field House.

Redskins' Manley to Recount Drug, Alcohol Abuse

Dexter Manley, former defensive end for the Washington Redskins who has been banned from professional football because of repeated drug abuse, will speak here Friday (March 2) at 8 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballroom.

A Student Association press release calls Manley's public appearance at SUNY Plattsburgh "his first since leaving pro football over a year ago." His topic will be "Drugs and Education — the Deadly Combination."

It was last spring when Manley, then 30, told a U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Education that he had only recently learned to read and write. That shocking admission, he claims, started him on the road to recovery. In his presentation on Friday, Manley will discuss his personal experiences with drug and alcohol dependency, his "learning disability" and the value of a solid education.

Tickets for the SA-sponsored event are $3 for SA members and $5 for the general public, and they are available at the College Center desk.

Awareness Forum to Feature Scientist-Historian Pyenson

The International Awareness Forum will present a slide lecture by Dr. Lewis Pyenson, professor of the history of science at the Universite de Montreal, at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 8 in the Cardinal Lounge. Pyenson's topic will be "Why Science May Serve Political Ends: Cultural Imperialism and the Mission to Civilize."

Pyenson is a leading authority on European scientific establishments in the colonial world. He holds degrees in physics and in the history of science and is the author of several books, including Scientific Imperialism. During the 1970's, Pyenson and Dr. Douglas Skopp, professor of history, co-authored several articles on the history of chemistry, physics and higher education in Germany.

Pyenson's visit is co-sponsored by the history and physics departments and by the Division of Arts and Science.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, MARCH 1 - THURSDAY, MARCH 8

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1

12:15 - 1 pm — Women's Studies Forum: "Loving Boldly — Issues Facing Lesbians" with Dr. Esther Rothblum (University of Vermont). Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, Office of Campus Life and the College Auxiliary Services Special Fund. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 - 11 pm — Frances Myers, a visiting artist, will be giving a lecture and slide show on her art. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — "The Masque of Beauty and the Beast," a play with music. Sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $5, faculty/staff $3 and on sale at the Hartman Theatre Box Office. Hartman Theatre.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents: "A Tribute to Laurel and Hardy." Two of the immortal comedy team's best films: "Way Out West" and "Blockheads." Donations appreciated to benefit the North Country Center for Independence. Clothing and nonperishables will also be accepted to benefit local needy.

8 pm — "Education and Drugs: The Deadly Combination," with former Washington Redskins great Dexter Manley. Sponsored by the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Tickets: S.A. members $3, public/faculty/staff $5 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning February 24. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — "The Masque of Beauty and the Beast," a play with music. See Thursday, 8 pm for details.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3

Weekly Ski Trip to Jay Peak sponsored by the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to members only. Tickets are $20 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk.

5 - 7 pm — Opening Reception for the Centennial Alumni Art Exhibition. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

8 pm — "The Masque of Beauty and the Beast," a play with music. See Thursday, 8 pm for details.

9 pm — Spring Break Beach Party: live band, "Incredible Casuals." Sponsored by Campus Life and Activities Coordination Board. Angell Center Ballroom.

SUNDAY, MARCH 4

2 pm — "The Masque of Beauty and the Beast," a play with music. See Thursday, 8 pm for details.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents: "Shocker." Open to the campus only. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, MARCH 5

10 am — Walt Disney World College Program Informational Session sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center and the Center for Human Resources. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

1 pm — Scholar Weekend sponsored by Admissions. Open to invited guests. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Study in Canada Informational sponsored by Canadian Studies. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Alumna Patricia Devine, "Inhibiting Prejudiced Responses: A Constant Battle." Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Talk sponsored by Phi Sigma Sorority. Angell Center Ballroom.

7:30 pm — "Finding Reality: Media Help or Hindrance" (the news media are failing the American public). This is the claim Dr. Samuel Becker, Distinguished Visiting Professor of Communication, makes in his lecture on "Finding Reality." Yokum 200.

10:15 pm — Student Association Senate meeting. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, MARCH 6

12:30 p.m. — "Geographical Revolutions and Revolutionary Geographies in Nicaragua." Dr. Bryan Higgins. A videotape of the March 3 speech by President Daniel Ortega will also be shown. Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

4:10 pm — Informational meeting for students interested in attending the Applied Environmental Semester at Miner Center in the fall of 1990. Sponsored by the Center for Earth and Environmental Science. Open to the campus. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Patricia Devine, Distinguished Visiting Alumna, University of Wisconsin speaking on "Reflections on Undergraduate Teaching and Learning." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center

Cadinal Lounge.

7 pm — Joslin and Clara Barton Diabetes Camps — Co-op Informational Session sponsored by Cooperative Education. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — F.B.I. Informational Session sponsored by Career/Life Planning Center. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Mrs. Eileen Stevens speaker for the Committee to Halt Useless College Killings (C.H.U.C.K.). Reception will follow. Sponsored by the Greek Council and College Auxiliary Services. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

8 pm — Cardinal Singers and Symphonic Band Concert sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Poetry Reading by Elliott Richman, author of "Blastin' Out of Abilene" and "Love Poems for the Death of the 80s." Sponsored by the English Department. Visiting Poets and Writers Series. CVH Com-

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

4:30 pm — International Awareness Forum presents Dr. Lewis Pyenson, "Why Science May Serve Political Ends: Cultural Imperialism and the Mission to Civilize." Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Centennial Speaker Robert Bellah will speak on "The Meaning for Us of the Current World Revolution." Hartman Theatre. Reception to follow in Winkel Sculpture Court.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

7:30 pm — "Athletics vs. Academics: A Marriage of Inconvenience?" Drawing on his experience as a Faculty Representative to the Big Ten Conference and the NCAA, Distinguished Visiting Professor Samuel Becker discusses the current controversy over the role of athletics in education, the major players in the reform movement and the proposals being debated.

NOTES

The Educational Opportunity Program is seeking applications for summer Peer Tutor/Counselors. The E.O.P. Summer Program will run for six weeks — from June 26 through August 3, 1990. In addition, there will be three days of training, from June 20 through the 22nd. Peer Tutor/Counselors will earn approximately $1,200-$1,250 for the six-week session and will be provided with room and board. Feel free to stop in the EOP office for more information. Applications may be picked up in the E.O.P. office, Algonquin Hall, Room, 103, and must be returned no later than Friday, March 9, 1990.

Undergraduate students engaged in pre-medical studies who are legal residents of the city of Plattsburgh or of Clinton County are eligible to apply for financial support through the Dr. Robert S. MacDonald Scholarship Fund. Applications are available from Dr. George Sheats, Chemistry Chairperson, 207 Beaumont Hall. The deadline for submitting applications and academic transcripts is April 3, 1990.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (4) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor) — January '90

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Professional Studies — Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Psychology — Fall '90

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center — (Learning Center)

Civil Service

Asst. Stationary Engineer (2) (Heating Plant)

Research Foundation

Research Support Specialist P/T (Biology Dept.)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

College Nominees LaBastille, Kunin to Receive Honorary Degrees

The State University Board of Trustees has approved the granting of honorary degrees to two women nominated for the award by SUNY Plattsburgh. Author and conservationist Anne LaBastille will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree and Vermont Governor Madeleine Kunin will receive an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree. Dates for the formal conferring of the two degrees have not yet been set.

President Charles O. Warren commented, "We are very pleased that SUNY has chosen to honor two such outstanding women. It is a privilege to recognize someone of the caliber of Dr. LaBastille, who researches and writes with such sensitivity for the environment and who has a particular love for the Adirondacks."

He continued, "We were honored to establish a relationship with Governor Kunin last year when she delivered the commencement address. She, too, has a tremendous concern for the environment and we are looking forward to her next visit from across the lake."

Anne LaBastille's career has been devoted to studying the effects of humans on the world. She earned a bachelor's degree from Cornell, completed her master's degree at Colorado State University, and returned to Cornell where she obtained her doctorate. She taught at Cornell University in the department of natural resources and the department of science and environmental education. She served as a biologist on the National Geographic Society expedition in Guatemala and conducted wildlife studies on the Atlantic Coast for the Smithsonian Institution. She has also worked for the World Wildlife Fund, Defenders of Wildlife and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. She is currently a free-lance wildlife ecologist, consultant, writer and photographer.

LaBastille is the author of several books, including Birds of the Mayas, Woodswoman, Woman and the Wilderness, and Beyond Black Bear Lake. Her articles appear regularly in "National Geographic," "Nature," "Outdoor Life," and "The New York Times."

Madeleine Kunin has distinguished herself as a journalist, legislator, governor, and environmentalist. Born in Switzerland, she and her family fled Europe in 1940 and she became a naturalized citizen. She holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and two master's degrees, one from Columbia University and the other from the

(Continued on next page)

College 1 of 4 on Tour Schedule of Prominent Soviet Scholar

Dr. Leon Bagramov, a prominent Soviet scholar, will visit SUNY Plattsburgh on Tuesday, March 20 as guest of the Center for the Study of Canada.

Bagramov is a specialist in Canadian and United States affairs. He is currently professor and head of the Canadian Department, Institute of the U.S.A. and Canada, at the USSR Academy of Sciences in Moscow.

According to Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada, Bagramov is in the U.S. for about a month. Princeton University is host for his visit.

"People at Princeton who are organizing Bagramov's itinerary said he asked them to arrange visits to four institutions during his stay in the U.S.," commented Beach. "Ours was one of the four. The others are Brigham Young University, Johns Hopkins and the Council on Foreign Relations."

Beach has been informed that Bagramov specifically said he wanted to meet with administrators and students associated with the Center for the Study of Canada. "He also asked to consult with (Professor of Economics) Dr. Prem Gandhi since he is familiar with Gandhi's research and publications."

While on campus, Bagramov will lecture to students in Gandhi's class on the Canadian economy, meet with faculty and students in Canadian studies, East European affairs and in the Russian language. He will also deliver a public lecture at 7:30 p.m. that day in Ballroom B of the Angell College Center. The topic: "Perestroika in the USSR — Implications for Canada and the U.S." Ample time will be allowed for questions from the audience.

Bagramov holds doctoral degrees in two disciplines — economics and economic geography. He is the author of many books and articles, most of which focus on the economic relationship between the Soviet Union and North America.

Post-Break Period on Campus to Usher in 'Adult Learning Week'

Governor Cuomo has proclaimed the week following spring break (March 18 - 24) as "Adult Learning Week" in New York State, and plans are underway to observe it on this campus in tune with the theme, "Reach Your Potential, Learning: The Rage at Any Age."

The focus of the SUNY Plattsburgh observance, said Bette Brohel, coordinator of adult learning services, will be continuation of a dialogue centered on adult education "in the college's educational matrix." She said she is organizing a panel of faculty and alumni who will discuss the place of adult students in the Plattsburgh campus community.

Topics will range from how adult students respond in the classroom and how they react to the educational process in comparison with traditional students, to how the college is equipped to meet the needs of adult students and how the students themselves handle the transition from home and job to college life. Brohel said that details about the program will be distributed and posted throughout the campus during the spring break.

In his proclamation, Gov. Cuomo declares that education "is not something just for children." He points out that more than one million adult New Yorkers — new parents, senior citizens, job seekers, professionals — take part in thousands of programs each year provided not only by colleges and universities and school districts but also by libraries, BOCES, museums, labor unions, and community-based organizations.

SUNY Plattsburgh defines "adult students" as men and women who are 25 years of age or older. Fall

LaBastille, Kunin (Continued)

University of Vermont.

Kunin worked as a journalist for the "Burlington Free Press" and as an assistant producer at WCAX-TV. Although she lost her first election in 1972 (for the Burlington Board of Aldermen), she was successful the following year, winning a seat in the Vermont House of Representatives. After six years in the legislature, she won the lieutenant governorship and served two terms in that position. Defeated in her first try for the governor's seat, she won that post in 1984, becoming the first woman to hold it. She is now the first woman governor in the United States to be elected for three terms.

During her tenure as governor, Kunin has focused on educational reform, planning, state fiscal policy, environmental legislation and child care. She has also become a leading national spokesperson on the issue of women in politics.

She is a past chair of the New England Governor's Conference and co-chaired the Platform Committee of the 1988 Democratic National Convention.

1989 enrollment data indicate that about 1,300 adult students attend college here, with nearly equal representation of undergraduate and graduate students.

TAC Advisory Board Includes Eleven from Local Community

A new advisory board to the Technical Assistance Center has been created and President Charles O. Warren has appointed eleven community members and three non-voting faculty members to serve as the board's initial members.

"During the past year, we have conducted a thorough and careful analytical study of TAC," Warren said. "We have also appointed a new director, Alan Lessler, who has outstanding credentials and diverse, extended experience. We believe that this advisory board is the final key ingredient to an increasingly productive future for TAC."

Attorney William Owens of the law firm of Fitzpatrick, Trombley, Owens and Lahtinen will chair the advisory board. Members include Mark Barie, a 1975 SUNY Plattsburgh graduate and a management consultant, Rouses Point; Peter Cayan, president of the SUNY College of Technology at Utica/Rome; William Davison, director of the Lake Champlain/Lake George Planning Board, Lake George; Haila J. Conant, a 1978 SUNY Plattsburgh graduate and a certified public accountant, Plattsburgh; Donald Loreman of Loreman's Sales Center, Plattsburgh; Earl MacArthur, President of SUNY Canton Agricultural and Technical College; Michael Reese, director of the Mohawk Valley Economic Development District, Mohawk; John Vroman, regional vice president of Key Bank, Plattsburgh; Richard D. Weigel, regional director of the NYS Department of Economic Development, Northern Region, Ogdensburg; and P. Owen Willaman, retired, Watertown.

The three non-voting faculty members on the advisory board are Dr. Malcolm Fairweather, director of the Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Dr. Nancy Church, assistant professor of marketing; and Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of economics, both in the School of Business and Economics.

The Technical Assistance Center was created in 1967 to assist in the creation and retention and employment and investment opportunities in New York's 16 northernmost counties, through economic development and small business services, projects and research.

WEEKLY Takes a Break

WEEKLY will not be published during spring break next week. The next date of publication will be Wednesday, March 21. Items for that issue are due by noon on Monday, March 19 and should be sent to the office of communications (Kehoe 810). Suggestions for articles are welcome any time (Ext. 2090).

Alpha Psi Omega Establishes Multi-faceted Goals Program

Members of the SUNY Plattsburgh chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national theatre honor fraternity, have announced several goals, according to President Scott Burnam. Founded on campus in 1982, the honor fraternity strives "to develop students in the arts of theatre, to cultivate a taste for the best in theatre, and to unite the students of SUNY Plattsburgh with those in other chapters of Alpha Psi Omega worldwide."

Burnam explained that the fraternity is sponsoring an Alternate Usher program, through which two members will be present for each performance of a theatre department production. They will serve as ushers as needed, help coordinate scheduling of rehearsal space, and assist with organization and maintenance of theatre facilities, including the electrical shop and props shop.

Additionally, the fraternity members have created Armchair Theatre, weekly drama readings open to all, which will act as a showcase for students who write and wish to share their work. They have also created the Alpha Psi Omega Drama Library, which makes scripts not available through the Feinberg Library available to students for use in class or for leisure reading.

Burnam said the theatre students also plan to sponsor workshops on such topics as improvisation, auditioning and theatre games.

Membership in Alpha Psi Omega is open to those who do a prescribed amount of high quality performance and technical theatre work in college and also maintain an overall grade point average of at least 2.7. Current members include Burnam, Karen Lynn Anderson (vice president), Stefanie Lavine (secretary), Robert Hegeman (treasurer), John Michael Decker, Monique Durocher, Robert Pearl and Krista Roll. Gregory Waagner and Donna Thompson are current pledges.

Former Colleague Invested

Southwest Texas State University President Jerome H. Supple, former vice president for academic affairs here, steps to the podium to deliver his investiture address after being presented the Presidential Medallion by Texas State University System Board of Regents Chair Norman Elder. An investiture ceremony honoring Supple, as SWT's eighth president was held Wednesday, Feb. 28.

CSEA Scholars

The college's chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association has announced the winners of its $200 1990 scholarships. They are Richard O'Brien, a senior economics/business administration major, son of Patrick O'Brien of the maintenance staff; Stephanie Rabideau, a senior speech and hearing handicapped education major, daughter of Helen Rock of the Office of Institutional Research; and Denise Lynne Sypek a freshman elementary education major, daughter of Arlene Sypek, who works in both the nursing department and the Center for Human Resources. Shown here (L-R) are: Patrick O'Brien, Richard O'Brien, Denise Sypek, Arlene Sypek, and, presenting the scholarship checks, CSEA Treasurer Beverly Cross of the dean's office in the School of Business and Economics.

Women's Rights Advocate

SUNY Plattsburgh alumna Margot Thomas '71 (L) chats with students following her presentation Friday on "Lobbying for the Rights of Women" as a participant in the day-long "Celebrating Cultural Diversity" series of events coordinated by the Women's Studies program. Thomas, an attorney in Albany, formerly served as legal advisor to New York State Assembly Speaker Melvin Miller.

Summer Music Theatre to Feature 'My Fair Lady,' 'Kiss Me Kate'

Several members of the college community met with a number of interested people from the community recently to discuss the Summer Music Theatre productions for this year. Drs. Charles and Ruth Kline of the college's theatre department, led the discussion.

It was decided during the meeting that the Klines would direct two major musicals this summer. "My Fair Lady" will be presented June 13-17 and June 19-23, and "Kiss Me Kate" will be presented July 18-22 and July 24-28. The casts and crews for both shows will all be recruited locally.

Dr. Charles Kline said a pre-audition orientation will be held at 7 p.m. in the Hartman Theatre. "This is the first time we'll do this," he explained. "We're hoping to get many new people involved with the summer music theatre program and we know that some people have misconceptions about just what kind of help we need and what kind of time they would need to commit to this type of project. This orientation session should answer all of those questions and we encourage everyone who's ever thought about participating to join us for that evening."

Auditions for both shows will be held May 17-19 and rehearsals for "My Fair Lady" will get underway on May 20. Rehearsals for "Kiss Me Kate" will begin the first week in June.

The group also expressed interest in doing a third musical during the last week of August as a benefit production for the Plattsburgh College Foundation. Several titles were considered, but no decision was made. More information on this third show will be available at a later date.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Donald D. Adams, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, recently presented a paper on "Biogenic Gas Production and Mobilization of In-place Sediment Contaminants by Gas Ebullition" at the PACIFICHEM Congress in Honolulu, Hawaii. A similar talk was also given at an international workshop on the "Fate and Effects of In-place Contaminants in Aquatic Ecosystems" in Pallanza, Italy. This presentation will appear as a book chapter. . . Carl Chiasson, instructor, and Dr. Robert Davis, associate professor, in the Department of Hearing and Speech Science, are authors of a research paper entitled "A Comparison of DAF and HPF Hearing Instruments on Speech Discrimination" which appears in the Journal of Hearing Instruments. . . Work by Diane Fine, assistant professor of art, has been accepted into juried exhibition called 42nd North American Print Exhibition, sponsored by the Boston Printmakers. The work will be exhibited from March 10 - May 2, 1990 at the Fitchburg (MA) Art Museum. Also, some prints and artist books of Fine's have been acquired by the New York Public Library for their print collection. . . A manuscript by Donald A. Haight, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, was published recently as a chapter in a book by the American Association for Counseling and Development. The chapter, entitled "Robert O. Stripling: A Man Dedicated to Standards and Accreditation in Counselor Education," appears in Pioneers in Counseling and Development, edited by E.T. Hillerbrand and P.P. Heppner. The publication is Haight's second about Stripling. The earlier one appeared in the Journal for Counseling and Development. Stripling, Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus at the University of Florida, was Distinguished Visiting Professor at Plattsburgh for five weeks in 1987. . . Dr. Kenneth E. Hoeltzel, professor in the Center for Human Resources, recently gave the keynote address on "Teaching Effectiveness" followed by an afternoon workshop on "Test Construction" at Beaconsfield High School in Beaconsfield, Quebec. . . Dr. Keng D. Hsueh, research scientist, and Dr. Roger P. Hamernik, professor and director of the Auditory Research Laboratories, co-authored a paper entitled "A generalized approach to random noise synthesis: Theory and computer simulation" that will be published this month in The Journal of Acoustical Society of America. . . Susan Ledges, adjunct lecturer in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services and teacher at Northeastern Clinton Central School, has been awarded her third grant in the amount of $500 from the North Country Teacher Resource Center. Her project, "The Socialization Component of Improvement in Reading Comprehension," will be applied to her work with remedial reading students at the junior high level. . . Alan Lessler, director of the Economics Development and Technical Assistance Center (TAC), is serving as one of the Plattsburgh and Clinton County Chamber's representatives on the Alliance of Lake Champlain Chambers of Commerce. The Alliance, formed last year by the seven New York and Vermont Chambers of Commerce, was created to assure business a voice on issues affecting Lake Champlain. Lessler was among panelists who discussed economic development recently before the Leadership Clinton 1990 group. Leadership Clinton 1990 consists of 17 Clinton County residents receiving leadership training on various aspects of the community under the sponsorship of the Plattsburgh and Clinton County Chamber of Commerce. . . Dr. Daniel Vogt, assistant professor of biology, represented a consortium of biology faculty involved with the FIPSE-sponsored assessment project and presented a poster entitled "Development of Comprehensive Assessment Tools in Biology" at the recent annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in New Orleans.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, MARCH 8 - THURSDAY, MARCH 22

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, MARCH 8

12:15 pm — Dr. Lawyer, Indian Chief — A video depicting the lives of Native North American Women with Margaret Lanoue. Sponsored by Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — "Athletics vs. Academics: A Marriage of Inconvenience?" Drawing on his experience as a faculty representative to the Big Ten Conference and the NCAA, Dr. Samuel Becker, Distinguished Visiting Professor, discusses the current controversy over the role of athletics in education. Angell Center Ballroom.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9

7:30 pm — Newman Center Spring 1990 Film Festival presents the classic original "My Man Godfrey" starring William Powell. Sponsored by the Newman Association. Donations accepted for the benefit of the Crisis Center; non-perishables and clothing accepted for the benefit of the local needy. Newman Center.

MONDAY, MARCH 19

7:30 pm — Campus Poets Series presents Suzann Pierce, a program of poetry and song. Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science and Department of Foreign Language. Newman Center, 92 Broad Street.

TUESDAY, MARCH 20

11:30 am — U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 - 5 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. David Robertson, Department of Physical Education speaking on "A Century of Cardinal Athletics." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

7:30 pm — Club Canada meeting featuring a slide show presentation of Canada. Those who wish to be on our mailing list must attend. Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

THURSDAY, MARCH 22

12:15 pm — Dancing with the Paradigm: Feminist Transformation of Statistics Word Problems with Dr.

John Kellermeier. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — International Awareness Forum presents Dr. Dennis Kimmage, library; CEES; Dr. Douglas Skopp, History Department; Mr. Douglas Sloan, political science. Faculty panel: "An Analysis of the Election in Germany." Sponsored by the Feinberg Library and Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Conference Room.

NOTES

Library Hours — Spring Break: Closed Sat., Sun., March 10 & 11, 1990

8:00 am - 4:30 pm

Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday
March 12, 14, 15, 16

8:00 am - 8:00 pm

Tuesday, March 13, 1990

2:00 pm - 11:30 pm

Sunday, March 18, 1990

Prospective Scholars

About 25 prospective students described as "highly qualified academically" were expected to attend this past weekend's Scholar Weekend orientation to SUNY Plattsburgh, but nearly 40 showed up. Welcoming the students (all of whom have high school averages in the high 80s and SAT scores of 1000 and above) and their parents following lunch in the Angell Center Centennial Room on Monday is Dr. Lary Shaffer, professor of psychology and academic coordinator of the Freshman Experience program. Scholar Weekend activities were organized by the college's Office of Admissions.

Distinguished Alumna

Distinguished Visiting Alumna Dr. Patricia Devine '81 takes a break from her lecture schedule to meet with students in the college's Honors Center. At right is Dr. Roy Malpass, professor of behavioral science, who was her mentor during her undergraduate years here, particularly as a collaborator on research on eyewitness identification and co-author of several journal articles on that topic. Devine, an honors graduate of the college, is assistant professor of psychology at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Alumni Artists

Fourteen alumni whose works are among those of 35 SUNY Plattsburgh graduates in the Alumni Art Exhibition showing through April 12 in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery attended last Saturday's opening reception in their honor. Front row (L-R): Karen Norton '86, Roxanne Frobel '75; Heather Evans '83; Laura Winn '89; Mark Violante '88; David Brian Cole '88. Back row (L-R): Peter Russom '85; Michael Sweeney '86; Tom Gordon '79; Laura McGuire '88; Mark Davidson '85. Missing when the photo was taken but present at the reception were Alyce Ashe '79, Jeff Clark '81 and Bruce Feeley '82. The exhibition is a special Centennial Celebration project presented in conjunction with the art department and the Alumni Association.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank
 Biology (2) — Fall '90
 Business & Economics (3) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90
 Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90
 Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90
 Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90
 Computer Science (2) — Fall '90
 History (2) — Fall '90
 Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
 (Adjunct Instructor) — January '90
 Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90
 Professional Studies — Vita Bank — P/T Faculty
 Sociology — Fall '90
 Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)
 Director of Learning Center — (Learning Center)

Civil Service

Asst. Stationary Engineer (2) (Heating Plant)
 Keyboard Specialist P/T (Academic Affairs)

Research Foundation

Research Support Specialist P/T (Biology Dept.)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

Weekly

Special Collections
Feinberg Lib., PSUC
Does Not Circulate

Published by College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • March 21, 1990

SUNY, College Begin Effort to Support University Budget Position

SUNY and college officials have launched an effort to secure the most favorable budget support for fiscal 1990-91 it can possibly realize for a year projected to be especially difficult financially for the State of New York.

A Plattsburgh delegation of 14 faculty, staff, students and members of the College Council joined colleagues from throughout the University for a day of intense lobbying in the state capital on SUNY Day, March 6. The emphasis now and in the days ahead to April 1, when the next operating budget is supposed to be in place, will be on harnessing SUNY advocates to persuade their legislative representatives and the leadership in the Senate and Assembly to support the University's budget position.

SUNY is approaching the budgetary issue on two fronts. First, it is urging adoption of the 1990-91 Executive Budget for the University that recommends a new fiscal year for SUNY and provides a $67.2 million base increase, termed "tight but livable with" (Continued on next page)

SUNY Plattsburgh's "SUNY Day" delegation to the state capital on March 6 received a cordial welcome from Senator Ronald B. Stafford (R-Plattsburgh). Shown here (L-R): College Council Chairperson Robert M. Garrow, SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren, Senator Stafford, Student Association President William Sherman, CSEA chapter President Elizabeth Lennon; and Patricia Bentley, UUP secretary-treasurer.

Roark Elected to Two-Year Term as National President of ODK

Dr. Eldridge Roark, vice president for student affairs, has been elected to a two-year term as national president of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society.

(L to R): Dr. Eldridge Roark, Cheryl Hogle and Christopher Sperl were all elected to office at the recent national ODK conference.

Roark's election took place during ODK's national convention held recently in Kentucky. As national president, Roark heads an organization which has 138,000 members in 213 active circles in 36 states.

Roark has been active with ODK since he was initiated into the Samford University circle as a student member in 1953. While he was a faculty member at the University of Iowa and later at Purdue, he was active with both those circles. He helped establish the chapter at Radford University and was a charter member of that circle. In 1981, Roark was instrumental in establishing the ODK circle at SUNY Plattsburgh, which continues to be SUNY's only circle, and was again a charter member. He also served as faculty secretary of the Plattsburgh circle for three years.

In 1982, Roark was elected Province I Faculty Director. Elected national vice president in 1984, he served six years in that position. As vice president, he was responsible for extension and expansion of ODK and 26 new circles were created during his term in office.

Also during the national convention, Cheryl Hogle, associate director of campus life, was re-elected to a second two-year term as Province I faculty director. Hogle currently serves as faculty secretary for the Plattsburgh circle. Additionally, Christopher Sperl, president of the SUNY Plattsburgh ODK circle and a graduate student in the school psychology program, was elected to a two-year term

(Continued on next page)

Search Begins for Successor to Professional Studies Dean Troisi

The search for a new dean of professional studies, to replace Dr. Nicholas Troisi who is retiring at the end of this semester, is officially underway, according to Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs.

Moran said the search committee will be chaired by Dr. Carrie Harris, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources. Other members are Dr. Mary Roark, Dr. Ernest Coons, Dr. Barbara McConville, Anna Nardelli, Alice Champagne, Marilyn Morton, Dr. David Robertson, Dr. Robert Davis, Dr. Stuart Baum, Dr. John Myers, Dr. Ann Hasting, Dr. H.Z. Liu and William Sherman.

Urge Restoration of Proposed Budget Cuts (Continued)

careful management." Second, it urges restoration of cuts in the proposed Executive Budget for specific items and programs.

"There is some concern about possible sentiment in the Legislature to trim the governor's budget recommendation for the University," commented John

"This will be a full national search," Moran said. "We are looking for a person of stature and intellectual vision to lead our faculty of professional studies and I have every confidence that this committee will take its responsibilities very seriously."

The advertisement for the position calls for the successful candidate to "hold an earned doctorate and have a minimum of five years experience in administration in higher education . . . hold an intellectual vision for the faculty and its programs . . . (and work) effectively in a team-oriented leadership style with a capacity to share goals and resources."

be as high as $100,000) for Library Automation to upgrade technology at SUNY libraries;

- $2 million for tutoring and counseling services ($67,700 was requested for this campus to continue support for two counselors and a small operating budget for the Claude Clark Learning Center);
- $1.5 million for Small Business Development Centers ($63,000 — an amount matched by federal funds — for two counselors and one and one-half support staff positions at the SBDC at Plattsburgh, a component of its Technical Assistance Center);
- $4 million in "other than personal service" funds, representing the balance of inflationary salary increases requested but not received (Plattsburgh's shortfall totals $113,500); and
- $400,000 for research funds for participation of non-doctoral campuses in the graduate research initiative (Plattsburgh's allocation, totaling $17,000, was in the current year's budget).

"We also need $35,000 in cuts restored to our request for funds to purchase academic equipment vital to both long-established programs, such as those in the sciences, and several in newer areas — in hotel and restaurant management and mass media, for example," said Warren. "Budget reductions for equipment in each of the past few years have compounded this problem for our campus."

College and University officials will continue to carefully monitor developments as the budget process continues over the next several weeks.

Roark Heads ODK (Continued)

as Province I student director. Province I consists of circles at colleges in New England, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Other members of the SUNY Plattsburgh circle of ODK who attended the national convention were Amy Bobar, Steve Frederick, Jeff Foote, Deborah Hoffman, Daniel Pollay, Colleen Pope and Julie Schaller.

'Family' Mission

SUNY Plattsburgh student leaders who met with Plattsburgh Assemblyman Chris Ortloff (far right) on "SUNY Day" in Albany on March 6 met also with "a member of the family" — fellow student Lynn A. Palmer Jr. (far left), a spring semester intern on Ortloff's staff. Flanked by Palmer and Ortloff are (L-R) Student Association officers Connie Hollenbach, vice president for central affairs; Mike Jette, executive vice president, and William Sherman, president.

Homburger, Plattsburgh's senior business officer, "and that would be disastrous. We're also strongly in favor of the change in SUNY's fiscal year from the current April 1 to March 31 to July 1 to June 30. However, this endorsement includes a proviso that the University receive sufficient funding for the extra fiscal quarter if the change becomes effective from April 1 of this year through June 30 of 1991."

President Charles Warren said several cuts proposed in the Executive Budget would have a serious impact on operations here and throughout SUNY if they aren't restored. The cuts include:

- $1 million system-wide (Plattsburgh's share would

Centennial Committee to Present 'An Evening With Maya Angelou'

Maya Angelou, poet, educator, best-selling author, actress, playwright and civil rights activist, will lecture at SUNY Plattsburgh next Wednesday (March 28).

Hailed as "one of the great voices of contemporary literature" and as "a remarkable Renaissance woman," Angelou will speak at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday in the Angell College Center Ballroom. "An Evening With Maya Angelou," the third program in a spring semester series of presentations sponsored by the college's Centennial Celebration Committee, is free of charge and open to all.

Following early professional success on the stage as a lead performer in "Porgy and Bess" for a European touring company, Angelou settled in Africa where she became the associate editor of the Arab Observer and, later, assistant administrator of the School of Music and Dance at the University of Ghana and, finally, feature editor of the African Review in Accra. In the 1960s, at the request of Dr. Martin Luther King, she became northern coordinator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. She also served on the Bicentennial Commission and on the National Commission on the Observance of International Women's Year on the invitation of Presidents Gerald Ford and Jimmy Carter, respectively.

In films and television, Angelou wrote the screenplay for "Georgia, Georgia" and was writer-producer for 20th Century Fox TV's "Sister, Sisters." Her renowned autobiographical account of her youth, "I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings," was a two-hour television special for CBS, and she received the coveted Golden Eagle Award for her work for PBS as author and executive producer of "Afro-American in the Arts." Her achievements in theatre include the revue "Cabaret for Freedom," which she wrote and produced and in which she performed, and the musical "And I Still Rise," for which she is librettist, lyricist and composer.

Random House has published ten bestsellers by Angelou, including "I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings" (which is on sale at the College Store), "Just Give Me a Cool Drink of Water 'Fore I Die," "And I Still Rise," and "All God's Children Need Traveling Shoes." Her many honors include Tony Award, National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize nominations; an Emmy Award nomination for her role in Alex Haley's "Roots"; two awards from the "Ladies Home Journal"; and more than 30 honorary degrees from colleges and universities in the U.S.

In 1981, Angelou was appointed to a lifetime position as the first Reynolds Professor of American Studies at Wake Forest University.

New General Education Program to Become Effective This Fall

The college's new General Education program will take effect for members of the incoming freshman class this fall, according to Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs. Transfer students will phase into the program beginning in spring, 1991.

The new program, adopted by the Faculty Senate in 1988, differs from the current general education program in several ways and includes 41 to 42 credits as compared to the current 38-39. The program is designed to strengthen the sciences and humanities. It emphasizes greater student and faculty interaction through active learning and includes new scholarship on women and minorities.

Lafleur explained that the Learning Skills component continues to require ten credits, including library skills and English composition. However, the Reasoning Skills requirement has been changed to a Mathematics requirement, and Communication Skills has been changed to Critical Thinking, Reading and Speaking.

The Distributive Requirement component still includes six categories, but varies considerably from the current grouping. The six categories and the number of required credits for each are: Literature or Philosophy (three credits), The Natural Sciences (seven-eight credits), The Social Sciences (six credits), History (three credits), The Arts (three credits) and Foreign Culture and Language (three credits).

The final general education component under the new program is a Perspectives requirement, under which students will take one course in each of two categories, (a) human experience and expression and (b) global issues. These courses are intended for students in their junior and senior years.

The Integrative Component portion of the general education program will be phased out in fall, 1991. Lafleur explained that students who will graduate in May, 1991 will continue to be subject to the current requirement. Students who will graduate in 1991 and 1993 and who have already begun their integrative component may complete it if the courses are still available as part of other department offerings. Those who have not begun the integrative component or who cannot fulfill them because the courses are not available may substitute up to the nine credits required for the integrative component from a list of approved courses by advisement.

Since current students continue to be bound by the current program, the fall master schedule will list courses according to the program now in effect. Incoming freshmen will receive a list of the courses for the new program when they arrive for orientation and course selection.

Lafleur said the General Education Committee is continuing to review courses for placement within the new categories.

Underdog Card Hockey Team Battles to NCAA Championship Finals

As a result of two solid weekend performances, the Cardinal hockey team will advance to the NCAA Division III National Championship round of the play-offs to be held at the University of Wisconsin — Stevens Point this Friday and Saturday nights.

On March 9, the Cardinals traveled to Elmira College for the NCAA semi-finals (the Soaring Eagles had beaten them twice during the regular season). That Friday, they lost to Elmira, 5-3, but rallied the following evening, 4-2, to square the series. Because of the split, the teams played a 15-minute, tie-breaking mini-game. Freshman Tim Sullivan netted the only goal of the mini-game. That sent the Cardinals to the semi-final round at higher-seeded Babson College — a team that had lost only three games all season and had gone undefeated on home ice.

In last Friday's series opener, the Cardinals came out flying in the first period to take a commanding 4-1 lead. The Beavers stormed back in the next two stanzas to earn a 4-4 tie in regulation time. History repeated itself in game two, as the Beavers rallied from a 4-2 deficit at the end of two periods to force overtime.

In the mini-game, Babson scored an early goal but Jim Duran connected, with Matt Furtado and Dan Schaley assisting, to tie the game at 1-1. Late in the contest, a press from Jamie Reidy sent Jim Powers in alone on Babson's goalie for the game-winning goal.

The 22-10-3 Cardinals advance to the NCAA Championship game for the fifth time since 1980-81.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Bryan Higgins, associate professor of geography, will lead a workshop entitled "From Space to Place on an Urbanized Planet: A Paradigm Change" at an international conference to be held in Berlin this month. The conference is entitled "Sustainable Habitat on an Urbanized Planet" and is sponsored by the Council of European Municipalities and Regions and TRIALOG. . . "Freshman Focus. . . Help is on the Way," an article Dr. Ann Hasting, associate vice president for student affairs, appears in the Spring Edition of "College Outlook and Career Opportunities," a magazine for college-bound students. The article briefly describes Plattsburgh's Freshman Experience Program and suggests a wide range of resources for students. . . "Stresses Faced by Caregivers, the Family Members and Friends Who Help IC Patients Cope," authored by Dr. Naomi McCormick, professor of psychology, was published in the Winter, 1989 issue of "ICA Update." An article, entitled "Feminist Therapy as Family Tradition: A Mother and Daughter Support Each Other's Growth as Women," by McCormick and her mother, Marcell Adolph, has been accepted for publication in Women and Therapy. . . Joan Rhodes, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, served as a reader for the National Teachers' Examination in Princeton during spring break. . . Muhammed Sadi, assistant professor in the Center for Human Resources, has published an article entitled "A Financial Revolution" in the January edition of "Pakistan and Gulf Economist." Sadi will present a paper entitled "Financial Rates of Bed and Breakfasts and Country Inns in Adirondack Park Region of New York" at the Professional Association of Innkeepers International Conference for the Keeper of the Small Inn to be held next week in Pennsylvania. . . Dr. Lary Shaffer, professor of psychology, is attending a conference at Oxford University this week at the invitation of the Association for the Study of Animal Behavior. The conference is a memorial to Shaffer's dissertation supervisor, Nobel Laureate Nikko Tinbergen, who died in 1988. Shaffer will deliver a keynote evening presentation to a group of scholars from around the world, setting Tinbergen in historical context. . . "Native American Aid Programs," an article by Suzanne Sokolowski, appears in the February issue of NYSFAAA, a publication of the New York State Financial Aid Administrators Association. Sokolowski is director of financial aid at Plattsburgh. . . Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of economics, and Alan Lessler, director of the Technical Assistance Center, will both speak at a conference on "The Canada-United States Free Trade Act Agreement: A Year Later" being held at Bishop's University, Ouebec this week. Gandhi will speak on "The Free Trade Agreement and the Canadian Business Investment in Upper New York State," and Lessler will make a presentation on "Reaction of Business, Industries and Residents of Clinton County, NY to the Free Trade Agreement."

Campus Life Office Announces Summer '90 Orientation Staff

The Office of Campus Life has announced the selection of members of the 1990 Summer Orientation Staff. Paul Berry will coordinate the Student Orientation Program, while Ed Engelbride will coordinate the Parent Orientation Program.

Student Orientation Leaders are: Amy Gorrek, Susan Higgins, John Kennedy, David Kocsis, Stephen Matthews, Joseph Muresco, Kimberly Northrup, Jane Rapa, Tracy Ross, and Collen Sullivan.

Parent Orientation Leaders are: Jennifer Avellino, Deirdre Markle, Jennifer Sequin, Doreen Schneider (who will serve as assistant coordinator), and Susan Zwick.

$145,500 Funds Fuller's Portion of $1.3 Million EPA Grant

Dr. Robert Fuller, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, and colleagues from six other universities have received three-year funding from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in the amount of $1,275,500 to complete a study of the effects of acid rain on a forested area of Maine.

"The overall project," Fuller explained, "involves a controlled experiment on two watersheds in Maine. We are simulating acid rain by adding acid to one area, but not to the other. Then we are testing the streams in an effort to determine how the acid, after interaction with the soil, affects the acidity of the water. Additionally, we are testing several predictive computer models being used by the Environmental Protection Agency. The models have never been validated in the field, so we hope to determine which are most accurate, then decide how to make them even better."

The project has already been underway for three years. The "Watershed Manipulation Project: A Field Study of Processes Which Regulate Surface Water Acidity" includes a $145,500 sub-contract to SUNY Plattsburgh to continue Fuller's portion of the study.

Fuller, who has been a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty since 1986, is studying the mechanisms of sulfate retention in the soil and refining the role of cation exchange, a process by which acid rain is neutralized as it percolates through soils.

Weekly

Published by College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community • March 28, 1990

Renowned Speaker Proctor to be Distinguished Visiting Professor

Dr. Samuel Proctor, retired pastor of New York City's renowned Abyssinian Baptist Church and Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Professor Emeritus in Rutgers University's Graduate School of Education, will be Distinguished Visiting Professor here next Thursday and Friday (April 5-6).

Proctor, regarded nationally as an eloquent and powerful speaker, will lecture twice and hold meetings with students and faculty during his stay at SUNY Plattsburgh. He is no stranger to this campus and the North Country, having served three summers in the late 1960s as a member of the faculty of the annual National Leadership Workshop for teachers and school administrators.

"Civil Rights and Minority Access in the Nineties" is the theme of Proctor's lecture schedule during his visit to campus. At 7 p.m. on Thursday (April 5) he will discuss "The Political Agenda" at the Newman Center on Broad Street, and at 2:30 p.m. on Friday he will speak on "The Educational Agenda" in the Angell Center Blue Room. Both lectures are free and open to the public.

Proctor served 17 years — until retiring about a year ago — as pastor of the historic and internationally known Abyssinian Baptist Church in Harlem, succeeding the Rev. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. in that post. He is a past president of both Virginia Union University and North Carolina A&T State University, and he has held numerous positions in government and education, including the Peace Corps, the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Institute for Services to Education.

Proctor is the author of The Young Negro in America 1960-80 and Sermons from the Black Pulpit. He has received honorary degrees from many colleges and universities, including the University of Rhode Island, the University of Maryland and Boston University, where he earned the Doctor of Theology degree, and he has been a member of the governing boards of the United Negro College Fund, the National Council of Churches, the Overseas Development Council and the Union Theological Seminary, among others.

Proctor will participate in classes in U.S. history and Afro-American Culture and meet with students in SUNY Plattsburgh's Educational Opportunity Program and members of Akeba, the college's multi-cultural organization.

Career Night/Recruitment Day Programs Scheduled for Next Week

Career Night — billed as “the main event” of the academic year by the college’s Career/Life Planning Center — will be held next Thursday (April 5) from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Angell Center Ballrooms.

About 60 employers representing a broader distribution of career fields than ever before are expected to take part. Carolyn Delcore, assistant director of the Center, said that students at all levels and in all majors are encouraged to attend.

“This event provides opportunity for students to interact informally with employers from a broad spectrum of occupational areas,” commented Delcore. “We have commitments to participate from representatives of businesses, health services, local, state and federal government agencies, the military and other fields.”

Delcore said that Career Night is designed for informational exchange and as a means whereby students can broaden their perspectives on career options. The

Newest Endowment Fund Honors Former Food Service Director

The Plattsburgh College Foundation has a new endowment fund and the Centennial Campaign is $1,000 richer, thanks to a bequest from a former longtime staff member.

Plattsburgh College Foundation President Curtis Shipman accepted a check for the Linindoll Endowment Fund from CAS President Cheryl Hogle and CAS Vice President (and SA President) William Sherman.

Gwendolyn Linindoll served the college as director of food services from 1941 until her retirement in 1965. She died last November in Pomona, California at the age of 94. In her will, she left $3,000 to the college. That amount was matched by College Auxiliary Services.

Five thousand dollars is being used to establish the Gwendolyn Linindoll Endowment Fund, which will provide scholarships in her name to students in food-related programs. The other $1,000 will be placed in the Centennial Campaign’s unrestricted endowment fund.

program traditionally has been well attended by students, she said, and well received by students and employers alike.

The following day has been designated as “Recruitment Day” and is labeled “for seniors only.” About 20 employers who have signed up for Career Night — and who have, or will have, positions open or about to open — will conduct interviews for seniors who have registered with the Center. The students will be notified of the interview schedule by mail.

Woman Jogger Receives Facial Cuts in Attack Near Footbridge

A woman student sustained minor injury while fighting off an assailant in an attack that occurred early Sunday afternoon on the perimeter of the campus in the vicinity of the footbridge spanning the Saranac River.

According to the college’s Office of Public Safety, the student was jogging near the footbridge when she was accosted at about 12:50 p.m. by a male wearing a ski mask and wielding a razor. She broke free of the attack, but received superficial wounds to the face. The student returned to her residence hall room and reported the incident to campus security.

Lawrence Lorch, director of public safety, said the Plattsburgh City Police Department was called immediately. Campus and city law enforcement personnel combed the area where the attack took place, but to no avail. An investigation is continuing. The identity of the assailant remains unknown.

Noted ‘Star Wars’ Physicist to Lecture Twice Tomorrow

Dr. Caroline L. Herzenberg, a physicist at the Argonne National Laboratory, will give two public presentations on campus on March 29.

Herzenberg will speak at 12:15 p.m. in Hudson Hall room 221 on “The Technical Aspects of Radiological and Chemical Emergencies.” At 4:15 p.m. in Hudson Hall room 106, she will discuss “Women Scientists and Engineers of Antiquity and the Middle Ages.”

Herzenberg holds degrees from MIT and the University of Chicago and is a fellow of the American Physical Society. She is a past president of the National Association for Women in Science and is the first scientist in the Chicago Women’s Hall of Fame. She was a principal investigator in the NASA Apollo returned lunar sample analysis program and worked with the first moon rocks brought to earth. She received international attention for a study identifying the capability of “Star Wars” lasers for incendiary attack against cities and for other contributions toward assessment of issues relating to space weaponry.

President Heads Development Team Visit to Washington, Florida

President and Mrs. Warren, Don Garrant, executive assistant to the president, and Malcolm Lavery, director of development and alumni affairs, comprised a SUNY Plattsburgh development team that visited Washington, D.C. and Florida during spring break. In the nation's capital, the group hosted a reunion for alumni who work and live in that area. The visit to Florida included alumni reunions in Orlando and Clearwater, but also featured individual visits with alumni and friends of the college. One of the highlights of the trip was a reception for the Warrens at the Naples winter residence of College Council member Harry Mowry and his wife, Lynn, for Plattsburgh business leaders who are retired to Florida or who spend a majority of the year there.

Drs. Annette and Richard Manganel hosted the alumni reunion in Orlando.

(L-R): Washington, D.C. area Alumni Club officers George Weiner '72, secretary-treasurer, Donna Porter '71, vice president, and Jackie Burcroff '83, president, greet SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren.

At the Clearwater reunion, President Warren presents special Centennial Celebration "Once-in-a-Century" award to Steve Shemet '38, retired former member of the college's Campus School and admissions staff. Shemet, who was instrumental in the formation and growth of the Plattsburgh Alumni Association, was among six alumni cited during Homecoming Weekend festivities last fall for their "dedicated interest and sustained support," but he was unable to be on campus for that occasion.

The reunion in Clearwater attracted a large participation of alumni from members of the Class of '25 to those from the Class of '86.

Friends of SUNY Plattsburgh in Florida shared an evening with President and Mrs. Warren at the Naples home of Harry (seated, far left) and Lynn Mowry.

President and Mrs. Warren meet the "most senior" alumni to attend the reunion in Clearwater, Gladys and Harold Stratton, Class of 1925.

Guest Lecturer

Dr. Peter Quinby (facing camera, right), a 1977 graduate of SUNY Plattsburgh, was a guest lecturer on campus recently. He is seen here talking with environmental science students and Dr. Ken Adams (l.), associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science. Quinby is a research ecologist and director of science at the Temagami Wilderness Society in Toronto.

Teacher-to-Teacher

Ten area biology teachers and two student teachers participated in an in-depth training program in molecular genetics recently on campus. The workshop, one in a series of Teacher-to-Teacher programs designed for teachers by teachers, gave participants hands-on experience in laboratory techniques which they can take back to their classrooms. Seen here is Dr. Bonnie Seidel-Rogol, assistant professor of biology, with Philip Smith, a Tupper Lake biology teacher. Seidel-Rogol helped coordinate the program, along with Karen Larkin, lecturer in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, and Sandra Latourelle, a biology teacher at Ausable Valley Central School.

Face-lifting Complete

A dramatic and large-scale renovation of The College Store was completed over spring break, giving the facility a bright, open and immaculate appearance. The $150,000 project, the first on a large scale since the store was located in Saranac Hall more than 10 years ago, was designed by Jon Greenberg and Associates of Berkley, Michigan. It involved installation of track lighting and new shelves, refurbishing counters, alterations to improve traffic flow, painting, and increasing the size of the store's trade book area.

Varied Works by 28 Students in Annual Juried Exhibition

The annual Juried Undergraduate Art Exhibition opens this week in the Myers Fine Arts Lobby, with works by 28 students. The show opens today (March 28) with a reception at 4 p.m. and will be on exhibit through April 27. Included are paintings, photographs, sculptures, ceramics, prints and drawings. This year, according to Art Museum Director Edward Brohel, the show has been organized and was juried by senior students in the Museum Course.

Students whose work has been selected to appear in the show are: Mark Abbot, Beth August, E.A. Boolukos, Sherri Buhr, Elisa Castillo, Cherrian Chin, Cathryn Clark, Gary Clark, Patrick Clements, Anne Crosby, Christina Demers, John Finlayson, Tracey Forget, Christopher Godlewski, Andrea Grout, Cynthia Gursky, Karen Hanson, Michelle Hills, John Kokoszka, Kelly Kreuzer, Andrew Ludke, Kelly Ann McGuire, Marjorie Long Millea, Steven Presgraves, John Schaub, John Scmillio, Amy Spuck, and Carol Vossler.

R.A. Selection Process Complete; 53 to Become First-time Staffers

The college's Office of Campus Life has completed the resident assistant selection process for academic 1990-91.

Six students will be returning for their third year as R.A.s. They are: Michael Benowitz, Diane Gardner, Jason Lorgan, Micaela Prendergast, Jeff Ross, William Sherman, and Tom Williams.

Fifty students have been appointed to a second year as staff members, and 53 will become first-time R.A.s — 43 in August and the remainder at the beginning of the spring 1991 semester. The group of new R.A.s includes 12 current freshmen, 25 sophomores and 16 juniors representing 19 different academic majors.

The newly selected R.A.s will be required to complete an 18-hour "spring training" program, underway now through April 26, and six days of additional training scheduled to take place in August.

Those reappointed as R.A.s: Matthew Aubrey, Amy Bobar, Neal Calcote, Ed Cama, Heather Collins, Michele Dahn, Tim Darcy, Michelle DeLaria, Bob Dieterich, Kim Douglass, Rich Fagan, Bret Greenblatt, Bob Hanley, Susan Higgins, Dawn Irwin, Lance Johnson, Fred Kopilak, Lori Leveillee, Stephen Link, Leif Loheide, Deirdre Markle, Debbie McDonald, Maureen McKinstry, George McMurtry, and Amy Mellen.

Also, Christine Morris, T.J. Morton, Joe Muresco, Mathew Murphy, Mondo Normile, Rich O'Brien, Anne O'Donnell, Dan Palmer, Dave Rogers, Julie Schaller, Sue Schuhl, Carolyn Scott, Lynn Tighe, Michele Wright, Karen Yoos, Stephanie Zuaro, and Susan Zwick.

Newly appointed R.A.s (those whose terms begin next January are noted with an asterisk) are: *Deborah Anderson, Peter Andreasen, Scott Baier, Carrie Blakesley, Julie Bovee, Christopher Bowlay-Williams, Tom Brothers, Michael Calus, Noell Carey, Ruth Comley, Samantha Corhouse, John D'Amico, Michelle Dee, Ben Derouchie, Larry Ellis, Eileen Fischer, Tracy Fossetta, Michael Garro, *Kurtis Glenn, Donna Gorman, *Christopher Hirschey, Shawn Hunziker, Heather Jefson, Melissa Jenkins, Tom Kavanagh, David Kocsis, and Dawn Kortright.

Also, Melissa Lopez, *Christopher Lowe, Frances Mallan, Jose Martinez, Kenneth McDonnell, Cynthia Menz, Angela Morin, Paul Niezabytowski, *Jeff O'Neill, *Roberta Parchetta, Todd Paterson, *Jennifer Powers, Jane Rapa, Frank Richichi, Michele Runnalls, Robert Schofield, Kristen Scott, *Edward Smith, Christopher Steinhardt, Tracy Tarullo, Curtis Thompson, Steven Travis, *James VanDerlyn, Andrew Wallace, *Katrina Washburn, and Andrea Wawrzusin.

Forensic Team Finishes 3rd in State Championship Meet

Plattsburgh's forensic team placed third in the New York State Forensic Championships last weekend, won two individual state titles and placed six finalists in five events. St. John's won the tournament, followed by Cornell.

Freshman Jai Riker won the state championship title in Prose Interpretation, the largest of the ten contested events. Sophomore Chris Holfester captured first place in Persuasive Speaking, a traditionally good event for Plattsburgh. Holfester, who also placed second in After Dinner Speaking, is the 14th Plattsburgh student to win the Persuasive Speaking category in the last 16 years.

Other Plattsburgh finalists included sophomore Susan Zwick, who placed fourth in Informative Speaking and sixth in Rhetorical Criticism, and junior Karen Yoos, who was fourth in Persuasive Speaking.

Nomination of Honorary Degree Candidates Sought Campus-wide

Members of the campus community are invited to nominate persons as candidates to receive honorary degrees from SUNY.

Recommendations, together with justification materials, may be submitted at any time to a Committee on Honorary Degrees, c/o the President's Office. Nominations from individual campuses are forwarded to SUNY Central Administration for approval by the University's Trustees.

EOP Centennial Plaques

Five award plaques have recently been installed in the EOP office lobby in Algonquin Hall. Four of the plaques record winners of annual awards for outstanding EOP alumni and for community, professional and student contributions to the EOP program. A fifth lists Plattsburgh winners of Outstanding Student Achievement Awards given by the SUNY Office of Special Programs to seniors graduating with a grade point average of 3.0 or above. EOP director Robert Harsh is seen here with Lynne Barbell, EOP program secretary, and one of eight 1989 graduates who received that award. The installation of the plaques was supported by the Centennial Committee.

Wisconsin Nips Card Hockey Team in National Championship Series

The Plattsburgh State hockey team completed its most successful season in three years last weekend at the NCAA Division III national championship tournament at Wisconsin-Stevens Point. But the upstart Cardinals, who in the previous two weekends had ousted higher seeded Elmira and Babson, respectively, in series that had gone to the tie-breaking mini-game, came up one goal short to settle for runner-up spot for the national title.

On Friday, the Cardinals found themselves uncharacteristically playing the Stevens Point hard-hitting style of hockey. Penalties cost them dearly as their Wisconsin hosts breezed to a 10-1 triumph.

It was a different story on Saturday, however. The Cards re-discovered their skating game to even the series, 6-3. Jim Duran potted two goals and Matt Furtado, Jamie Reidy and Dan Schaly each tallied one to pace the Plattsburgh attack and force the mini-

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Donald D. Adams, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has been invited to be the keynote speaker at the opening of the International Conference on Peat Production and Use "PEAT-90" in Finland, to be held on June 11-15. He also has been asked by the Finnish IPS Commission to chair a special symposium on "Peatlands and Carbon Balance" as part of the Fundamentals of Peat Chemistry and Physics program of the conference. The title of his address will be "Carbon Cycling in Northern Peatlands with Special Reference to Global Climate Change". . . Dr. Anna Battigelli, assistant professor of English, has been invited to organize a seminar on "Recent Scholarship on Dryden's Poetry" at the annual meeting of the Midwestern American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies to be held in October in Macomb, IL. . . Cerise Oberman, director of libraries, has been appointed to the Association of College and Research Libraries Task Force of the White House Conference on Libraries and Information Services. The task force is charged with drafting a statement of academic library concerns which needed to be addressed as part of the White House conference in 1991. . . Dr. Gordon Pollard, professor of anthropology, gave a presentation recently at the National Bottle Museum in Ballston Spa on the topic: "Embossed Bottles as Historic Artifacts: The View from Plattsburgh. Pollard's research involving antique bottles was the subject of a feature article in the March 11 issue of The (Troy) Sunday Record. . . "Achieving Success in Administration — Learning from Experience" is the title of an article co-authored by Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of the Faculty of Professional Studies, that appears in the March issue of the NAASP Bulletin. The five-page article presents guidelines "meant to enhance formal studies at the graduate level or internship experience under the guidance of a respected practitioner."

game. Freshman goalie Les Sirota was spectacular for the Cardinals, turning aside 32 Wisconsin shots to preserve the win.

The deciding mini-game was played evenly through the first 12 minutes-plus of the overtime period, as each team peppered the goal with 13 shots. With 1:35 remaining, Wisconsin's Jeff Marshall scored on a deflection for the only goal on the mini-game — making Stevens Point the first Division III hockey team ever to win back-to-back national championships.

The Cardinals, who won the national championship in 1987, finished the season with a 23-11-3 record. The national championship series marked the end of the college hockey careers of Plattsburgh State seniors John Corbett, Jerry Dineen, Sean Haggerty and Reidy.

College's Canadian Film Center to Offer Award-Winning Fare

The Canadian Film Distribution Center is presenting a film festival in April, featuring the best in Canadian cinema, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the National Film Board of Canada.

The dates and titles of the films to be shown are as follows: April 2 — "Animation Film Compilation"; April 9 — "Volcano"; April 16 — "Mon Oncle Antoine"; and April 25 — "J.A. Martin: Photographe." The four films have collectively won more than 50 international awards for excellence. All showings will be held in the Cardinal Lounge and will begin at 7 p.m. The film festival is free and open to the public.

Hosting Soviet Scholar

Dr. Leon Bagramov (3rd from left), the leading Soviet scholar on Canada, visited Plattsburgh's Center for the Study of Canada last week. He is seen here lunching with Center faculty and staff, (l. to r.) Dr. Thomas Rumney, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Dr. Jeanne Kissner, associate director of the Center for the Study of Canada; Dr. Malcolm Fairweather, director of the Center for Earth and Environmental Science; Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center for the Study of Canada; and Margaret Lanoue, director of the Canadian Film Distribution Center.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, MARCH 29 - THURSDAY, APRIL 5

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29

12:15 pm — Beyond Respectability: The Feminist Vision of Marie Howland — Holly Blake. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

8 pm — Concert: College Jazz Ensemble with guest artist. Sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $7, faculty/staff $4 and on sale at the Hartman Theatre Box Office. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

FRIDAY, MARCH 30

4 pm — New Member Orientation Program sponsored by Omicron Delta Kappa. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring 1990 Film Festival presents, "A Star is Born" (1954) starring Judy Garland and James Mason. Donations for the benefit of the War Resisters' League. Non-perishables and clothing accepted for local needy. Newman Center.

8 pm — Friday Night Film Series presents "Platoon," sponsored by Campus Life and the Activities Coordination Board. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk.

SUNDAY, APRIL 1

1 pm — Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Adult Student Group and the National Student Speech, Language and Hearing Association. Tickets: children $1, adults $2. Sibley Hall Field.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Gross Anatomy." Open to the campus only. S.A. members 50¢, faculty staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, APRIL 2

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

7 - 9 pm — Film Festival: Award Winning Canadian Cinema "Animation Film Compilation," introduced by Dr. Phil Reines, Dept. of Communications. Sponsored by the Canadian Film Distribution Center. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

9:30 pm — "This is My House" — An educational video sponsored by the Greek Council. Refreshments will be served. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, APRIL 3

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4

10 am - 3 pm — U.S. Marine Corps will be on campus to discuss the Officer Selection Program. Sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

4:15 pm — God and Evil — Herman Melville: A Troubled Mind. A discussion coordinated by Dr. John Yardan. Angell Center Ballroom.

4:20 pm — International Awareness Forum presents Dr. Dennis Kimmage speaking on "The New Parallel Press in the Soviet Union: An Alternative Information System." Sponsored by the Feinberg Library and the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6:30 pm — Reproductive Rights sponsored by Alpha Sigma Phi. Angell Center Blue Lounge.

7:30 pm — Club Canada meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — "Safety, Liberty, Machismo" — A campus-wide forum addressing the issues of relationship violence and date rape. Representatives from Campus Life, Psychological Services, Health Services, Public Safety and the Women's Studies Program will be present. Also, a date rape movie will be viewed and discussed and a victim of date rape will tell her story. Sponsored by Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Ballroom.

9 pm — Reception following Date/Acquaintance Rape Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

THURSDAY, APRIL 5

12:15 pm — Breath Into Fire: Feminism and Poetry Readings — Dr. Katharyn Machan Aal. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Alcohol and the Family. Helen Todd, Coordinator of Training, North Country Council on Alcoholism. Sponsored by Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

NOTES

Trainers Wanted: Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for the Fall 1990 semester. Selected students will receive academic credit for four hours per week. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, Room 101, College Health Center. Application deadline: April 25, 1990.

Open House Tour Guides Needed: The Admissions Office is currently looking for student volunteers to serve as Open House tour guides on April 21, 1990. Each year, Open House attracts over 1200 prospective students and their families and over one hundred students are needed as tour guides. You do not need previous experience as a tour guide to volunteer. Anyone interested in participating in the program must attend one of two informational training sessions which are scheduled for Monday, April 9 and Tuesday, April 10 from 6-7 pm in the Cardinal Lounge. For further information, please contact Karen Yoos at the Admissions Office (564-2040).

Applications are currently being taken for the Toni C. Bloom Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded annually to an undergraduate student entering the junior or senior year, with a minimum gpa of 2.7 and majoring in art, communication, English, French, mass media, music, philosophy, Spanish or theatre. Consideration is based on extent and quality of involvement in any three of the following areas: service to the college, service to the SA, journalism/speech/mass media, creative and performing arts, campus employment, and service to the community. Applications are available from the Office of Campus Life in the Angell College Center.

The New York State Office of Rural Affairs, through the Rural Services Institute established last fall on campus, is compiling a Directory of Resources which will list people who wish to be involved in rural issues and projects. Alan Lessler, director of the Technical Assistance Center which operates the campus RSI, is distributing a survey form to all faculty and staff. Persons, including students, interested in providing technical assistance and services should complete and return the form at their earliest convenience.

SUNY PLATTSBURGH ART MUSEUM

The museum conducts a complete program of changing exhibitions; contemporary and historical in all mediums in the Myers Gallery. The Kent Gallery is devoted to the permanent collection, including the Rockwell Kent collection. The Myers Lobby presents regular exhibitions of student art, while the Winkel Sculpture Court houses the sculpture of Nina Winkel.

Through April 12: CENTENNIAL ALUMNI ART EXHIBITION

A variety of media will be on display from over 20 graduates of our art program. Alumni are working in fields ranging from television design to the latest in abstract art.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (3) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Summer Theatre Staff (14) (Pianists (4), Percussionist, Costume Designer/Construction, Wardrobe Assts./Construction (2), Tech. Assts. w/Produc/Stage Mgmt. (4), Choreographer/Dance Captain, and Vocal Director)

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Nursing — Fall '90

Physical Education (2) (Head Men's Ice Hockey Coach & Head Women's Soccer Coach) — Fall '90

Professional Studies — Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Sociology — Fall '90

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Instructional Support Asst. P/T (Biology)

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center — (Learning Center)

Staff Assistant (Field House)

Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors) (Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Civil Service

Nurse I (Student Health Services)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

Three-Day Symposium Capstone Event of Centennial Celebration

A SUNY Plattsburgh Centennial Symposium featuring discussions and guest lecturers focusing on the theme "Diversity and Quality: The State College Tradition and Its Future" will be held April 10, 11 and 12 in the Angell College Center.

The symposium, according to Dr. Ingrun Lafleur, associate vice president for academic affairs and a member of its planning committee, "is the culmination of the celebration of 100 years of SUNY Plattsburgh." It will explore the intellectual, social and economic challenges facing public higher education in the next generation "in light of changes that have taken place in the last generation." Those changes, she said, focus on the curriculum, clientele, specifically the need to bring more minorities into higher education, the cost and financing of education, and the gap between faculty and student cultures.

"We recognize that our college grew out of the normal school tradition, and has taken on leading responsibility for the teaching of teachers," commented Lafleur. "Teacher education is central on the national policy agenda, and we will explore this during the symposium. As a public institution, we are also particularly concerned that our curriculum prepare a diversity of students as broadly educated professionals and as active participants and leaders in the civic life of their communities.

"These are the issues the symposium will explore. Our guest speakers are scholars and practitioners who have stimulating and controversial opinions to contribute to these topics."

The speakers, Lafleur said, include:

- Dr. Sheila Kaplan, chancellor, University of Wisconsin — Parkside, who will speak on Tuesday, April 10, at 7:30 in Ballroom B on "Challenges Facing State Colleges in the Nineties and Beyond." Since the topic impacts on college planning, commentators for this session will include Vice President Thomas Moran, Dr. Prem Gandhi, chair of the Faculty Senate Resources and Planning Committee, and Ms. Mercedes Miranda, a student.
- Dr. Henry Giroux, social critic and scholar on education, Miami University, who will speak on Wednesday, April 11 at 3:30 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge on "Liberal Education

Waller Receives Prestigious Fellowship for Postdoctoral Research

Dr. Altina Waller, professor of history, has been awarded a $15,000 fellowship from the American Council of Learned Societies. Waller is currently exploring the conflict between social and economic systems brought about by industrialization as it confronted traditional society and culture in Appalachia.

"My research," she explained, "will illuminate the debate over the nature of capitalist transformation, the relationship of violence to that process, and the use of culture as both a weapon and a symbol." The prestigious ACLS Fellowships support postdoctoral research in the humanities.

In her recent book, Feud: Hatfields, McCoys, and Social Change in Appalachia, Waller explored the social and economic origins of that famous Appalachian feud. "This feud," she said,

"emerged from the intersection of a demographic crisis similar to that in eighteenth century New England, with the ability and desire of eastern capitalists to tap the rich timber and coal resources of the region. It was a process which simultaneously threatened local residents with a declining standard of living while promising new economic opportunities."

"My research plan," she continued, "will grapple with three issues: the reality of social and cultural conflict over economic transformation in Appalachian communities; the social construction of feuding for use as a political weapon; and the cultural appeal of feuding to middle-class America."

Waller, who earned her Ph.D. in American social history from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, joined the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty in 1983. Her first book, Reverend Beecher and Mrs. Tilton: Sex and Class in Victorian America (1982) was written with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities and was nominated for the Bancroft Prize for the best book in history.

Honor Society Chapter for Adult Students Established Here

SUNY Plattsburgh has become the first arts and science college in the State University system to be granted a charter from Alpha Sigma Lambda, the national honor society for adult students in higher education.

According to Bette S. Brohel, coordinator of adult learning services and the person who initiated formation of the chapter here, the society was established in 1945 at Northwestern University to honor students who achieve academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work. It will be open to all adult students — full- and part-time — who meet the academic requirement for membership.

Bette Brohel, joined by Student Affairs Vice President Eldridge W. Roark Jr. (R), presents Alpha Sigma Lambda charter to SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren.

"Alpha Sigma Lambda is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship," remarked Brohel, "and recognizes achievement in adult students' careers. In this manner, the society encourages many students to continue toward completion of their bachelor's degrees."

President Charles O. Warren noted the "increasing and striking presence of adult student colleagues" at the college, terming them "critical" as the institution enters the first decade of its second 100 years. "Adult learners," he added, "bring a variety of perspectives and experiences that greatly enrich the entire campus community."

Brohel credited establishment of the society at Plattsburgh to the work of an ad hoc committee she served along with Drs. David Mowry and Altina Waller, Laura Dominy, Ann E. Prarie and Ann Marie Morgan, a 1987 graduate of the college. Prospective members will be screened during the summer, she said, and induction of charter members will take place next fall.

Besides Plattsburgh, chapters of Alpha Sigma Lambda have been established in SUNY at the University Centers at Buffalo and Binghamton.

Budget Meetings Scheduled

President Warren has scheduled meetings for Friday (April 6) to brief faculty and staff on matters of the 1990-91 budget for the college and SUNY, as they are known as of that date. In the interest of convenience, the meetings will be held at 1:15 and 4:15 p.m. in the Ballroom B of the Angell College Center, and members of the campus community are encouraged to attend either.

Centennial Symposium (Continued from page 1)

and the Struggle for Democracy."

- Dean Madeleine Grumet of Brooklyn College, author of Bitter Milk: Women and Teaching, who will speak at the Women's Studies Forum on Thursday, April 12 at 12:15 in the Cardinal Lounge, with "Women, Education, and the Structure of the Curriculum" as her topic.
- Dr. Juergen Herbst, professor of history and of educational policies studies at the University of Wisconsin, who will speak on Thursday, April 12, at 4:15 p.m. in Ballroom B on "Teaching, Teachers and Their Education." Herbst's latest book is And Sadly Teach, an exploration of the history of the profession of teaching in the U.S. and an examination of the dilemmas and opportunities facing teaching and their education today.

A highlight of the symposium will be a panel discussion and open forum, chaired by President Charles Warren, on Wednesday, April 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Cardinal Lounge. At this event, the outside speakers will be joined by SUNY Plattsburgh faculty and staff members, including Dr. Lary Shaffer of the psychology department, Keith Smith of the EOP Program, and Lafleur. The forum will attempt to draw together the themes and issues of the symposium under the title "Academic Culture, Campus Culture, and the Future of Higher Education."

By design, said Lafleur, the symposium falls into the week during which the college is celebrating "Showcase '90" (Wednesday, April 11). "This is intended to be a showcase for our off-campus guests, and to show the dynamism of learning at the college today, as part of our Centennial Year."

The symposium is being sponsored by the college's Centennial Celebration Committee.

Hamernik, Associates Get Grant from Army Research Command

Dr. Roger Hamernik, director of the Auditory Research Laboratory, and four associates have won funding from the U.S. Army Medical Research and Development Command at Fort Detrick, Maryland in support of an international symposium which will focus on the basic and applied aspects of noise-induced hearing loss (NIHL). The conference will be held in May in Gein, France and this grant will be used to subsidize the publication of the conference proceedings.

Doyle, Lavery Receive New Administrative Assignments

The Office of College Relations and Development has been reorganized administratively to streamline operations for greater effectiveness.

Don Garratt, executive assistant to the president, has announced that under the new organization, two individuals — Dennis Doyle and Mal Lavery — will assume additional responsibilities.

Doyle

Lavery

Doyle, director of communications, has assumed responsibility for the major areas of communications. The directors of public information and publications — Carolee Smith and Sherwood Keyser, respectively, and the college photographer, Robin Brown, will report to Doyle.

Lavery has assumed the new title of director of alumni affairs and development. Dan Milliman will serve as associate director of alumni affairs and development and will report to Lavery.

"The appointments of Dennis Doyle and Mal Lavery to these positions of increased responsibility have been well-earned," said Garratt. "They are well-deserved rewards for their many years of conscientious and untiring efforts in behalf of SUNY Plattsburgh," he added.

Doyle joined the college relations/development staff as director of public information in 1968. He later was promoted to director of communications. Lavery has served the college since 1969 as an admissions counselor and then assistant director of admissions before being appointed as director of alumni affairs, a position he has held since 1972.

Hamernik explained that NIHL is a significant public health problem, ranking, according to the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), among the top ten work-related health problems and involving at least 11 million workers. In order to further research in this area, Hamernik, along with Drs. Donald Henderson and Richard Salvi at SUNY Buffalo, organized an international conference on the topic in 1975. That conference brought together experts from most of the disciplines concerned with NIHL and the papers and discussions were published and became a standard reference in the field.

Since that time, two more international conferences have been held, one in 1980 and one in 1985. "Collectively," Hamernik said, "the proceedings from these conferences have become one of the most definitive sources of information on NIHL and have had a direct impact on noise legislation."

Also working on this year's conference are Dr. Armand Dancer of the Franco-German Research Institute and Dr. John Mills of South Carolina.

17th Annual Asian Symposium Offers 2 Lectures Next Week

The 17th Annual Asian Symposium will present two lectures on Central Asia within the next week. Dalhjavyn Sandag, Second Secretary at the Mongolian Embassy in Washington, D.C. will speak on "Mongolia and the Democracy Movement" at 2:45 p.m. on Thursday, April 12.

On Tuesday, April 17 at 4 p.m., Dr. Firuz Kazemzadeh, professor of history at Yale University, will lecture on "Conflict in Central Asia: Causes and Consequences." He will focus on conflict between Armenians and Azerbaijanis and between Christians and Moslems. Kazemzadeh has authored several books on Central Asia, including The Struggle for Transcaucasia, 1917-1921 and Russian and Britain in Persia, 1864-1914: A Study in Imperialism.

Both lectures will take place in the Cardinal Lounge and are free and open to the public.

Readers Reading Writers Event to be Held Thursday Afternoon

The second presentation of "Readers Reading Writers" will be held at 4:15 p.m. on April 5 in the Angell Center Conference Room.

The program will include a reading of works by James T. Farrell by Carla List; a reading by Dr. Laurence Soroka of works by American Indian writer N. Scott Momaday; and a reading by Dr. Edgar Burde of works by either Edgar Allan Poe or James Thurber. "Readers Reading Writers" is sponsored by the English Department. The sessions are free and open to the campus and community.

Alumni Week Cited by Confederation of SUNY Alumni Associations

The Plattsburgh Alumni Association has received the top award for on-campus programming in annual competition sponsored by the SUNY-wide Confederation of Alumni Associations.

The award, presented Sunday in Albany at a meeting of Confederation alumni affairs professionals and alumni volunteers, cited last July's highly successful Centennial Celebration "Alumni Week" program. Alumni Week consisted of seminars for alumni of all class years and interests, a Campus School reunion that attracted about 300 school alumni and faculty, campus tours and a reunion and picnic attended by some 100 former Student Association officers and residence hall assistants. Many returning alumni took advantage of the offer of room and board at nominal cost in campus facilities.

SUNY Plattsburgh's Malcolm Lavery (L) accepts SUNY Confederation of Alumni Associations' award for on-campus programming from Amy Crowe, Confederation president and Brockport alumna, while Dan Takacs, a 1958 graduate of Plattsburgh and a member of the Confederation's Board of Directors, looks on.

"Alumni Week was truly a campus-wide effort," commented Malcolm Lavery, director of development and alumni affairs, who accepted the award at the Confederation gathering. "While the award was given to the Alumni Association, it was made possible because of the splendid cooperation of the faculty committee that helped organize the week's activities and because several outstanding instructors — current and retired — gave seminars for their appreciative, former students.

This is Plattsburgh's second consecutive year as recipient of the Confederation's highest award for on-campus programming. Last spring the Alumni Association was cited for its summer 1988 Alumni Leadership Conference.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Melvin W. Donaho, professor of communication, presented a workshop/seminar recently in Lake Placid for 300 members of the New York State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Services and representatives of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The title of his presentation was "Overcoming Resistance to Change". . . Dr. Philip DeVita, professor of anthropology, recently attended the annual meeting of the Association for Social Anthropology in Oceania, held in Kaua'i, Hawaii, where he presented a paper entitled "The Marquesan Mystique in Navigating the Tuamotos" and gave a presentation in a session on "Teaching Pacific Anthropology." DeVita has been nominated for a seat on the association's Board of Directors. . . Beatrice D. Foley, manager of the Center for Art, Music and Theatre and a trustee of the Mid-York Library System, will serve as a team leader at the 12th Library Trustee Institute sponsored by the State Education Department, Division of Library Development, to be held Saturday in Albany. . . Dr. Sunderesh Heragu, assistant professor in the School of Business and Economics, presented a paper entitled "Modeling the Machine Layout Problem" at the 12th Computers and Industrial Engineering Conference, held recently in Orlando, Fla. The paper has been accepted for publication in the conference proceedings. "Manufacturing Systems," co-authored by Heragu and published in 1988 in "Industrial Engineering," has been translated into Chinese and published in the Chinese publication, "World Engineering Industry". . . Dr. Thomas Morrissey, professor of English, presented a paper entitled "Gender, Bio-Technology and Power in the Novels of Pamela Sargent" at the 11th annual conference of the International Association on the Fantastic in the Arts held last month in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Morrissey also chaired a conference session on "Feminism and Science Fiction."

CORRECTION: Robert Harsh is an EOP counselor, not as noted in last week's Weekly.

'Showcase '90' to Feature More Than 100 Separate Presentations

Showcase '90, scheduled for Wednesday, April 11, will feature 106 separate presentations, all designed to demonstrate the scholarly and creative pursuits of SUNY Plattsburgh faculty, staff and students.

Showcase committee chair Dr. Edward Miller said, "We're very pleased at the tremendous response from members of the campus community. The various presentations show an incredible range of interests. Virtually every department of the college is represented and the various presentations involve several hundred people. There truly is something for everyone offered during the day and we hope that everyone will attend at least some of the day's events."

The day's events begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m., when presenters, sponsors and organizers will be hosted at a Presidential Reception in the Blue Room.

Morning sessions include a Philosophy Colloquium, a Global Climate Change Symposium, the Redcay Symposium, a Women's Studies Forum, Literature and Poetry Readings, Topics in Nursing Today, and an Accounting, Economics, Management and Marketing Symposium. Those sessions will offer 42 separate papers and presentations.

A Sigma Xi Mini-Symposium, featuring the progress and results of 17 different independent research projects presented by 24 students and faculty members, will run from 8:30 a.m. to 4:10 p.m. in Hudson Hall Room 106.

Afternoon sessions include an Anthropology Symposium, a session on Health Issues, Reflections on Canadian Study Experiences, a panel on Approaches to John Milton, various student Television and Radio Productions, a presentation on "The Noble Savage," Historical Perspectives on the North Country, Forensic Performances and Oral Interpretations of Literature, a Sexual Harassment Workshop and a session on Psychological, Sociology and Educational Studies at College Institutions.

A special workshop on Three-Dimensional Art will be conducted by Lendall Haskell and interested parties are asked to contact him (564-5151) prior to April 11 to make arrangements for participation.

Various art, music and theatre presentations will take place throughout the day and will include the Juried Undergraduate Art Exhibition, an open rehearsal of "The Henrietta," demonstrations of various artistic techniques, and the premiere performance (at 10 a.m. and again at 4 p.m. in the Winkel Sculpture Court) of "One Hundred Bells" by Robert Hall.

A Poster Session will be held from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. in the Ballroom, Blue Room and Cardinal Lounge, and will feature 27 different presentations and demonstrations. Just a few of the presentations on the agenda are a mousetrap powered car race by students in Physics 113, a fencing demonstration, presentations on Teachers Helping Teachers, a fitness session, and presentations on growth on Cumberland Head and land use in the Adirondack Park.

Events are scheduled in Hudson, Ward and Yokum Halls and in the Angell College Center and information tables will be set up in each of those buildings. Complete programs listing times and places for all events will shortly be available on campus. Funding for Showcase '90 is provided by CAS, the Center for Lifelong Learning and the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Gift from Kiwanis

The Plattsburgh Kiwanis Club has purchased a refrigerator for use by the college's Alzheimer's Disease Assistance Center. Seen here delivering the refrigerator are Kiwanians, (L to R) Past President Robert Turoff, First Vice President Nancy Church, member Joan Fleury, and Past President Keith Defayette.

Noted Poet Aal Will Address Women's Studies Forum Program

Dr. Kathryn Machan Aal will be the featured speaker at the Women's Studies Forum tomorrow (April 5) at 12:15 p.m. in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

A noted poet, Aal will present an abstract of Breath into Fire: Feminism and Poetry Readings, which has been awarded first prize in Lyra magazine's national essay competition and will be published in the fall. Her work has also been included in the New Norton Anthology.

Aal will also participate in Albert Montanaro's class on oral Interpretation while on campus. Her visit is being funded by College Auxiliary Services, the office of the Dean of Arts and Science, and a matching grant from Poets and Writers, Inc.

NCAA Gives Hockey Program Two-Year Probation for Violations

The NCAA announced Thursday that the college's men's ice hockey program has been placed on probation for two years for what it termed major violations of NCAA rules. As a result, the team will be ineligible for postseason competition in 1991.

The NCAA also will vacate all team and individual records earned by ineligible student-athletes in the 1986, 1987 and 1988 Division III Men's Ice Hockey national championships. Cardinal teams finished as runner-up to the national crown in 1986, won the title the following year and were eliminated in the quarter final round in the 1988 tournament.

The college will also be required to show cause why it should not be subject to additional penalties if it does not disassociate the eight representatives of its athletic interests who were involved in the violations found in this case.

The NCAA Committee on Infractions found that between 1985 and 1988, several student-athletes resided in the homes of representatives of the institution's manner that was not isolated and that resulted in a competitive advantage to the institution." Because the committee determined that this case involved major violations of NCAA legislation, the committee is required by the membership to impose at least the following penalties, which are among the minimum penalties for such violations: a two-year probationary period; loss of postseason competition and live television appearances for at least one year; elimination of expense-paid recruiting visits for one year, and the elimination of off-campus recruiting for one year. The NCAA membership, however, has given the committee the authority to impose lesser penalties if the committee determines that the case is unique.

The committee found that SUNY Plattsburgh's case was unique for two reasons. First, the institution cooperated fully with the investigation and conducted a thorough investigation of the program. Secondly, the institution has taken steps to strengthen its athletics administration and to implement pro-

Warren, Luguri Answer Press on Impact of NCAA Sanctions

President Charles O. Warren and Peter Luguri, director of athletics, answered questions from regional news media representatives on sanctions imposed by the NCAA on the college's ice hockey program during a meeting Thursday afternoon called for that purpose. Both made it clear that the college contested none of the NCAA findings. On the matter of lack of institutional control, President Warren noted that the charge was "a perception" held by the NCAA, adding that "whether one agrees with those perceptions, or not, is debatable."

He continued: "There was a good deal of transition during that period in terms of administration within the athletic area and the general administration of the college. Perhaps that is one explanation. I would also like to point out, as I did at the (NCAA) infractions committee meeting (in San Diego in January), that I don't believe that anyone involved in this community — anyone — was manipulating for advantage. I don't believe there was any crassness, or planning . . . they were responding as the warm, open supportive community that Plattsburgh is. So, I don't think there was any reason for people to raise suspicion, and I don't think anyone felt that they were, with knowledge, violating NCAA regulations.

"I believe what we need to focus on now, however, is not surmising about the past, but stating very clearly what our intercollegiate athletic program is about in the present and in the future. We have been doing this, and the NCAA seems to feel very positive about our reactions."

Luguri expressed disappointment that the NCAA had stripped the 1986-87 Cardinal hockey team of its Division III national championship, and he later told the Albany Times Union there was disappointment also in the sanction banning next year's hockey team from postseason play.

"None of the student-athletes associated with the hockey program now were involved in any of the NCAA allegations," he said.

athletics interests and received impermissible extra benefits from their host families. These benefits included free housing in some instances, use of automobiles, occasional meals and small cash loans.

The committee determined that the institution demonstrated a lack of institutional control over its men's ice hockey program due to the inadequacy of monitoring procedures in the athletics department. This lack of control was manifested in several ways, the committee said, including the unregulated use of athletic department telephones by student-athletes.

In its report, the committee cited the "provision of extra benefits over a sustained period of time . . . in a cedures designed to ensure that it will comply with the principles of institutional control and rules compliance in the future. The committee also noted the institution's "utmost candor and forthrightness at the committee hearing."

Because of these factors, the committee did not impose several of the penalties it was considering. Specifically, it did not:

- Eliminate expense-paid recruiting visits for one year.
- Prohibit all off-campus recruiting for one year.
- Prohibit the institution from participating in postseason competition after the 1991-92 season.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, APRIL 5 - THURSDAY, APRIL 12

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, APRIL 5

12:15 pm — Breath Into Fire: Feminism and Poetry Readings — Dr. Katharyn Machan Aal. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Readers Reading Writers. Angell Center Conference Room. Sponsored by the English Department.

7 pm — Alcohol and the Family. Helen Todd, Coordinator of Training, North Country Council on Alcoholism. Sponsored by Campus Life and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Amnesty Room.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6

2:30 pm — Public Address: "Civil Rights and Minority Access in the Nineties — The Educational Agenda." Sponsored by the Distinguished Visiting Professor Program. Angell Center Blue Room.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents: "I Could Go on Singing" starring the great Judy Garland in her last film. Donations to benefit Greenpeace. Non-perishables and clothing accepted for local needy.

8 pm — Friday Night Film Series presents "The Last Emperor" sponsored by Campus Life and the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Yokum 200.

8 pm — Gamelan Ensemble Concert — Champlain Chamber Music Series sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7

9 am - 6 pm — Montreal bus sponsored by Campus Life. Round trip tickets are $9 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Leaves from the Rugar Street "pull-off."

10 - 11 am — Workshop — Gamelan Ensemble sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Studio Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

8 pm — Second Annual International Fashion Show sponsored by Club International. Come and see a world outside the U.S. Tickets: S.A. members $2, public $3.50 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

SUNDAY, APRIL 8

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Sea of Love." Open to the campus only. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, APRIL 9

7 pm — Film Festival: Award Winning Canadian Cinema — "Volcano." Introduced by Dr. Bruce Butterfield, Department of English. Sponsored by the Canadian Film Distribution Center. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7:30 pm — Campus Poets Series — Warren Dixon, Department of Economics — "The Border Dispute Between Poetry and Prose." Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, Faculty of Arts and Science. Newman Center, 92 Broad Street.

TUESDAY, APRIL 10

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 pm — Brown Bag Recital sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Philip DeVita, Anthropology Department speaking on "2020 Vision: The Bateson Projects and the Future of the Earth." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Lecture — Sidney Blum, Sculptor, sponsored by Art Resources and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11

8:30 am - 5 pm — Showcase '90. Presentations will take place all day in Yokum, Hudson, Ward Hall and in the Angell College Center.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12

12:15 pm — Bitter Milk: Women, The Structure of Education and the Curriculum with Dr. Madeleine Grumet. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

2:45 pm — Asian Symposium presents Dalhjavyn Sandag, "Mongolia and the Democracy Movement." Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

NOTES

Trainers Wanted: Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for the Fall 1990 semester. Selected students will receive academic credit for four hours per week. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, Room 101, College Health Center. Application deadline: April 25, 1990.

Open House Tour Guides Needed: The Admissions Office is currently looking for student volunteers to serve as Open House tour guides on April 21, 1990. Each year, Open House attracts over 1200 prospective students and their families and over one hundred students are needed as tour guides. You do not need previous experience as a tour guide to volunteer. Anyone interested in participating in the program must attend one of two informational training sessions which are scheduled for Monday, April 9 and Tuesday, April 10 from 6-7 pm in the Cardinal Lounge. For further information, please contact Karen Yoos at the Admissions Office (564-2040).

On Wednesday, April 18, the fraternities and sororities of SUNY Plattsburgh will sponsor a "Job Interview Skills Workshop" (how to prepare for job interviews). Open to members only. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

Poetry Reading Features Pack

Robert Pack, director of the Breadloaf Writers Conference, will present a poetry reading today (April 4) at 8:30 p.m. in the Champlain Vall Hall commons.

Pack's visit is sponsored by the English department's Visiting Poets and Writers Series and by College Auxiliary Services. The reading is free and open to all.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor
Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (3) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Summer Theatre Staff (14) (Pianists (4), Percussionist, Costume Designer/Construction, Wardrobe Assts./Construction (2), Tech. Assts. w/Product/Stage Mgmt. (4), Choreographer/Dance Captain, and Vocal Director)

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Nursing — Fall '90

Physical Education (2) (Head Men's Ice Hockey Coach & Head Women's Soccer Coach) — Fall '90

Professional Studies — Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Sociology — Fall '90

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Instructional Support Asst. P/T (Biology)

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center (Learning Center)

Staff Assistant (Field House)

Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors) (Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Civil Service

Keyboard Specialist (Financial Aid)

Nurse I (Student Health Services)

Sr. Clerk (Campus Life)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

President Urges Colleagues to Lobby for SUNY Budget Position

President Charles O. Warren held two separate sessions Friday for members of the campus community to share information — as known at the time — on budget issues confronting SUNY and this college. He urged "immediate action" by way of telephone messages or mailgrams directed to State Senator Ronald B. Stafford, Assemblyman Chris Ortloff and other legislative leaders.

Warren pointed out that lawmakers are talking about assigning a $500 million shortfall to state agencies. That would translate to a $40 million shortfall, including a $19 million deficit in the Executive Budget, for the University. "If that is the final outcome," he said, "our college's share of the cut would be $578,300.

"Considering budget lines for fixed expenses — for utilities and contractual services, for example — the primary ways to absorb a cut of this magnitude would be supplies and expense and position reduction. The former would amount to roughly one-third of our budget request for supplies," he continued, "but, most importantly, the line represents all of the flexibility we have in managing operations. The yielding of open positions to meet reductions in the recent past further reduces our options."

President Warren said that the matter of a tuition increase for SUNY students remains unsettled, adding that there is no indication whether revenue from such an increase would provide relief for the University or be deposited in the state's general fund. He asked colleagues to contact their legislators and legislative leaders, urging them to:

- Adopt the SUNY budget with the $67.8 million base increase proposed by the governor.
 - Change SUNY's fiscal year from the current April 1 to March 1 and July 1 to June 30, and provide sufficient funding for the extra fiscal quarter if the change becomes effective this year.
 - Restore cuts proposed by the governor in the 1990-01 SUNY budget recommendation, specifically for:
 - Library automation.
 - Tutoring and counseling services.
 - Campus Small Business Development Centers.
 - OTPS (Other Than Personal Service) funds.
 - Academic equipment.
- (Continued on next page)*

Redcay Cumberland Head Property Donated to College Foundation

The Plattsburgh College Foundation has announced that the Redcay property on Cumberland Head has been donated to the Foundation by the late Dr. Edward E. "Doc" Redcay.

"Doc signed a retained life estate agreement with the Foundation in February of 1989, about eight months before his death," remarked Don Garrant, executive director of the Foundation. "It was an irrevocable gift that provided him lifetime use of the property but guaranteed it would be given to the Foundation upon his death. In making such a gift during his lifetime, Doc was able to claim an income tax deduction for its value and avoid paying the capital gains tax. Doc Redcay planned carefully in meeting his needs as well as in providing for this institution, which he loved dearly."

The Redcay property, which will be placed on the market this summer, consists of a one and one-half story Cape Cod home on 1.5 acres of land on Cumberland Head that includes 600-plus feet fronting Lake Champlain. The Redcay gift includes the dwelling and its contents.

Garrant said that proceeds from the sale of the property will enrich the endowment fund established by Dr. Redcay and his late wife, Lillian Bilkey Redcay, in accordance with Doc's wishes. The endowment principal in that fund, he added, currently totals about $175,000, with investment income supporting several scholarship programs for academically qualified students.

Besides the endowment, Dr. Redcay had created an annuity trust whose value totaled about $150,000 at the time of his death. This trust, Garrant explained, provided investment income for Redcay's use until his death, when the principal became part of the Redcay endowment.

"During his 53 years at this college, Doc Redcay grew to personify its spirit," commented President Charles O. Warren. "He left more than memories to his adopted college. He also established a standard of generosity unequalled in our institution's proud past — a standard based on genuine caring for colleagues, friends and especially for students."

'Multi-cultural Awareness Week' to Feature Varied Programming

A variety of programs, workshops and presentations highlight Multi-cultural Awareness Week at SUNY Plattsburgh, which gets underway on Saturday (April 14) and continues through April 21. All activities are open to the campus and the community at-large.

The week's events begin at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday in the Blue Room of the Angell Center with a fashion show sponsored by AKEBA. Tickets for the show are $3 and are available at the Angell Center desk.

On Tuesday at 4 p.m., Dr. Firuz Kazamzadeh will discuss "Conflict in Central Asia" in the Cardinal Lounge. An experiential Multi-cultural Sensitivity Workshop, which features the interactive game "BAFA, BAFA," will follow at 7 p.m. in the building's Amenity Room.

The acclaimed film "Do the Right Thing" will be shown at 9 p.m. on Wednesday in Room 202 of Yokum Hall. A multi-cultural dinner featuring a varied menu of Jamaican, West Indies and Caribbean dishes will be held at 6 p.m. on Thursday in the Angell Center Centennial Room. Dinner tickets are $5 and may be purchased at the Angell Center Desk.

President and Mrs. Warren will host an open forum scheduled for 4 p.m. on Friday at the President's Home, 134 Court St. Participants will be encouraged to express their thoughts, concerns and insights on the topic of multi-culturalism. El Pueblo will sponsor its second annual Merengue Dance at 9 p.m. on Saturday, April 21 in the Sibley Cafetorium. Dance tickets are available at the Angell Center desk.

Campus media will focus on the week's theme. WPLT-FM's live news show "Fireside Chat," which airs at 7 p.m. on Sunday, will address the meaning of multi-culturalism and the need for understanding different cultures. PSTV, Cable Channel 10, will feature a show on life in different cultures during its "North Country Nightly" program at 9 p.m. on Monday.

Throughout the week, Club International, El Pueblo and AKEBA will prepare and make available

Budget Dilemma (Continued from page 1)

- Research funds for participation of non-doctoral campuses in SUNY's graduate research initiative.

Names, addresses and telephone numbers of individuals to call or write are available in the President's Office (2010) or the Office of College Relations and Development (2090). In the meantime, the Faculty Resources and Planning Committee and other campus faculty, staff and student leaders will be kept apprised of developments. President Warren invited members of the campus community who have specific questions to feel free to contact him or members of the Executive Staff.

ethnic finger foods for consumption by lunch hour passers-by in the lobby area of the Angell Center. These three organizations are joined by College Auxiliary Services, the Office of Campus Life and the college's Minority Concerns Committee as sponsors of Multi-cultural Awareness Week.

Myers Group Gift Recognizes Student Help on Video Project

The Myers Group, Inc. of Rouses Point has donated equipment valued at more than $1,500 to the college's Department of Communication through the Plattsburgh College Foundation.

Lawrence Arcarese, associate professor, said the gift is recognition of the contributions of students majoring in mass communication to an employee-training project sponsored by the donor firm. He pointed out that five students — Bill Britton, Ed Cama, Mike Hall, Diahann Olejarz and Lenka Rezenicek — participated in production of a video training tape as part of their academic orientation to "real world" experiences. They worked with company personnel on the project, which included script-writing, videography and editing for television.

Seventy copies of the completed videotape have been distributed to The Myers Group offices worldwide. The Myers Group is a customs broker and freight forwarder. While its headquarters are in Rouses Point, it maintains 60 branch offices in the U.S. Hong Kong, Korea and Taiwan.

The donated equipment includes a fluid head tripod, a shotgun microphone and a field monitor. It will be useful, Arcarese said, in teaching video production.

Six Seniors in EOP Program to be Honored for Achievement

Six graduating seniors in the Educational Opportunity Program will each receive an Outstanding Student Achievement Award this spring. The award, sponsored by the SUNY-wide Office of Special Programs, is presented each year to EOP students throughout the SUNY system who graduate with a grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

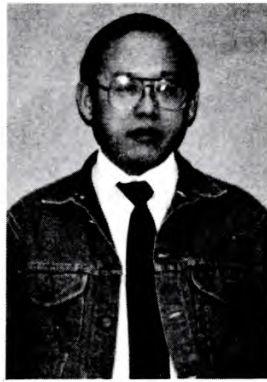

SUNY Plattsburgh students being honored this year are: Patrick Bickett, individualized studies; Marie Bottigliero, individualized studies; Hilarie Dickson, elementary education; Charles Fitch, criminal justice; James Miller, chemistry; and Christopher Mortenson, mass communications.

The students will receive the awards at a special banquet in Albany on April 25.

Biologist Chen to Begin Term as Distinguished Visiting Alumnus

The next in the series of Distinguished Visiting Alumni, biologist Dr. Thomas Chen, will be on campus April 18-20. Chen will be hosted by Dean H.Z. Liu and Dr. Roger Heintz.

During his visit to campus, Chen will meet with students and faculty, host a workshop with the Career/Life Planning Center and lecture in several classes. He will also deliver a public lecture at 7:30 p.m. on April 19 in CL 202 on "Genetic Engineering: New Frontiers in Food Production."

Chen earned his bachelor's degree at the National Chung-Hsing University in Taiwan, his master's degree in biological sciences from SUNY Plattsburgh in 1970 and his Ph.D. in genetics from the University of Alberta in 1973. He is currently a professor and associate director of faculty development at the Center of Marine Biotechnology in Baltimore, MD, which is jointly supported by the University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins University.

Chen is internationally known for his work in using recombinant DNA techniques to improve fish growth rates. Liu explained, "Dr. Chen works with cloning genes from several food fishes. He and his colleagues then manipulate those genes to produce fish growth hormones, which result in growing bigger fish in shorter periods of time. His work impacts greatly on food production, particularly in Third World countries where fish is the major protein in the diet of the population." One particular fish growth hormone developed by Chen and his collaborators is currently being field tested in the United States with USDA approval.

Chen has won numerous grants from several funding sources in the United States and Canada, including the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Office of Naval Research and the National Science and Engineering Research Council of Canada, to support his work. He has authored and co-authored numerous articles and has presented his research results in South America, Europe and Asia.

Consumer Economics Expert Morse Here as Distinguished Professor

Dr. Richard L.D. Morse, an expert in consumer economics, is currently in residence on campus as a Distinguished Visiting Professor. Morse, who will spend six weeks at SUNY Plattsburgh, is being hosted by the Center for Human Resources.

During his stay, Morse is teaching a six-week course entitled "The Consumer in the Market Place." He is also guest lecturing in classes in the Center for Teacher Education and the psychology department as well as the Center for Human Resources. He will deliver a public lecture at 7 p.m. on April 26 on "Truth in Savings. That lecture (location to be announced) is free and open to the public.

Morse, who recently retired as professor of family economics at Kansas State University, is nationally known for his work on truth-in-lending and truth-in-savings. He was a member of the first national Consumer Advisory Council, created by President John F. Kennedy and later served on President Lyndon B. Johnson's Committee on Consumer Interests. He also served on the Consumer Advisory Council of the Federal Reserve Board from 1986-89.

Morse was a consultant to the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Truth in Lending and has also served as a consultant to the Department of Defense on consumer credit and to the New York State Banking Department.

Morse has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Consumers Union of the U.S. since 1985. He has published numerous articles on consumer economics and has testified before Congress on several occasions.

Clinton-Essex Special Olympics Cites Student-Run TV Program

"North Country Nightly," the student-run interview show on PSTV, has won the Clinton-Essex Counties Special Olympics 1990 "Clinton County Outstanding Media Award." The award, according to Special Olympics Area Coordinator Kenneth Akerstrom, is given for an "(immense contribution) to the strength and growth of the area (Special Olympics) program."

"We feel," Akerstrom said in a letter to PSTV, "that through (this) presentation, the area Special Olympics Committee has been able to inform the general public and PSUC students of our program."

Dores Candussi, assistant professor of communications and PSTV coordinator, said the students not only produced the "North Country Nightly" segment on the Special Olympics, they also provided the area committee with several videotaped copies of the program to be used for further community outreach. The show, which was directed by Ken Carter and hosted by Suzanne Marotta, aired on November 27.

Each semester, approximately 70 mass media students are involved with the television practicum at PSTV, gaining hands-on experience with television broadcasting and production.

1,000 Expected for April 21 Open House for Prospective Students

The annual spring Open House for prospective students and their parents will be held on Saturday, April 21 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. At Least 1,000 visitors are expected to attend.

The day's activities will begin with a welcoming session at 9:30 a.m. in Memorial Hall gymnasium. Students will then go to the department of their choice to meet with faculty and students for a discussion of academic programs and resources. Campus tours follow the department sessions.

Four workshops will be held during the afternoon. Prospective students will learn what to expect between now and Opening Day, have their questions answered about financial aid and hear currently enrolled students talk about life on the Plattsburgh campus. A fourth workshop will answer questions for transfer students.

Additionally during the day, Student Association officers will staff a table with information about extracurricular activities, the Bursar's Office will accept admissions deposits, the Housing Office will accept housing deposits and the College Store will be open. The Financial Aid Office will also be open, by advance appointment only, to discuss specific award packages for incoming students.

Additional information about Open House is available through the Admissions Office.

Gruending, Fuller Receive Research Equipment Challenge Grant

Drs. Gerhard Gruending and Robert Fuller, professor and assistant professor, respectively, in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, have won a Research Equipment Challenge Grant from the SUNY Research Foundation. The proposal to purchase an integrated instrument package for the analysis of environmental pollutants, was funded at $18,675, which is half the cost of the equipment. Gruending and Fuller will have to match that amount from another funding source.

Dr. Jerome Komisar, president of the SUNY Research Foundation, wrote in the award letter, "This year's program was extremely competitive, and it is a tribute to the research strength of your campus to receive an award."

With the money, Fuller and Gruending will purchase a dual purpose instrument, which performs both ion chromatography and high performance liquid chromatography. These two powerful techniques are used to quantitatively measure very low concentrations of numerous organic compounds. For instance, Fuller explained, "It allows us to measure plant nutrients, pollutants, pesticides or other organic compounds in soils, streams and lakes."

Gruending

Fuller

The chromatograph will be used by Fuller in his work on acid rain and pesticide movement, while Gruending will use it to measure the movement of lampricides.

Five from Plattsburgh Earn All-SUNYAC All-Academic Honors

The State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) has announced its first SUNYAC Fall All-Academic Team, which is made up of student-athletes from conference institutions whose cumulative averages are 3.3 or higher. In addition, the student-athletes must be in at least their third semester of college and must complete the entire season of competition.

Plattsburgh State's Julie Dobert (cross-country), Melissa Frenyea (soccer), Kelly Gates (tennis), Daniel Pollay (cross-country), and Richard Wisneski (cross-country) were named to the SUNYAC Fall All-Academic team.

Dobert is a senior accounting major from Rensselaer. Her fall cumulative average was 3.799. Frenyea is a junior education major from Morrisville whose cumulative average was 3.944. Kelly Gates is a senior English major from Plattsburgh and her average was 3.376. Pollay, who compiled a 3.321 cumulative average, is a junior accounting major from Cato. Wisneski is a senior English major from Palatine Bridge. His fall term average was 3.425.

All Plattsburgh members of the SUNYAC All-Academic team were also members of the college's fall PEARS All-Academic team.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, APRIL 12 - THURSDAY, APRIL 19

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, APRIL 12

4 pm — National Association of Accountants elections will be held. Old members should attend and new members are welcome. Refreshments will be served. Angell Center Meeting Room 7.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13

8 pm — Friday Film Series presents "Rain Man" sponsored by Campus Life and the Student Association Activities Coordination Board. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 and on sale at the Angell Center desk. Yokum 200.

8:30 pm — Environmental Action Committee sponsors a film entitled, "Horror Express" starring Peter Cushing and Christopher Lee. Yokum 208.

SUNDAY, APRIL 15

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "Road House." Open to the campus. Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 are on sale at the Angell Center desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, APRIL 16

7 pm — Film Festival: Award winning Canadian cinema — "Mon Oncle Antoine." Introduced by Margaret Lanoue, Director of CFDC. Sponsored by the Canadian Film Distribution Center. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17

11:30 am — U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

noon — Co-op Information Session. Student Panel sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

8 pm — SUNY Chamber Ensembles Concert sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Angell Center Ballroom.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

7:30 pm — "Job Interview Skills Workshop" sponsored by SUNY Plattsburgh fraternities and sororities. Open to members only. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" — A melodrama of the 1890's. (A Centennial Event) Sponsored by the Theatre Department and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $5, faculty/staff $4 on sale at the Hartman Theatre Box Office beginning April 4. Hartman Theatre, Myers Building.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Open to the campus and public. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

12:15 pm — "Women and Change in East Germany" with Dr. Ingrun Lafleur. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Open to the campus and public. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Alumnus Dr. Thomas Chen "Genetic Engineering: New Frontiers in Food Production." CL 202.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" — A melodrama of the 1890's. See Wednesday, April 18, 8 pm for details.

NOTES

Trainers Wanted: Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for the Fall 1990 semester. Selected students will receive academic credit for four hours per week. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, Room 101, College Health Center. Application deadline: April 25, 1990.

A three credit hour Japanese language class has been added to the master schedule for the summer session at SUNY Plattsburgh. Instruction will be at the beginner level. The class will be taught by Hiromi Rozetti, a native Japanese speaker. Classes will be held 10 -11:30 a.m. Mondays through Thursdays. For further information, contact Dr. Craig Sample, department of foreign language and literature at 564-3839 or the department secretary at 564-2829.

The semester's final dinner hosted by the Quantity Foods Production class will be held Tuesday, April 17, featuring the all-you-can-eat chef's surprise buffet. The meal is served at 6 p.m. in the Sibley Hall cafetorium. Tickets are $8 each and reservations may be made by calling 564-2216 on Monday, Tuesday or Friday between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

10 Students to be Chosen for Field Trip to New Brunswick

Ten Canadian Studies students will be selected to participate in a field trip to New Brunswick in May. The trip will be the Center for the Study of Canada's first outside of "Canada's central corridor."

Students will take the train from Montreal to a rural New Brunswick fishing village where they will be hosted by a local organization promoting Canada/U.S. friendship. They will stay in the restored mansion of the former Governor of New Brunswick and will visit historic sites and a restored Acadian village.

Students will be selected on the basis of academic record, commitment to the Canadian Studies program and a written personal statement.

1887's 'The Henrietta' on Tap as ATM's Centennial Production

The Center for Art, Music and Theatre and the theatre department will present "The Henrietta," by Bronson Howard April 18 - 21 and April 25 - 28, nightly at 8 p.m. in the Hartman Theatre.

"The Henrietta" is the theatre department's tribute to the college's Centennial Celebration. Originally opened in 1887 at the Union Square Theatre in New York City, the play is "filled with the time-honored passions and sympathies of love and lust, trust and betrayal and a grand old American passion — insider trading."

The play is directed by Dr. Ruth Kline, with scene design by Dr. Tim Palkovic and light design by Kim Hartshorn. Cast members include S. Martin Burnam, John Michael Decker, Christian Purdy, Robert Hegeman, Chris Murtha, Greg Waagner, Chris Classen, Anna Marie Nocente, Monique Durocher, Karen Lynn Anderson and Lisa DiGiovanni.

Tickets are $5 for the general public, $4 for faculty and staff and $1 for SA members and are available at the Myers Box Office.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor
Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (3) (Economics, Marketing & Management) — Fall '90 & Vita Bank

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Summer Theatre Staff (14) (Pianists (4), Percussionist, Costume Designer/Construction, Wardrobe Assts./Construction (2), Tech. Assts. w/Produc/Stage Mgmt. (4), Choreographer/Dance Captain, and Vocal Director)

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Nursing — Fall '90

Professional Studies Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Instructional Support Asst. P/T (Biology)

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Director of Learning Center (Learning Center)

Staff Assistant (Field House)

Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors)
(Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

Three to Share Special 'Centennial' Commencement Speaking Duty

In recognition of the college's Centennial Celebration, three individuals, representing the faculty, the student body, and the Alumni Association, have been selected to speak at the commencement ceremony, scheduled for May 12 at the Field House.

Speaking on behalf of the faculty will be Dr. Douglas Skopp, professor of history and author of Bright With Promise: From the Normal and Training School to SUNY Plattsburgh 1889-1989, the centennial history of the college. Skopp joined the history faculty at SUNY Plattsburgh in 1972 and has chaired the department on several occasions. He spent a year as acting associate vice president for academic affairs.

Skopp won a Fulbright Grant in 1985 and spent the 1985-86 academic year lecturing and doing research at the University of Hannover in West Germany. He is a recipient of several SUNY research grants and has written extensively on the German educational system.

Ellen Rudd, a senior French major from Somers,

NY, has been chosen to speak on behalf of the student body. Rudd, who will receive her degree magna cum laude, is a Presidential Scholar, having been chosen as an incoming freshman solely on the basis of academic ability to receive a four-year, full-tuition-equivalent scholarship.

Skopp

Rudd

Sadowski

Rudd has participated in the Honors Program, is a member of the French Club, and has tutored fellow students in French and linguistics. She plans to pursue graduate studies at NYU's Institute of French Studies

(Continued on next page)

Three Graduate Counseling Programs Earn CACREP Accreditation

Three of the college's graduate counseling programs have received accreditation from the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP). The accredited programs are community counseling, students affairs practice in higher education, and school counseling.

Dr. Donald Haight, associate professor of counseling, coordinated the accreditation process on campus. "We've been working toward this for the past five years," Haight said, "and we're very pleased to receive CACREP's recognition that our programs meet their criteria of educational quality."

Haight added, "Our programs, which are part of the Center for Human Resources, are among less than 12% of counseling programs throughout the country that have received accreditation. Sixty-five institutions currently have accredited programs, and 62 of them are in university settings. SUNY Brockport and C.W. Post College of Long Island University have the only other two accredited programs in New York State. SUNY Plattsburgh becomes one of 51 accredited school counseling programs, one of 57 accredited community counseling programs, and one of 27 accredited student affairs programs in the nation."

He continued, "Accreditation not only indicates that graduates of these programs have received quality educational experiences, it serves the institution by clarifying the programs' mission and future direction, providing a stimulus for self-evaluation and improvement, enhancing visibility and recognition, and attracting highly qualified students and faculty."

CACREP, incorporated in 1981, is the accrediting arm of the American Association for Counseling and Development and is recognized by the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation. The decision was based on an extensive review of a 750-page self-study document, the report of an on-site visitation team and the institution's response to the team's report. The accreditation is initially for a two-year period.

Other SUNY Plattsburgh faculty members who worked on the accreditation process were Dr. Marilyn Chase, center director; Dr. Mary Roark, program coordinator; Dr. John Middleton, Dr. Kenneth Hoeltzel, and Dr. Thomas Collins. The Counseling Advisory Group was also involved.

Haight also commended the "significant efforts of college administrators and personnel in local school districts, area colleges, and community agencies."

Thorne '72 to be Year's Final Distinguished Visiting Alumnus

Rolando Thorne '72, president of the SUNY Plattsburgh Alumni Association, will be in residence on campus April 22 - 24 through the Distinguished Visiting Alumni Program. Thorne will meet with members of AKEBA and El Pueblo, host a placement seminar, and attend several classes. At 7:30 p.m. on Monday evening, Thorne will give an open lecture on "Social Health Care: Issues for the '90's."

Thorne has recently accepted the post of Special Assistant to the Director of the Georgia Department of Human Resources, Division of Public Health, Family Health Services Section. His duties include planning and implementation of the statewide public health department's conversion to a medicaid service provision system. Additionally, he is responsible for evaluating, updating and revising all program policies for individual family health services section programs.

Thorne, who holds a master's degree in public health from the Yale University School of Medicine, was most recently assistant administrator for Corrections Health Services for the Dade County (Florida) Department of Human Resources. He served two years as assistant director of the Center on Adult Development and Aging at the University of Miami and from 1984-87 was a program officer for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He has also held various health care-related positions with the Montefiore Medical Center in New York City, New York's Home Care and Extended Services Department and the New York State Department of Corrections.

Thorne was elected president of the Alumni Association in 1988 after serving several years on the board of directors. During his undergraduate years, and has won a full-tuition (plus stipend) scholarship.

Commencement (Continued from page 1)

Representing the 20,000-member Alumni Association will be Laura Sadowski '82, president of the Western New York Alumni Chapter. Sadowski was an exceptionally active student during her undergraduate career, completing requirements for three majors — broadcast journalism, mass media and communication arts — while at the same time serving as Student Association president, vice president of Omicron Delta Kappa, and as a member of the Plattsburgh College Foundation Board of Directors. She was also a resident assistant. Sadowski is currently employed by Marine Midland Bank in Rochester, where she handles media and press relations as well as community affairs.

Thorne participated in Project New City (now known as EOP) and last fall received an Outstanding EOP Alumnus Award.

Thorne's visit concludes the Distinguished Visiting Alumni program for the 1989-90 academic year. Mal Lavery, director of development and alumni relations, said, "We've been extremely pleased with this program, which has brought some truly outstanding alumni back to campus. It has been a campus-wide effort, involving the cooperative efforts of countless faculty, staff and students, and has been so successful we plan to continue it. We have plans already underway for several alumni to visit campus next year."

Library Staff Grant Proposals Get State, Local Agency Funds

Two members of the Feinberg Library staff have received grants totaling $1,500 each from state and local agencies.

Nancy Hoshlyk, coordinator of bibliographic control, wrote a grant proposal funded by the North Country Reference, Research and Resources Council. The grant will be used to subsidize the cost of cataloging 150 monograph titles that, until now, have not been entered in OCLC — the major database of library holdings nationwide. This project, therefore, will provide access to these sources not only on this campus but also to users at hundreds of OCLC-member libraries across the nation. The project leader will be Leah Monger, catalog librarian, who anticipates its completion by the fall semester.

Joe Swinyer, special collection librarian, will coordinate a project funded by the New York State Program for the Conservation and Preservation of Library Research Materials. The support will be used to conduct a general assessment of the state of Feinberg's special collections. The purpose of the assessment will be to "identify potential threats to the longevity of the collections, to identify the extent of preservation problems and areas of acute need, and to assist in the development of a long-range preservation plan."

2nd Call for Honorary Degree Candidates

A Committee on Honorary Degrees has issued a second call for nominees to be recommended to the SUNY Board of Trustees as candidates to receive honorary degrees.

Recommendations, with justification materials, should be submitted to the committee c/o the Office of the President, 2nd floor, Kehoe Building. Any member of the college community may suggest honorary degree candidates.

Luncheon to Recognize 40 Who have Given 1,050 Years to College

Forty members of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty and staff will be honored for extended service to the college during a luncheon hosted by President Charles O. Warren tomorrow (April 19).

"The 40 people we will recognize on Thursday," Warren commented, "have collectively give 1,050 years of service to this institution. Each has played a role in making SUNY Plattsburgh what it is today, and it is appropriate that the entire college community pause to say thank you to these valued faculty and staff colleagues."

Celebrating 35 years of service are Barbara Caska, secretarial stenographer in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs; Dr. Howard Miller, professor of English; and Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of the faculty of professional studies.

Completing 30 years of service are Donald Garrant, executive assistant to the president; Lendall Haskell, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services; Charlene Lombard, keyboard specialist in the Center for Lifelong Learning; and Dr. J. Stallard Waterhouse, professor of biological sciences.

Thirty-three persons will be recognized for 25 years of service. They are Dr. Adnan Abu-Ghazaleh, professor of history; Paul Arlt, mechanic; Dr. James Ashe, professor of education; Dr. Stuart Baum, professor of chemistry; Carolyn Bird, senior stenographer, Center for Lifelong Learning; Bonnie Burdo, senior stenographer, foreign languages and literature; Frank Crimi, maintenance supervisor; Sharon Derr, senior stenographer, Admissions; Nelson Dickerson, supervising janitor; Dr. Warren Dixon, professor of economics; Hyman Freeman, professor of speech and hearing; Paul Hackett, associate professor of education; James Holland, manager of the Computer Center; Dr. Ralph Hunkins, professor of education; Sherwood Keyser, director of publications; Kathleen Kiernan, assistant facilities program coordinator; Dr. Charles Kline, professor of theatre; Carol LaDieu, keyboard specialist, Feinberg Library; Elizabeth Lennon, senior stenographer, PEARS; June McElwain, data entry operator, Computer Center; Dr. James McGraw, associate professor of biological sciences; Dr. Richard Moore, professor of biophysics; Dr. Henry Morlock, professor of psychology and coordinator of assessment activities; Dr. John Myers, professor of history; Dr. Arthur Newgarden, associate professor of philosophy; Dr. James Olmsted, professor of geology; Dr. Philip Reines, associate professor of theatre and communications; Linda Stiles, library clerk III, Feinberg Library; Phoebe Sturm, assistant professor, PEARS, and assistant athletic director; Joan Sucharski, keyboard specialist, Office of College Relations; Joseph Swinyer, associate librarian, Feinberg Library; Noella Watts, keyboard specialist, chemistry department; and Rita Wilson, cashier, Bursar's Office.

Several Indoor Track Performers Qualify for Championship Meets

The men's and women's indoor track seasons began this past week with outstanding performances in several events.

Last Tuesday, at the University of Vermont Invitational, Plattsburgh's Heather Myrick qualified for the SUNYAC, ECAC, and NYSWCAA Championships in both the triple jump and long jump. Suzanne Kennedy also qualified for all three championships in the 3000-meters. Molly Denicore (400 meter), Mary Hurteau (800 meter), Renate Kaye (javelin), and Desiree Peart (discus) also qualified for the SUNYAC Championships in the non-scoring meet.

Over the weekend, the Cardinals travelled to the University of Rochester Invitational where they placed third in a four-team field. In her first 5000-meter run this season, Kennedy qualified for the SUNYAC Championships. Felix Moreno qualified for SUNYACs in the 400 intermediate hurdles. He led the Cardinals to a second place finish in the 4 X 400 relay by coming from 20 yards behind in the anchor leg with a time of 50.0 seconds. Matt Nephew turned in a personal best time of 1:59.0 in the 800-meters.

Showcase '90

Showcase '90 featured well over 100 presentations by faculty, staff and students, showcasing their scholarly and creative pursuits. Seen here is Hudson Scholar Ina Trowbridge explaining her work on identification of two species of mice by sampling saliva.

Foundation to Honor President's Club Members at Sunday Brunch

Nearly 50 individuals and businesses will be welcomed as newcomers to the Plattsburgh College Foundation's President's Club during a brunch and recognition program scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday (April 22) in the Angell College Center.

Membership in the Foundation's President's Club requires a minimum contribution annually of $500. First-time contributors at that level during 1989 swell the organization's ranks to 200.

"This past year was by far a record in terms of one-year growth in President's Club membership," declared Curtis E. Shipman, Foundation president. "We're delighted to salute the 49 as new members, but at the same time we want to acknowledge that virtually all have supported the Foundation in the past. Their participation at this level reflects a greater commitment to the Foundation and its purposes, and for that we are profoundly grateful."

President's Club members include alumni and other friends of the college, businesses and SUNY Plattsburgh faculty and staff. First-time members who attend Sunday's brunch program will be given President's Club plaques; those who have given in past years will receive 1989 date tabs for their plaques.

Don Garrant, executive director of the Foundation, will serve as master of ceremonies at the event. Shipman will welcome the President's Club membership and SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren will give remarks and present the plaques and tabs.

"This program presents the opportunity for campus and Foundation representatives to say thank-you to some of our leading benefactors," commented Warren. "These are people who set the standard for generosity in support of our college, its mission and its students. Their faith in our performance and our promise is sincerely appreciated."

The new members of the Foundation's President's Club in 1989 are:

Mr. & Mrs. J. Derek Allan, James C. Buck '73, Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Burdeau '85/'85, Champlain Telephone Company, Dr. Marilyn Chase, Dr. Jeanette C. Coleman, John K. Connors '75, Barbara A. Crosby '45, Dr. & Mrs. Xenophon P. Damianos '51/'50, Scott E. DeSano '83, Essex County-Champlain National Bank, Dawn M. Fratangelo '82, Dr. & Mrs. Lawrence Giandomenico, Alices Bolles Gildersleeve '34, Mr. & Mrs. Donald F. Green, Jr., Dr. & Mrs. Hans E. Hirsch, M. A. Jerry & Co., Inc., Margaret Quinn Kennedy '60, Drs. Charles & Ruth Kline, Rosmarie H. Krosch '61, Mr. & Mrs. Allen R. Krueger, Mr. & Mrs. Paul A. Krueger, L & M Discount Liquor & Wine, Mr. & Mrs. Patrick J. Lennahan '85, Dr. & Mrs. Houngh Z. Liu '70, and Mr. & Mrs. John F. Longware '56/'66.

Also, Mr. & Mrs. Peter P. Luguri '73/'77, Dr. &

Mrs. Orlando J. Martelo, Merkel's Department Store, Meyer Drugs, Mr. & Mrs. Daniel R. Milliman, David M. Nier '62, NYCO Division of Processed Minerals, Inc., Dr. & Mrs. James A. Phills, Plattsburgh Office Systems, Inc., Susan K. Rauscher '75, John J. Reidy, Mr. & Mrs. Michael Reidy, Mr. & Mrs. George P. Repas, Dr. Lawrence C. Shaffer '68, Glenn W. Smith, Dr. & Mrs. Merritt F. Spear, The Children of Dorothy Brooks Stafford, Mr. & Mrs. Rolando A. Thorne '72, Tracy Trombley Construction Co., Inc., Dr. H. Griffin Walling, Ruth Pease Walrath '42, Martha Zimmerman Wooley '23, and Mr. and Mrs. J. William Woythaler

Board Costs to Remain Stable; CAS Approves Book Rebate Plan

Good news for SUNY Plattsburgh's student consumers!

College Auxiliary Services will hold the line on board costs for academic 1990-91, and, effective this fall, students will receive a rebate on book purchases.

At its recent April meeting, the CAS Executive Committee approved a budget for fiscal '90-91 that will allow that enterprise to absorb what it projected to be a $40 increase in both the 14- and 19-meal plans available to students. At the same time, the committee okayed a proposal to institute a three percent rebate on textbooks purchased in the College Store.

Stan Supinski, executive director of CAS, explained that the meal plan savings for students resulted from sound fiscal planning and management. The rebate program stems from an anticipated increase in revenue from sales in the merchandise area of the College Store.

"We had the rebate in mind when we approached the CAS Board of Directors with our proposal to renovate the store," said Supinski. "We're certain that merchandise sales will increase as projected, and that will allow us to return an estimated $52,000 in rebates to students next year."

Besides the cost-savings and rebate measures, the CAS board voted also to allocate $125,000 in the coming academic year for "on-campus special programs." That total, Supinski said, includes an increase of about $30,000 in comparison with the amount budgeted for special programs during the current year.

Open House
Saturday, April 21

this week on campus

THURSDAY, APRIL 19 - THURSDAY, APRIL 26

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

12:15 pm — "Women and Change in East Germany" with Dr. Ingrun Lafleur. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Forum. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Alumnus Thomas Chen '70, "Genetic Engineering: New Frontiers in Food Production." CL 202.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" — A melodrama of the 1890's. (A Centennial Event) Sponsored by the Theatre Department and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $5, faculty/staff $4 on sale at the Hartman Box office beginning April 4. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20

Noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents "A Boy 10 Feet Tall." Donations appreciated for the CROP-WALK cause. Clothing and non-perishables accepted for the benefit of local needy. Newman Center.

8 pm — "The Henrietta." See 8 pm Thursday, April 19 for details.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21

10 am - 5 pm — Annual Spring Arts and Crafts Fair sponsored by Campus Life. Admission is $1. Field HouseU

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

7:30 pm — Spring Initiation Ceremony for New Members of Omicron Delta Kappa. Open to the campus. John XXIII Newman Center.

8 pm — "The Henrietta." See 8 p.m. Thursday, April 19 for details.

SUNDAY, APRIL 22

noon - 4 pm — Preview for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

2 - 4:30 pm — Reception for WCFE Arts Auction. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee features "Harlem Nights." Open to the campus.

Tickets: S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

7 - 9 pm — R.A.P. Training for "Assertiveness Training" workshop. Sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

7:30 pm — Environmental Action Committee film, "Silent Running." Donations will defray EAC's Earth Day activities costs. Clothing and non-perishables accepted for local needy. Newman Center.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, APRIL 23

8 pm — Reading of Fiction and Essays by Robert Canzeroni. Sponsored by the Visiting Poets and Writers Series. CVH Commons.

7:30 pm — Distinguished Visiting Alumnus Rolando Thorne '72, "Social Health Care: Issues for the 90's." Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

4:15 pm — Tuesday Reflections presents Dr. Eleanor Stoller, Department of Sociology, and Dr. Michael Stoller, Department of Economics, speaking on "Gender and Unpaid Work." Sponsored by the Faculty of Arts and Science. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6 - 8 pm — USAF Nurse Recruiting sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Open to the campus. Angell center Centennial Room.

8 pm — Symphonic Band and Chamber Ensembles in Concert. Sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium. Hawkins Hall.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25

5:30 pm — Self-Defense and Assertiveness Training with Tom Fobel, karate instructor and expert on self-defense techniques. Sponsored by the Union of Concerned Students. Angell Center Ballroom.

7 - 9 pm — Film Festival: Award Winning Canadian Cinema — "J.A. Martin: Photographe." Introduced by Ms. Patty Bentley, associate librarian. sponsored by the Canadian Film Distribution Center. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 PM — "The Henrietta." See 8 pm Thursday, April 19 for details.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26

4 - 6 pm — Senior Art Students Exhibit '90 sponsored by Art Museum. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

7 pm — "Is There Truth in Savings?" — A public lecture sponsored by the Center for Human Resources. Ward Hall 110.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

8 pm — "The Henrietta." See 8 pm Thursday, April 19 for details.

NOTES

Trainers Wanted: Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress-Management Program for the Fall 1990 semester. Selected students will receive academic credit for four hours per week. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, Room 101, College Health Center. Application deadline: April 25, 1990.

Books and magazines you know you'll never read or have already read, textbooks you can't resell, records and tapes replaced by compact discs — all the rejects from your spring cleaning are eagerly solicited by the Feinberg Library to stock its Ninth Fabulous Feinberg Book Sale to be held April 28 from noon to 5 pm in the corridor between the Claude Clark Learning Center and the Feinberg Special Collections. Students and faculty who will be leaving campus at the end of the semester are encouraged to donate to the library those books and magazines they no longer want or can't take with them. Proceeds from the annual sale are used to purchase new library materials. For more information, contact Leah Monger, Book Sale Coordinator, at 564-5199 or Jeanne Bennink at 564-5200.

The Plattsburgh Area League of Women Voters is sponsoring its 20th Anniversary Annual Meeting by hosting a dinner program on April 26, 1990. The event will be held at the Centennial Room, Angell Center at 6:00 pm and is open to the public. A complete Eastern European dinner will be served at a cost of $13.50 per person (including beverage, dessert and gratuities). Ann and Dennis Kimmage will be speaking about recent events in Eastern Europe and Russia in a presentation titled, "Search for Democratic Roots." A brief annual business meeting for the League of Women Voters will precede their presentation. For reservations, call 563-3903 by April 19th. Sandra Waite-Stupiansky, Public Relations Chair, 563-9900.

The Wizards of Chemistry II, a combination chemistry-magic show, will be performed by the SUNY Plattsburgh Chemistry Club on Friday, April 20 at 7:30 p.m. in Hudson Hall Room 106. The show offers entertainment for all ages and will last for about one hour. Admission is free and the show is open to the campus and community.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (3) (Marketing) Fall '90 & Vita Bank

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Summer Theatre Staff (14) (Pianists (4),

Percussionist, Costume Designer/Construction, Wardrobe Assts./Construction (2),

Tech. Assts. w/Produc/Stage Mgmt. (4), Choreographer/Dance Captain, and Vocal Director)

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90

History (2) — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Nursing — Fall '90

Professional Studies Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Instructional Support Asst. P/T (Biology)

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Staff Assistant (Field House)

Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors)

(Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

McCarthy '52 Selected to Receive Distinguished Alumnus Award

William J. McCarthy, a 1952 graduate of SUNY Plattsburgh, has been selected as the recipient of this year's Distinguished Alumnus Award, given by the college and the Alumni Association. The award recognizes outstanding alumni "... for their achievement, their humanitarian efforts and/or their contributions to the college." McCarthy will receive the award at the annual commencement exercises on May 12.

SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren commented, "Mr. McCarthy has a long and impressive history of service to his community and to this college. We are honored to have such a distinguished alumnus and are pleased to officially confer this honor upon him."

McCarthy, who holds a master's degree in school administration from Hofstra University, retired in 1987 after twenty years in administration in the Huntington, Long Island school district, one of the state's largest districts. He held the post of superintendent of schools from 1984-87, after having been deputy superintendent from 1967-1984.

Previously, McCarthy was an administrator in the Hicksville school district for 22 years. In 1968, that school was one of ten schools with innovative educational programs featured by CBS in a national one-hour prime time educational program.

McCarthy has been active with the Guide Dog Foundation for the Blind, Inc., in Smithtown, for several years and is currently chairman of the board. The Foundation is a private non-profit organization which exists for the primary purpose of blind rehabilitation through the use of guide dogs. It has an annual budget of $1.7 million and has provided more than 400 people from around the world with trained guide dogs.

Foundation Executive Director Wells B. Jones commented, "As chairman of our board, Bill McCarthy provided the leadership and perseverance to complete

(Continued on next page)

About 300 Youth to Take Part in Celebration of Teaching Program

An estimated 300 middle and high school students from 20 schools in Clinton and Essex counties are expected to participate in "Celebration of Teaching Day 1990" next Friday (May 4) at SUNY Plattsburgh's Center for Teacher Education.

The program, to be held primarily in the Center's gymnasium and cafeteria in Sibley Hall from 8:30 a.m. through mid-afternoon on Friday, will focus on the theme, "Teachers Make a Difference." It was planned by a team of SUNY Plattsburgh teacher education students and faculty, with funding from the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation of Morristown, N.J.

"Celebration of Teaching Day will culminate centennial year activities at the Center," said Dr. Michael Wolfe, its director. "The event is designed for high school students who have expressed an interest in teaching. It's an attempt to promote teaching and to attract bright and able youngsters to the profession." Wolfe said that many retired teachers from North Country schools and from the Center will take part in the program and share their experiences with tomorrow's teachers.

Sessions will involve master teachers from the participating schools. They will serve as group leaders for students interested in teaching at various levels and will work with assigned students on topics ranging from educational training and working conditions to remaining current in the teaching profession.

The morning agenda includes a brief talk by New York State Assemblyman Chris Ortloff of Plattsburgh and sessions entitled "Teaching: Good News, Bad News," "Kids on the Block" and "Ideal Teaching Machine." Later in the program, SUNY Plattsburgh teacher education students will host the high school youth in small groups in actual class meetings. The entire group will then view a multi-media presentation, followed by a "Rap Group" performance by college students and faculty and a celebration-closing activity entitled "Letter to My Favorite Teacher."

This spring's Celebration of Teaching Day is the second in as many years at SUNY Plattsburgh and one of 50 nationally to receive $1,000 in grant support from the Dodge Foundation.

Business Drive Begins May 1; Murnane, O'Connor Head It Again

The Plattsburgh College Foundation is finalizing plans to launch its 1990 business campaign. An organizational meeting for more than 70 campaign workers is scheduled for Tuesday, May 1 at 7:30 a.m. in the Angell Center Centennial Room.

Tuesday's session, explained Don Garrant, executive director of the Foundation, is designed to acquaint the volunteer workers with campaign goals and the need for support from the business community, and to allow them to select contacts from a master list of prospective donors. The 1990 campaign team will request contributions from up to 500 businesses in Clinton and Essex counties between May 1 and the drive's conclusion at the end of June.

Murnane

O'Connor

"The $100,000 goal for this year's campaign is one of the most ambitious ever," commented Garrant, "To meet it, we will have to rely on receiving increased gifts from the 224 businesses that contributed in 1989, and we must generate a record number of new gifts." The business campaign, he added, is a key component of the Foundation's overall annual giving program — ranking only behind the annual alumni fund in total support — and a major source of funds for the nearly $400,000 in private scholarship aid disbursed by the college each year.

Distinguished Alumnus

(Continued from page 1)

a building project that replaced our offices, kennels and dormitories, poising our organization for the next decade. SUNY Plattsburgh could not have made a better choice for this award."

McCarthy has also been an active volunteer with the Alumni Association for many years, particularly in the area of student recruitment. He has, for example, interviewed prospective students and helped organize receptions for accepted students in the Nassau County area.

Mal Lavery, director of development and alumni affairs, commented, "Bill McCarthy's outstanding leadership in one of the state's largest school districts earned him the respect and admiration of educators around the state. His current volunteer involvement with the Guide Dog Foundation is just one example of his selflessness and generosity of spirit. The Alumni Association is proud to join with the college to honor this man, who has given so much to his community and to his alma mater."

Co-chairpersons of the 1990 campaign are local businessmen Patrick Murnane and Michael O'Connor, who headed last year's successful drive. Murnane is president of Murnane Associates and O'Connor, a member of SUNY Plattsburgh's class of 1975, is an investment executive with Paine Webber. Both have served as captains of past business campaigns.

Murnane and O'Connor will each be responsible for six team captains, and the latter, in turn, will direct the efforts of teams of five or more solicitors who will contact prospective donors by letter and, if necessary, personally. The 1990 captains are Donna Avery, John Atwater, Mark Barie, Anne Brandell, Clifford Calongne, Don Kasprzak, Ann Martin, Deena McCollough, Darcy Mousseau, Barbara Murray, Peter Whitbeck, and John Vroman.

Canadian Parliamentary Video Package Finalist in Competition

The Center for the Study of Canada has received word that the Canadian Parliamentary Video package, which includes a book and photographs, produced in conjunction with the CBC and the New York State Education Department, is a finalist in the education category in the American Film and Video Association's 1990 competition. Winners will be announced June 9.

Dr. Richard Beach, director of the Center, said, "We understand that this alone is a great honor and will provide us with considerable publicity. In addition, the video package will be highlighted in catalogues and reports published by the AFVA."

Beach expressed appreciation to "those who believed in the project from its inception and helped in a variety of ways for several years to see that it reached fruition. These include Judith Duken, director of the North Country Teacher Resource Center; Margaret Lanoue, director of the Canadian Film Resource Center; Larry Arcarese, associate professor of communications; Dr. Martin Lubin, professor of political science, and a number of state educators."

Beach added, "Special credit is due George Sherman (a 1968 SUNY Plattsburgh graduate and teacher at Beekmantown Central School). Without his excellent script, CBC no doubt would not have even considered collaborating with us."

College Council Meets May 3

The next meeting of the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council will be held at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 3 in the Clinton Dining Hall Lounge. Reports will be received from the Council liaisons to the various areas of the college. The Council is also expected to act upon the recommendation on a campus parking fee.

Claude Clark Learning Center to be Formally Dedicated Friday

The learning center located on the ground-floor level of Feinberg Library will be dedicated to the memory of a former member of the College Council in a ceremony scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday (April 27) at the center.

The facility, inaugurated last fall after several years of planning, will be named for Claude J. Clark. The late Mr. Clark, an attorney from Malone, served the SUNY Plattsburgh College Council from 1964 to 1980. Establishment of the Claude J. Clark Learning Center was made possible by a substantial gift to the College Foundation by his widow, Mrs. Jeannette Clark of Malone.

Claude Clark was appointed to the College Council here by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. He served the college during part of the terms of former Presidents George W. Angell and Joseph C. Burke, an era when the college experienced its greatest physical expansion and program diversification. He was known as an active participant in policy formulation who was committed to a strong system of public higher education in New York State and who cared deeply about students.

The Center named for Clark serves students at all levels of learning. Central to its purpose is computer-assisted writing instruction and tutoring services. The latter will provide help to nearly 750 students in a wide variety of subject areas in the current year alone. The Clark Center also serves as a 20-hours-per-day study space for individuals and groups of students.

Friday's ceremony will consist of welcoming remarks by President Charles O. Warren followed by remembrances of Clark by Robert T. Booth, a Plattsburgh attorney and former vice chairperson of the College Council, by Owens D. Grogan, a Malone attorney and former law associate of Clark, and by Judith L. Duken '59 of Plattsburgh, a member of the SUNY Board of Trustees. Student Association President William Sherman will discuss the importance of the Clark Learning Center, and College Council Chairperson Robert M. Garrow will formally name the facility. Clark's daughter, Nancy Clark Hotchkiss, will unveil a memorial plaque and respond on behalf of the Clark family.

An informal reception in the Winkel Sculpture Court in the Myers Fine Arts Building will immediately follow the dedication program.

7th Annual Spring Academic Convocation Scheduled for Saturday

SUNY Plattsburgh's Seventh Annual Spring Academic Convocation will take place on Saturday (April 28) at 2:30 p.m. in the E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium in Hawkins Hall.

Awards based on academic achievement in their respective disciplines will be presented to more than one hundred students, and the recipient of this year's Phi Eta Sigma (Freshman Honor Society) Distinguished Faculty Award will be announced.

Dean's list honorees for the past two semesters and members of the college's many academic honorary societies will attend as special guests of the administration and faculty. The Convocation program will be highlighted by an address by Professional Studies Dean Nicholas F. Troisi, who will be retiring this summer after 35 years of service to the college.

A reception will immediately follow the program. It is open to the entire campus community.

Tenth Annual Recognition Program to Honor 100-plus Students

SUNY Plattsburgh's Tenth Annual Student Recognition Awards program will be held tomorrow (April 26) at 4 p.m. in the Angell College Center Ballroom.

The program, hosted by the SUNY Plattsburgh Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa (ODK), the national leadership honor society, will honor students who have contributed in myriad ways to the campus community and the community at-large during academic 1989-90 through volunteer and extracurricular activities. More than 100 students will be recognized individually and certificates will be presented to various campus organizations.

Special achievement awards will be given in eight categories, including several that are yet to be announced. The latter include ODK's outstanding sophomore of the year, the recipient of the Toni Bloom Memorial Scholarship, the Student Association (SA) Scholarship winners, the SA's outstanding service award recipient, the Burghy Games champion, and the most improved Greek chapter award.

Christopher Sperl, ODK president, will welcome the award recipients and their friends, guests and faculty mentors, and William Laundry, director of campus life, will preside at the recognition program. Greetings will be extended by William Sherman, SA president, Clyde Rabideau, Mayor of the City of Plattsburgh, and Dr. Eldridge W. Roark Jr., vice president for student affairs and national president of ODK. Remarks from college President Charles O. Warren will conclude the ceremony.

Alumni Board Fills Vacancy; Votes to Increase Representation

The Plattsburgh Alumni Association Board of Directors has filled a vacancy in its ranks and has opened the door for wider representation geographically.

At their annual spring meeting last weekend, the directors approved the appointment of Laura

Present for the Alumni Association directors' meeting last weekend were (seated, l-r) Dan Takacs, Rolando Thorne, Bernard Watkins, Annamarie Kelly and Gary Butler and (standing, l-r) Tom Cummings, Doug Brown, Doug McManus, Lou Testa, Mal Lavery, Dan Milliman, Bill Sherman, John Longware, Virginia Damianos, Don Garrant and Arnold Amell.

Sadowski '82 to the board. Sadowski, of Rochester, selected recently to speak to the Class of 1990 at spring commencement on May 12 as representative of the alumni constituency, will fill the unexpired term of F. Ward Patton '64, who has resigned.

The board also approved expanding its membership from 18 to 21. This move, explained Malcolm Lavery, director of development and alumni affairs, was taken to "better reflect the national scope" of the organization. It is expected that the new appointees will be residents of non-New York State communities that have large concentrations of SUNY Plattsburgh

ODK Admits Thirty-Eight

Thirty-eight new members were inducted into the campus chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society, during a ceremony on April 21 at the Newman Center. Membership is granted on the basis of academic achievement, service to the college and community, and leadership in campus activities.

This year's inductees are: Keith Baugh, Shannon Bayly, Erik Buckstad, Melissa Brock, Scott Burnam, Melissa Cooper, Sheri-Ann Cowie, Tana DuBray, Julie Ehlenfield, Vanessa Figueroa, Dale Fisher Jr., Susan Higgins, Dawn Irwin, Chris Kelley, Monica Kelly, Joan Kireger, Kenna LaPorte, Lori Leveillee, Annissa Link, Carol Lyons, Michelle McAnerney, Eileen McBath, Douglas McManus, Jacqueline Menzie, Mary Murphy, Charles Normile, Stephen Pope, Steven Ramer, Kristen Sauer, Colleen Smith, Jennifer Sturr, Caryl Tierney, Lynn Tubbs, Elizabeth VanSant, Andrew Wallace, Daniel Westfall, Sean Windsor, and Susan Zwick.

alumni, with the Boston and Washington, D.C. regions heading the list.

Additionally, the alumni board approved in concept the establishment of an "alumni legislative network." It would consist of between 50 and 100 Plattsburgh graduates who could be marshalled to take part in governmental relations activities during the course of any academic year. The network proposal was advanced by Don Garrant, executive assistant to the president, who will develop it in consultation with President Charles O. Warren for formal presentation at the association's annual meeting in the fall.

Garrant reported to the directors on the status of the Plattsburgh College Foundation's annual giving and planned giving programs, and on the Centennial Campaign. Lavery briefed the board on a plan to add "open ended" information to alumni files from survey forms returned in the recently completed alumni directory publication project. He said that several thousand alumni supplied useful data about their lives following graduation.

9th 'Fabulous Feinberg Book Sale' to Take Place Saturday

The SUNY Plattsburgh Feinberg Library will hold its Ninth Fabulous Feinberg Book Sale on Saturday (April 28) from noon to 5 p.m. The sale will take place in the corridor between the Claude Clark Learning Center and the Library's Special Collections.

Bargain hunters can expect to find an assortment of books, magazines and records at low prices. This year's bookstock features varied subjects including English literature and fiction, religion, history, science, business, sports, health and nutrition, and a sizable number of children's books. In addition, among this year's offerings are a large number of popular magazines including Adirondack, Adirondack Life, National Geographic, Smithsonian, and a variety of sports, photography, personal computing, and women's magazines. The sale also features a large selection of popular, jazz and classical music recordings. As in the past, there will be a special section of fine bindings and rare books on a variety of subjects including literature and local and U.S. history.

All sale items were received as gifts from various donors, and have been evaluated for possible addition to the Feinberg collections. Those that either duplicate the library's current holdings or are inappropriate to the scope of its collections are added to the stock for the annual sale. Proceeds will be used to purchase exceptional, new library materials that the Feinberg would be unable to afford otherwise.

For more information about the sale or donations to the library, contact Leah Monger, Book Sale Coordinator, at 564-5199 or Jeanne Bennink at 564-5200.

Reception Scheduled for Monday to Honor Fourteen Retirees

Fourteen members of the faculty and staff who either have retired from college service during the past year or plan to retire in the very near future will be honored at a reception at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, April 30 in the Cardinal Lounge. The entire college community is invited to attend.

Those who have announced upcoming retirement, and their years of service to the college are: Dr. Rudolph Bobka, professor of chemistry, 24 years; Dr. Robert Miller, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, 21 years; Dr. John Middleton, professor in the Center for Human Resources, 23 years; Dr. Vladimir Munk, professor of biological science, 21 years; Geraldine Pageau Suhocki, secretary to the dean of professional studies, 33 years; Dr. Richard Sudds, professor of biological science, 32 years; Jaimie Trautman, assistant vice president for student affairs, 24 years; and Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies, 35 years.

Honorees who have retired within the last year include Gerald Dominy, maintenance supervisor IV, 46 years; Robert Gregware, general mechanic, 16 years; Gertrude Lamar, offset printing machine operator, 25 years; Dr. Joan Lynch, associate professor of nursing, 13 years; Dr. Ben Morreale, professor of history, 26 years; and Harriet Reardon, secretary in Campus Life, 26 years.

DISTINGUISHED VISITING ALUMNI PROGRAM CONTINUES

Dr. Thomas Chen (r.), who earned his master's degree in biological sciences from SUNY Plattsburgh in 1970, spent two days on campus last week as a Distinguished Visiting Alumnus. Chen, who is a professor at the Center of Marine Biotechnology in Baltimore, MD, is seen here with Dr. Ralph Clark, professor of biological science, and student Kim Chesborough.

Forty people were honored last week at a luncheon hosted by President Charles Warren for having reached milestones of 25, 30, and 35 years of service to the college. Those in attendance included: 1. Dr. James Olmsted. 2. Dr. Howard Miller. 3. Charlene Lombard. 4. Rita Wilson. 5. Carolyn Bird. 6. Carol LaDieu. 7. Dr. Ralph Hunkins. 8. Phoebe Sturm. 9. Linda Stiles. 10. Kitty Kiernan. 12. Elizabeth "Betty" Lennon. 13. Paul Arlt. 14. Bonnie Burdo. 15. Barbara Caska. 16. Sharon Derr. 17. Don Garrant. 18. June McElwain. 19. Joan Sucharski. 20. Dr. John Myers. 21. Dr. Henry Morlock. 22. Dr. Adnan Abu-Ghazaleh. 23. Hyman Freeman. 24. Paul Hackett. 25. Dr. Richard Moore. 26. Joseph Swinyer. 27. Dr. Philip Reines. 28. Dr. Nicholas Troisi. 29. Sherwood Keyser. 30. Dr. James McGraw. 31. Dr. Stuart Baum. 32. Noella Watts.

SPOTLIGHT

Mary Dossin, writing skills specialist with the Special Services Project, has had an article on "Expectations of the Writing Center" published in the April issue of The Writing Lab Newsletter, a publication of the National Writing Centers Association. . . Work by Diane Fine, assistant professor of art, recently received a purchase award in the juried exhibition, 14th Annual Harper College National Printing and Drawing Exhibition being shown in Palatine, Macomb and Chicago, Illinois. . . Dr. Padi Gulati, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, will spend the summer at the National Center for Policy and Practice in the Washington area. The Center, which is affiliated with the National Association of Social Workers, focuses on social policy issues that are relevant to the concerns of social workers. Dr. Gulati will be working on several special projects with the Center staff. . . A paper titled "Machine Layout: An Optimization and Knowledge-Based Approach," co-authored by Dr. Sunderesh Heragu of the Department of Management and Marketing, appeared in a recent issue of International Journal of Production Research (Vol. 28, No. 4). . . Dr. Sylvie Debevec Henning, associate professor of French and chairperson of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, presented a paper on assessing library interpretation skills at the recent annual meeting of the Northeast Modern Language Association, held in Toronto. . . Keith Jacobi, lecturer in anthropology, presented a paper entitled "Sociocultural Change, Diet and Dental Occlusion: A View from the Brazilian Amazon" during a symposium on "Recent Trends of Bioanthropological Research Among Lowland South American Indian Populations" at the recent annual meeting of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists. The symposium papers will be published in Human Biology. Jacobi's co-authored book, Searching for a Slave Cemetery in Barbados, West Indies: A Bioarchaeological and Ethnohistorical Investigation, has been published by Southern Illinois University Press. His article, "San Antonio: Analysis of Exposed Architecture at an Estuquina Phase Site, Moquegua, Peru," has been published in a BAR Monograph Series volume entitled Ecology, Settlement, and History in the Osmore Drainage, Peru. Jacobi is completing a 30-year index for the Journal of Anthropological Linguistics. . . The recent "one-week make-over" of the SUNY Plattsburgh College Store is described in the March 30 issue of the National Association of College Stores' "Weekly Bulletin." In the article, store manager George Layman attributes the seven-day transformation to "very hard work on the part of the bookstore's personnel," adding, "As a result. . . we now not only have the materials students need in the way of books and other supplies, but also an inviting place for students to shop". . . Dr. Naomi McCormick, professor of psychology, is the author of "From Patient to Activist," an article published in Vol. 5 (#1) of ICA Update. Her submission, "Underdiagnosed Bladder Disease Makes Sex Painful for Women," appeared in the March 1990 issue of Contemporary Sexuality, Vol. 22 (#3). . . Dr. Mary L. Roark, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, and counseling graduate students Steven Frederick and Ralph Perratto, presented a program on "Too Much of a Good Thing: Counterproductive Challenges and Supports" during the recent convention of the American College Personnel Association, held in St. Louis. During the meetings, Dr. Roark also presented a program on "Ethical Consideration of Campus Violence Interventions: Going Beyond Prevention". . . Dr. Pirouz Shoar-Ghaffari, assistant professor of communication, attended the annual conference of the Center for Iranian Research and Analysis in Berkeley, CA, recently where he presented a paper titled "U.S. Press and National Interest: The Case of Iran." He also served as chair and discussant on a panel entitled "Ideological Discourses and the Iranian Revolution". . . Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, will be the keynote speaker to open the New York State Association of School Business Officials Business Management Workshop at the Concord Hotel on May 7. Wolfe will discuss "What's Right With Public Education."

Cards Lose to Middlebury But Post Several Individual Marks

The Plattsburgh State men's and women's outdoor track and field teams lost a dual meet to Middlebury College last weekend, but posted some outstanding individual results, including three home track records.

For the women, who fell 77-66, Heather Myrick was a triple winner. She set records in the long jump (16'11") and triple jump (35'2¼"), and also placed first in the 100 meter run qualifying for the SUNYAC, NYSWCAA and ECAC Championships with a time of 13.2. She also ran the anchor leg of the winning 4 X 100 meter relay squad. Suzanne Kennedy also was a triple winner for the Cards. She qualified for the SUNYAC, NYSWCAA and ECAC Championships by winning the 800 meter and 1500 meter events. She, too, was a member of the winning 4 X 400 meter relay team.

On the men's side, Matt Nephew won both the 800 meter and 1500 meter events, qualifying for the SUNYAC Championships in the latter, as the men dropped the overall competition 95-49. Vinnie Nittoli set a track record in the triple jump.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, APRIL 26 - THURSDAY, MAY 3

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26

10 am - 2 pm — Angell College Center Tabling — videos, brochures sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Lobby.

4 pm — Tenth Annual Student Recognition Awards Program. Hosted by Omicron Delta Kappa. Angell College Center Ballroom.

4 - 6 pm — Senior Art Students Exhibit '90 sponsored by Art Museum. Myers Fine Arts Gallery.

7 pm — "Is There Truth in Savings?" — A public lecture sponsored by the Center for Human Resources. Ward Hall 110.

7 pm — Open Forum on Community Resources with guest speakers, Tim Palmer and Deborah Drake. Sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Conference Room.

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" — A melodrama of the 1890's (A Centennial Event). Sponsored by the Theatre Department and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Tickets: S.A. members $1, public $5, faculty/staff $4 on sale at the Hartman Box Office. Hartman Theatre, Myers Fine Arts.

FRIDAY, APRIL 27

10 am - 2 pm — Angell College Center Tabling — videos, brochures sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Lobby.

10 am - 3 pm — NYS Police will be on campus to talk with students interested in a career as a Trooper. Sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

4 pm — Dedication of the Learning Center in Feinberg Library in honor of the late Claude J. Clark, member of the College Council from 1964-80. Clark Learning Center.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents two silent classics — Sergei Eisenstein's "Potemkin" and F.W. Murnau's "Nosferatu." Donations accepted for the benefit of a worthy cause. Clothing and non-perishables accepted for local needy. Newman Center.

8 pm — Jazz Ensemble Concert with Marshall Onofrio, Director. Sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" (see 8 pm Thursday, April 26, for details).

SATURDAY, APRIL 28

9 am - 6 pm — Montreal Bus sponsored by Campus Life. Round trip tickets are $9 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Leaves from the Rugar St. "pull-off."

noon - 5 pm — Ninth Annual Fabulous Feinberg Book Sale. Located in the corridor between the Claude Clark Learning Center and the Library's Special Collections.

2:30 pm — Academic Convocation. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium.

8 pm — "The Henrietta" (see 8 pm Thursday, April 26, for details).

SUNDAY, APRIL 29

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "DAD." Open to the campus only. S.A. members 50c, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

MONDAY, APRIL 30

noon - 5 pm — Handicapped Awareness Day — Organizations serving handicapped children and adults will be presenting information. Those attending will be able to participate in simulations. Sponsored by the Council for Exceptional Children. Angell Center Ballroom.

3:30 pm — Retirement Reception. Co-sponsored by CSEA and UUP. Cardinal Lounge.

TUESDAY, MAY 1

11:30 am — UUP Executive Board meeting. Open to members only. Angell Center Conference Room.

4 pm — Center for Women's Concerns meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

5 - 9 pm — NYS Police will be on campus to talk with students interested in a career as a Trooper. Sponsored by Career Life Planning Center. Angell Center Lobby.

8 pm — College Chorale and Cardinal Singers with Robert Hall, Director. Sponsored by the Music Council and the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

THURSDAY, MAY 3

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

NOTES

Extended library hours begin Friday, April 27th. From the 27th through Thursday, May 10th, the library will be open every night until 11:30 pm. Opening hours remain the same: Monday - Friday, 8 am, Saturday - Sunday, 9 am.

Phi Eta Sigma Inducts 36

Thirty-six students were inducted into the campus chapter of Phi Eta Sigma last Saturday. Membership in Phi Eta Sigma is granted to students who earn a 3.5 or higher grade point average (out of a possible 4.0) during at least one semester of their freshman year.

New members of Phi Eta Sigma are:

Michael Allen, Jennifer Andrusia, David Ashline, Richard Batchelder, Carrie Blakesley, Patricia Breen, Julia Bovee, Brigit Burt, Cherie Chovan, Benjamin Dillon, Scott Dupuis, Michael Gill, Jeffrey Gonyo, Kimberly Haacke, Delbert Hart, Amanada Jankowski, Chang Jao, and Jill Jones.

Also, Lisa Kaminski, Billynda Kirschhoffer, Machi Kudo, Robert Lucchesi, Quinn McDonald, Cynthia Menz, Julie-Anne Oram, Melisia Perez, Christine Quinn, Kimberly Reed, David Roe, Kelly Rose, Kimberly Ross, Christine Ruggiero, Robert Schofield, Ruth Thomas, Jeffrey Wolf, and Natalie Wood.

Senior Exhibition Opens Today

The Senior Exhibition opens today (April 25) with a reception at 4 p.m. in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery and Lobby Gallery in honor of the participants.

Museum Director Edward Brohel said the show features paintings and sculpture by ten graduating visual arts majors. The students, he said, have been sponsored by various faculty members and have produced the show themselves through the museum's exhibition course.

Seniors whose work is included in the exhibit, which will run through May 12, are Nancy Hanson, Alan Krathaus, Loreen LaBarre, Kerry Meehan, Angie Nephew, Edward Nolan, Gordon Riggs, Gerald Stoner, Heather Strzelczyk, and Raymond Zwack III.

Troisi to be Feted

A retirement dinner for Dr. Nicholas Troisi will be held on Wednesday, May 16 at Algonquin Dining Hall. Social hour will be held from 6 - 7 p.m., with dinner at 7 p.m. Tickets, at $15 each, are available until May 9, in the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs (564-2020).

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor
Biology (2) — Fall '90
Business & Economics (3) (Marketing) Fall '90 & Vita Bank
Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90
Summer Theatre Staff (5) (Wardrobe Assts./Construction (2), Tech. Assts. w/Produc/Stage Mgmt. (3), Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90
Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90
Computer Science (2) — Fall '90
EOP Summer Program (6), Language Arts Inst. (2), Math Inst. (2) and Communication Inst. (2)
Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90
History (2) — Fall '90
Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)
Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90
Nursing — Fall '90
Professional Studies Vita Bank — P/T Faculty
Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90
Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)
Staff Assistant (Field House)
Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors) (Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Research Foundation

Director (Special Services Project)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, APRIL 21 - THURSDAY, APRIL 28

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, APRIL 21

12:15 pm — Women's Studies Forum presents Grace Paley. Sponsored by the Women's Studies Program and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

2 - 10 pm — Cultural Week sponsored by the Latin American Organization. Angell Center Ballroom A.

4:30 pm — American Marketing Association general meeting. Angell Center Ballroom B.

5 pm — The "Business" of Show Business and Acting in New York City. L.J. Schwartz, visiting professor of theatre. Sponsored by the Theatre Department. Green Room, Myers Fine Arts Building.

5 - 7 pm — Resident Assistant Training sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

7 pm — Film — "Atomic Cafe" sponsored by the History Department. Yokum 202.

7 pm — Environmental Action Committee Movie Night. Yokum 200.

7:30 pm — Circle K weekly meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 4.

7:30 pm — Adirondack Experience Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — College Mainstage Production: "Waltz of the Toreadors." S.A. members $1, public $4, faculty/staff $3. Tickets on sale at Myers Box Office: April 12 - 15 from 1 - 4 pm, April 20 - 23 from 1 - 4 and 7 - 8 pm, April 25 - 26 from 1 - 4 pm, April 27 - 30 from 1 - 4 pm and 7 - 8 pm. Myers Fine Arts Hartman Theatre.

8 pm — The FBI: Role, Duties and Misconceptions. Sponsored by Sociology/Criminal Justice Club. Angell Center Ballroom B.

8:30 pm — Center for Women's Concerns weekly meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 7.

FRIDAY, APRIL 22

11:45 am - 1 pm — A Buffet Luncheon for National Secretaries Day and in honor of all office and academic support staff. Sponsored by Women's Studies, the President's Office and College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

12:30 - 2 pm — Res Nostra Luncheon Discussion. Open to members only. Angell Conference Room.

7 pm — Plattsburgh Sigma Xi Club Mini Symposium Dinner. Angell Center Orchard Room.

8 pm — College Mainstage Production: "Waltz of the Toreadors." See 8 pm Thursday, April 21 for details.

9 pm — Friday Film Series presents "The Cool World" sponsored by Campus Life. Yokum 202.

SATURDAY, APRIL 23

9 am - 3 pm — SUNY Plattsburgh Annual Spring Open House. Angell College Center.

10 am - 5 pm — Annual Spring Arts and Crafts Fair sponsored by Campus Life. Admission for all is 50¢ at the door (under 12 free). Field House.

1 pm — Spring Music Festival to benefit the International Peace Walk, Inc. Contributions accepted. Sponsored by the Union of Concerned Students. Tickets are $1 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Courtyard.

3:30 pm — Phi Eta Sigma Inductions. Angell Center Orchard Room.

8 pm — College Mainstage Production: "Waltz of the Toreadors." See 8 pm Thursday, April 21 for details.

SUNDAY, APRIL 24

3 pm — An Afternoon of Original Student Works sponsored by the College Music Council. Place to be announced.

5 - 7 pm — Resident Assistant Training sponsored by Campus Life. Open to members only. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

6:45 & 9:15 pm — Student Association Film Committee presents "The Witches of Eastwick." Open to the campus. S.A. members 50¢, faculty/staff $1. Tickets on sale at the Angell Center Desk. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.

MONDAY, APRIL 25

5 pm — Guest Speaker from Quebec sponsored by Club Canada. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 - 10 pm — BACCHUS weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 3.

TUESDAY, APRIL 26

11:30 pm — U.U.P. Executive Board meeting. All members welcome. Angell Center Conference Room.

12:15 - 1:15 pm — Adult Student Group weekly meeting. Open to the campus. Adult Student Lounge, Angell Center second floor.

12:15 pm — Multi-Cultural Forum sponsored by Campus Life. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

4:15 pm — Faculty Senate Meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Ballroom.

7:30 pm — Select Topics: Human Resources sponsored by the Academic Affairs Board. Open to the campus. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.

8 pm — Faculty Recital: Marshall Onofrio sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. E. Glenn Giltz Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.
9 pm — Canadian Film Series presents "Mon Oncle Antoine" sponsored by the Center for the Study of Canada and Campus Life. Yokum 208.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27

8 pm — The College Sinfonia sponsored by the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. Open to the campus and public no charge. Small Auditorium, Hawkins Hall.
8 pm — College Mainstage Production: "Waltz of the Toreadors." See 8 pm Thursday, April 21 for details.

NOTES

Nutrition News and Views Aerobic Program — Sponsored by the Marriott Corporation and Campus Life. Monday-Thursday: 5:30 and 7:30 p.m., Friday and Sunday: 3:30 p.m. and Saturday at 1:00 p.m. Open to the campus no charge. Angell Center Blue Room.

Room Selection for Fall 1988 begins on Monday, April 25th at the Campus Life Office.

Feinberg Seeks Contributions to Book Sale — Books and magazines you know you'll never read or have already read, textbooks you can't re-sell, records and tapes replaced by compact discs — all the rejects from your spring cleaning — are eagerly solicited by the Feinberg Library to stock its Seventh Fabulous Feinberg Book Sale to be held April 30 from noon to 5 pm in the corridor between Late Night Study and the Feinberg Special Collections. Students and faculty who will be leaving campus at the end of the semester are encouraged to donate to the library those books and magazines they no longer want or can't take with them. Proceeds from the annual sale are used to purchase new library materials. For more information contact Leah Monger, Gifts and Development Librarian at 564-5199.

Bus to Montreal sponsored by the Campus Life Office on Saturday, April 30, 1988. Bus departs from Angell Center at 9 am and returns at 6 pm. Destination — Dominion Square. Open to campus and community. Tickets: $9.00 round trip and on sale at the Angell Center Desk beginning Monday, April 25. Call 564-3824 for more information.

Psychological Services Center is recruiting undergraduates from any discipline to become trainers in the Stress Management Program for the 1988 fall semester. Trainers will learn techniques of deep muscle relaxation and the use of biofeedback so that they can then work with other students seeking help in stress management. Selected students will receive academic credit for 4 hours per week, supervised by Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly. Applications are available at Psychological Services Center, College Health Center.

THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS is compiled by the Office of Campus Life and published by the Office of College Relations and Development. Items to be listed in THIS WEEK ON CAMPUS must be received in the Office of Campus Life no later than noon on Thursday the week prior to publication.

THURSDAY, APRIL 28

4 pm — Eighth Annual Student Recognition Awards Program sponsored by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. Angell Center Ballroom.
4 pm — Annual general meeting of the Faculty Association. Open to the campus. Angell Center Conference Room.
7 pm — Environmental Action Committee Movie Night. Yokum 200.
7:30 pm — Circle K presents Dr. Jacquelyn Connelly speaking on "How to Successfully Handle Stress During the End of the Semester Crunch." Reception to follow. Funded by the College Auxiliary Services. Angell Center Cardinal Lounge.
8 pm — College Mainstage Production: "Waltz of the Toreadors." See 8 pm Thursday, April 21 for details.
8:30 pm — Center for Women's Concerns weekly meeting. Angell Center Meeting Room 7.

GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

to May 15

Clyde McPartland: Paintings — High School Faculty Extension, Kent Gallery

April 22 - May 18

Senior Show, Myers Fine Arts Gallery
Undergraduate Show, Myers Lobby

CURRENT JOB LISTINGS

Faculty

Management (2) — Fall '88
Marketing — Fall '88
Food Science — Fall '88
Hotel Management (2) — Fall '88
Computer Science — Fall '88
Arts & Science (Vita Bank)
Psychology — Fall '88
Psychology P/T — Fall '88
Communication — Fall '88
Teacher Education (2)
Geography — P/T Fall '88
Physical Education (2) — Fall '88
Business & Economics (Vita Bank)
Foreign Languages & Literature — Fall '88 (Spanish)

Counselor (Upward Bound)

Summer Faculty (Upward Bound)

Student Activities Associate (2) 8/88 & 9/1/88

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action.

S.U.N.Y./Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

Weekly

Special Collections
Feinberg Lib., PSUC
Does Not Circulate

Published by College Relations and Development for the Plattsburgh College Community

May 2, 1990

SUNY Trustees Promote Gandhi to Distinguished Service Professor

Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of economics and a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh campus community for the past 24 years, has been named State University of New York Distinguished Service Professor.

The title, a rank above full professor, was conferred officially on Friday by vote of the SUNY Board of Trustees. University Distinguished Service Professors are those who have demonstrated "outstanding service to SUNY, to the broader community, to the state or even to the nation."

Candidates must be full professors and must have 10 years of full-time service in SUNY to be eligible for the promotion. Their credentials are reviewed, and recommendations are made, by a University-wide committee.

Gandhi was among six in the University's 64-campus system selected for the honor this year. He is Plattsburgh's first Distinguished Service Professor and one of 65 elevated to that rank by the Trustees since the program was established 17 years ago.

"We are delighted for Prem Gandhi," commented SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren. "He is, in my view, the complete professional academic and complete colleague — a sensitive, inspirational and highly effective teacher. His reputation as an economist is strong and broad, especially in the area of Canada/U.S. affairs. In service, he is without peer. Professor Gandhi's contributions far exceed normal or even high expectations. He personifies all that is best and all that is intended in the professional concept of service."

The five-page campus nomination of Gandhi em-
(Continued on page 2)

Three Faculty, One Staff Member to Receive Chancellor's Awards

Three members of the teaching faculty and the person responsible for the college's financial aid program have been selected to receive 1990 SUNY Chancellor's Awards for Excellence in their professions.

Sokolowski, director of financial aid at the college, will receive the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Professional Service.

The recipients will be recognized during spring

Butterfield

DeVita

Nardelli

Sokolowski

The Office of State University Chancellor D. Bruce Johnstone announced early this week that Excellence in Teaching awards will be conferred on Dr. Bruce Butterfield, associate professor of English, Dr. Philip R. DeVita, professor of anthropology, and Anna Nardelli, associate professor of education. Suzanne commencement exercises on Saturday, May 12. The award program was established in 1972 to honor faculty and staff for outstanding service to the University. Those honored receive a commemorative medallion to be worn at formal academic ceremonies.

(Continued on page 3)

Three Selected By SA for 'Outstanding Service to Student Body'

Three students were honored by the Student Association last week for their outstanding service to the student body. The Outstanding Service Awards were presented to John Allers, Peter Higgins, and Michael Santora.

Allers, a senior mass communications major from Germantown, NY, was recognized for his sustained and dedicated work with WPLT, the student radio station. During his freshman year, Allers became a disk jockey at the station. He later served in the production department and the music department. Elected program director in his junior year, Allers is currently serving as station manager. Allers was cited as instrumental in improving the news department, increasing the station's revenues, expanding coverage of college sporting events, and improving relations with the SA and other student media.

Higgins, a senior international business major from Poughkeepsie, was commended for his work with two major SA Boards. Higgins has worked with both the Finance Board and the Activities Coordination Board since his freshman year, serving as an account executive and vice chair of the Finance Board and as treasurer of ACB. This year, he is assistant vice president for activities.

(l. to r.) John Allers, Peter Higgins and Michael Santora display their SA Outstanding Service Award certificates.

Santora, a senior economics major from Saratoga Springs, also became involved with the SA during his freshman year, winning a seat on the Senate during his first semester on campus. He later served as vice president for activities and was elected president of the Student Association for 1989. As president, Santora represented the student body as a member of the College Council and the boards of directors of College Auxiliary Services, the Alumni Association and the Plattsburgh College Foundation. Santora was instrumental in the creation of the SA memorial scholarship and the student assistance committee.

Gandhi 1st Distinguished Service Professor (Continued from page 1)

phasized his teaching, his contributions to curriculum and academic program development on both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and his research, particularly its applications to solving New York State's economic problems. His contributions in service focused on his role as chairperson of the "critically important" Faculty Senate Planning and Resources Committee, as chairperson for several years of the former Department of Business and Economics, his association with the college's Technical Assistance Center, his appointment as a Faculty Fellow at the Rockefeller Institute, and his "outstanding achievement" in fostering economic development between Canada and the United States.

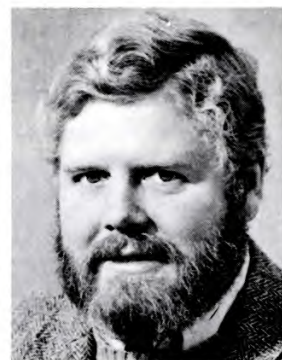

"Professor Gandhi," the nomination concludes, "stands out as a shining example of what is best in the State University of New York."

Gandhi joined SUNY Plattsburgh in 1966 as an assistant professor of economics. He was promoted to associate professor six years later and to professor in 1978. Besides teaching, he has served on myriad SUNY and college administrative and non-administrative committees, commissions and councils; he has directed several conferences and seminars in Canada and the U.S.; he has published numerous monographs and articles in his field and has held grants, fellowships and awards from a variety of foundations and government agencies; and he has given many presentations at seminars, symposiums and workshops.

A native of India, Gandhi received the Ph.D. in economics from the New School for Social Research.

Walling Takes Post in Tampa

Dr. H. Griffin Walling, director of the Center for Lifelong Learning, has accepted a new position as dean of the College of Continuing Studies at the University of Tampa in Florida.

In the post, a newly created position, Walling will be responsible for designing a series of undergraduate and graduate degree programs for adults, including an on-campus evening/weekend college and satellite programs throughout west central Florida. The University of Tampa is an independent municipal college with approximately 4,500 students enrolled in bachelor's and master's degree programs.

Walling joined the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty in 1979 as director of continuing education.

Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, said, "Dr. Walling's tenure has been a period of growth for the center as it evolved from the Center for Continuing Education into the Center for Lifelong Learning. We wish him well in his new endeavor."

COTE Cites Wolfe; 'Outstanding Teacher Educator' in New York

Dr. Michael P. Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services, has been named a recipient of the Outstanding Teacher Educator Award presented annually by the Confederated Organizations for Teacher Education of New York State.

The award, presented last Thursday at the annual meeting of COTE in Syracuse, "focuses on excellence and promotes awareness of excellence by favorably highlighting and giving recognition to deserving persons in both the public school sector and the college sector of the profession." Eligibility is extended to any teacher educator in the state who works with students in education programs, courses or clinical experiences at levels from nursery school through graduate school.

A committee composed of four members of COTE selected Wolfe for the award. He received a "certificate of excellence" from that organization and his name will be placed on a permanent scroll identifying outstanding teacher-educators in the state.

Four Receive Chancellor's Awards (Continued from page 1)

Butterfield came to SUNY Plattsburgh in 1970 as an assistant professor and was promoted to his current rank in 1980. He had taught previously at the University of Illinois. His areas of expertise include early twentieth century fiction, Canadian literature and fine arts, and advanced expository writing. He is known as a demanding teacher, but also as a teacher whose courses are high in demand. He has developed or revised courses in diverse areas, notably in Canadian fiction and literature. Butterfield is the editor of Faculty Forum, a publication of writing by the campus community, and he has served as chairperson of the Plattsburgh College Foundation's Faculty and Staff Campaign. He holds the Ph.D. in English from the University of Illinois.

DeVita has been a member of the Plattsburgh faculty since 1972. He was promoted from assistant to associate professor in 1977 and to full professor in 1989. Prior to Plattsburgh, he had taught in the University of California system at the campuses at Davis and Irvine. He has taught a wide variety of anthropology courses during his tenure here, including 13 he developed personally; he has held several grants for travel, research and for the improvement of instruction; and he has served as coordinator, advisor, chairperson, director or counselor-instructor to more than 40 SUNY Plattsburgh programs, committees, club and fraternities. DeVita is the author of many scholarly articles, and his book, The Humbled Anthropologist: Fieldwork Reflections from the World, was published earlier in the current academic year. Students regard him as a first-rate teacher who sets high expectations and then motivates them to achieve them. He received the Ph.D. in 1973 from California at Davis.

Nardelli, who received the M.S. in education from SUNY Albany in 1963, has been a member of the Plattsburgh education faculty since 1966. She has completed post-graduate work at five SUNY units and at the University of Rochester, and she holds permanent certification as elementary principal and elementary supervisor. She, too, is or has been a member of myriad campus committees, and she holds membership in a dozen learned and professional societies. In 1980 she was among six faculty inducted as charter members of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honorary society. Nardelli has been active in curriculum development at SUNY Plattsburgh, and her course innovations focus on topics ranging from "culturally variant" and "early childhood education" to "cognitive thinking and readiness for reading." The narrative supporting her for the Chancellor's Award cited several factors, including her ability to "inspire her students to be not just competent but excellent teachers," her "high academic standards and involvement in curriculum reform" and "the genuine gratitude and respect her students show for her."

Sokolowski's service in SUNY began in 1968 at the University Center at Buffalo, where she was a financial aid advisor. She joined Plattsburgh in 1977 as administrative assistant to the director of the educational opportunity program, and assumed her current post the following year. She is responsible for administering the college's comprehensive program of state, federal and private financial aid. She has introduced several program innovations, including a job location and development project, expansion of outreach activities to include high school workshops, summer orientation sessions for parents and peer counseling, a loan entrance and exit interview program to reduce loan default, and development of the process whereby more than $400,000 in College Foundation funds for scholarships and grants is awarded annually. Sokolowski's campus involvement includes service on a variety of boards and committees including the Intercollegiate Athletic Board, the Minority Concerns Committee and the Enrollment Strategies Committee. She was recommended for the Chancellor's Award as "an extraordinarily dedicated professional" who "performs her responsibilities superbly and constantly seeks to do more" and who exhibits "particular empathy for students in distress and the disadvantaged." She received the M.Ed. in English education from SUNY Buffalo.

Four Faculty and Staff Receive UUP Excellence Awards

Four members of the faculty and staff have received Excellence Awards, sponsored by New York State and UUP. Dr. James Ashe, Cheryl Hogle, Dr. Eleanor Stoller, and Dr. Taher Zandi have been cited for "sustained, outstanding professional performance and

Ashe

Hogle

Stoller

Zandi

superior service to the State University and to the State of New York." Each recipient will receive a $3,000 cash award.

The NYS/UUP Excellence Awards were established in the most recent contact between the two. Nominations were solicited by a campus committee and the committee's recommendation were reviewed by a state-wide committee. Members of the campus committee were Patricia Bentley, Dr. Ann Hasting, Dr. Thomas Moran, Patricia Perillo, Janet Saunders and Dr. Douglas Skopp.

Ashe, a professor in the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services and coordinator of the Center's graduate programs in administration and supervision, has been a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty since 1964. He has recently completed a survey of New York State high school principals and assistant principals concerning their university administration preparation. That research has been accepted for presentation at two national and one regional associations. He has served on numerous college committees and is a former Faculty Senator. Ashe has been active in UUP for several years, serving on the executive committee, as vice president for academics, and as a member of the UUP Task Force on University-Wide Development. He is president-elect of the campus UUP chapter. He earned his doctorate from the University of Wyoming.

Hogle, a 1968 graduate of SUNY Plattsburgh, is associate director of campus life and supervises a residence hall staff of 12 residence directors and 92 resident assistants. She coordinates the Freshman Experience Program and the Summer Orientation Programs for both parents and students. Hogle is presently serving as president of the College Auxiliary Services Board. She is a co-founder, charter member and faculty secretary of the campus circle of Omicron Delta Kappa and was recently re-elected Faculty Director for ODK's Province I, which includes 24 circles in five states and the District of Columbia. Hogle is advisor to the SA Senate, chairs the CAS Program Grant committee, is a former chair of the President's Advisory Committee on Personal Safety, and has served on numerous college committees. She received the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Professional service in 1987. She earned a master's degree in counseling from SUNY Plattsburgh in 1972.

Stoller, professor of sociology, joined the Plattsburgh faculty in 1973. She is a founding member of the Women's Studies Program and is currently serving as its coordinator. She is also a founding member of the campus Gerontology Institute. Her research on health issues and the aging rural population has won her more than a million dollars in research funds. She has published numerous articles on that research in the top journals in her field. Stoller is a member of the President's Commission on the Status of Women, the Affirmative Action Committee and the Redcay Committee. She formerly chaired the sociology department. Stoller holds the Ph.D. from Washington University at St. Louis.

Zandi, associate professor of psychology, has been a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty for the past eight years and is currently serving as academic coordinator of the college's gerontology program. Zandi is also director of the Northeastern New York Alzheimer's Disease Assistance Center, founded at Plattsburgh in 1988 and funded through grants. The Center provides service to victims and caregivers within a five-county area. He is co-editor of a book currently in press, entitled New Directions: Understanding Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease. Last year, Zandi planned and produced a major conference on Alzheimer's Disorder, which brought together researchers, practitioners and caregivers in this area for the first time. He chaired the General Education Committee for two years and has been active with other Faculty Senate committees. Zandi earned his Ph.D. from the University of Oklahoma.

College Becomes 1st to Charter Chapter of the Order of Omega

SUNY Plattsburgh has become the first SUNY unit to charter a chapter of the Order of Omega, a national honorary organization for fraternities and sororities.

The Order of Omega recognizes and encourages exemplary character and academic achievement on the part of undergraduate members of Greek organizations. Founded in 1959 at the University of Miami, the honorary society now has chapters on more than 200 campuses.

Fifteen students were inducted as charter members of the Order of Omega in a ceremony on Monday. They are: Erik Buckstad, Michele Cavotta, Marcia Dewitt, Aimee Gomlak, Lori Fromm, Gary Hammond, Deirdre Markle, Robyn Mendels, Judith Myers, Jennifer Pelzar, Ralph Perrotto, Dave Serio, Catherine Shannon, Scott Stepien, and Sean Windsor.

Graham Returns from 'Airglow' Research Project in Antarctica

Dr. Douglas Graham, professor of physics, recently spent several days in Antarctica, setting up part of a research project he is working on with Dr. Jai Kim of SUNY Albany. Graham and Kim are studying airglow, which is light which originates in the upper atmosphere and is associated with solar activity.

"Basically," Graham said, "we hope to learn more about the connections between solar activity and conditions in the upper atmosphere." He explained that the two scientists set up a computerized data acquisition system at King Sejong Station on King George Island in Antarctica and will set up the same kind of equipment on the roof of Hudson Hall here on campus. The equipment will focus on a thin band approximately 100 miles above the earth and will collect data on light intensities. Graham said that the two sites are located at virtually the same geo-magnetic latitude in the northern and southern hemisphere, so if both sets pick up the same data, it will indicate a correlation in the physical processes.

Dr. Douglas Graham with equipment which will be installed on the roof of Hudson Hall to study airglow.

The project is funded by the Korean Science Foundation.

Four-Student Computing Team Takes 1st in Programming Games

A team of four computer students scored a major victory at the SUNY Albany Programming Games, placing first in a field of 19 teams. Plattsburgh's team was comprised of Rob Neely, Carl Savoia, Rob Vaughn, and Steven Webb.

Judging was based on the number of problems completed correctly and the time taken to solve them. While Plattsburgh's team was comprised of undergraduates, graduate students and faculty members were allowed to participate.

Among the teams in the competition were Colgate, Union, LeMoyne, Siena, St. Michael's and SUNY units at Albany, Cortland and Oswego, and Stony Brook.

Brothers of TKE Donate Time to Collect for Animal Shelter

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity has been commended for its "gift of time and energy" in conducting a fund-raising project to benefit the local League for Control and Protection of Animals, Inc.

Jane Claffey, chairperson of fund-raising for the League, wrote to the fraternity recently to thank its members "for taking on the monumental task of a door-to-door campaign to collect monies for a planned animal shelter." Claffey noted that the brothers of Tau Kappa Epsilon were successful in collecting about $1,200 in donations. She sent a copy of the letter to President Charles O. Warren with an added comment that "TKE proved to be a pleasant group of fellows with which to work."

Kudos to. . .

Students Jeffrey Creem (l.) and J. Robert Neely (c.), and their faculty sponsor Dr. L. Anne Cole, assistant professor of computer science. They were chosen as one of approximately 15 teams who will participate in the Supercomputing Program for Undergraduate Research at Cornell's National Supercomputer Facility in June. The program, now in its third year, provides talented undergraduates with an opportunity to develop supercomputing skills while pursuing their own research using advanced computational tools. Their faculty advisors are also given training and support. They will continue to work on their research project, entitled "A New Approach to the Local Generation and Recognition of Global Pattern," throughout the 1990-91 academic year, and, during that year, will have access to Cornell's supercomputer.

Seniors Haggerty, Gomlak Named Booster Club Athletes of the Year

Seniors Sean Haggerty and Aimee Gomlak, captains respectively of the men's hockey and women's basketball teams at SUNY Plattsburgh, have been named the college's Athletes of the Year for 1990.

The choice of Haggerty, a sociology major from Reading, MA, and Gomlak, an international business major from Orchard Park, was announced last night at a Cardinal Booster Club-sponsored picnic for all Plattsburgh State athletes held at the Valcour Conference Center. It was made by a committee of Booster Club directors and members of the college's Department of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreational Sports (PEARS) that reviewed nominations from coaching staff.

Haggerty

Gomlak

Haggerty, voted by his teammates as the "most dedicated player" for the 1989-90 Cardinal hockey season, finished third on the scoring chart for the runners-up for the NCAA national title with 20 goals and 23 assists. Hobbled with a knee injury late in the campaign, he was considered lost for the playoffs when he suffered a broken wrist in the NCAA semi-finals series at Babson College. But he returned to action in less than a week, turning in a superb performance in a losing cause in the two-game/mini-game championships round at Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

Haggerty, a member of the Cardinal team since his freshman year, will take a 2.5 grade-point average into final exams later this week. Head hockey coach Bob Emery cited his captain's leadership abilities, saying he used authority delegated to him at full potential. Emery commended him also for managing to finish degree requirements in four years while competing in a major sport.

Before being injured, Gomlak started 18 games as a senior, scoring 6.2 points and pulling down 6.8 rebounds per game. She was a regular for the women Cardinals as a freshman and sophomore, but gave up her third season to study in Spain.

Gomlak is carrying a 3.39 grade-point average. During her college career, she has been a Redcay Honors Scholar, a member of Phi Eta Sigma (freshman academic honorary society), a member of Omicron Delta Kappa (national leadership honorary society), vice president of the campus Greek Council, a member of the Honors Council, and a honorable mention member of the PEARS all-academic team.

"Aimee is one of the best captains I have ever worked with," commented her coach, Phoebe Sturm. "She had a very trying (senior) year, working effectively with an awfully young, inexperienced group of players. But she earned and kept their respect and helped to mold them into a well-disciplined unit."

Haggerty and Gomlak were presented with certificates attesting to their achievements and with gifts of engraved clocks, courtesy of the Cardinal Booster Club.

Final Alumni Visitor for '90

The Centennial Year Distinguished Visiting Alumni program came to an end with the visit last week of Rolando Thorne '72, shown here in a seminar with students in human resources. Thorne, who is president of the Plattsburgh Alumni Association, is special assistant to the director of the Georgia Department of Human Resources, Division of Public Health, in Atlanta. He was the last of six distinguished alumni to participate in the program during academic 1989-90. It was well-received campus-wide, and a committee of faculty and staff will look into possibilities for continuing it in future years.

Safety Day Promotes Seat Belts

"Safety Day," a program designed to increase awareness of the importance of using seat belts, will be held on May 4.

Cardinal red ribbons will be available in the Angell Center lobby and students, faculty and staff are invited to tie them to their car antennas, after signing a commitment sheet stating the ribbons are a reminder to buckle up. Flyers will also be placed on cars parked in campus lots.

Safety Day is co-sponsored by the Office of Campus Life, the Department of Public Safety, Occupant-Restraint--Clinton County, Stop DWI, Delta Phi Epsilon sorority and Psi Epsilon Chi fraternity.

Hofer Wins Teaching Award

Dr. Robert Hofer, associate professor of mathematics, is the 1990 winner of the Distinguished Faculty Award presented by members of Phi Eta Sigma, the national freshman honor society. The Sharon Baker, president of Phi Eta Sigma, congratulates Dr. Robert Hofer on winning the Distinguished Faculty Award presented by the freshman honor society this past weekend.

Comm. Arts Major Karen Yoos Named '90-91 Bloom Scholar

Karen Yoos, a junior communication arts major from Setauket, NY, has been selected to receive the Toni C. Bloom Scholarship for 1990-91. Yoos is a resident assistant (with a freshman cluster), a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, an EOP tutor, a clarinetist in the Symphonic Band, a tour guide and a peer recruiter. She is currently an intern in the Admissions Office and was in charge of campus tours for the Spring Open House. A member of the Forensic Team, she was ranked third in New York State this year in Prose Interpretation.

The Bloom Scholarship is awarded in memory of Toni Bloom, a senior English major and very active student, who was killed in a traffic accident in 1987. Applicants are evaluated on the basis of their involvement in the campus and community.

Kent State Remembered

The 20th annual ceremony to commemorate the shootings which took place at Kent State university and Jackson State University will be held at 1:15 p.m. on Thursday, May 9 at the memorial plaque in front of the Kehoe Administration Building. The brief ceremony is open to the campus and community.

award is presented annually to the faculty member who, in the past year "has contributed the most to the academic success of freshmen, who was the most effective teacher of freshmen and who showed the greatest concern for the academic welfare of freshmen." The award was presented at last Saturday's Academic Convocation.

Hofer has been a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty since 1970. He has taught all levels of math courses and presently teaches an Honors Calculus course. A past chair of the math department, Hofer has recently made several presentations on the teaching of math.

Explaining his philosophy of teaching, Hofer said, "I try to turn my classroom over to the students. I don't go in thinking about what I'm going to do, but rather what I'm going to have them do. I'm there to answer their questions, to concentrate on where they are having problems in learning."

Holfester Top Soph of '89-90

Christopher Holfester, a communication arts major from Smithtown, NY, was named the Sophomore of the Year by members of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society. The annual award is given to the outstanding sophomore leader.

ODK Province I Faculty Director Cheryl Hogle and Christopher Sperl, president of the SUNY Plattsburgh circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, congratulate Christopher Holfester on his selection as ODK Sophomore of the Year.

Holfester is currently vice president of the campus forensics union. He has earned eight trophies in forensic competition, winning this year's New York State forensic title in Persuasive Speaking and placing second in the After-Dinner Speaking category.

Holfester is also vice president of his residence hall council, a newscaster at WPLT, a member of both the Campus Judicial Board and the Student Services Board and athletic director and song-leader of Sigma Pi fraternity.

Retirees Honored

Nine of 14 members of the faculty and staff who have retired from the college during the past year or who plan to retire in the near future attended a reception in their honor held Monday in the Angell Center Cardinal Lounge. They were (front row, l-r) Dr. Robert Miller, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Robert Gregware, general mechanic; Dr. Vladimir Munk, professor of biology; and Dr. John Middleton, professor in the Center for Human Services; and (back row, l-r) Gerald Dominy, maintenance supervisor IV, Gertrude Lamar, offset printing machine operator; Dr. Richard Sudds, professor of biology; Geraldine Pageau Suhocki, secretary to the dean of professional studies; and Dr. Nicholas Troisi, professor and Dean of the Faculty of Professional Studies.

'Bucks for Books'

Dan Milliman (l), associate director of development and alumni affairs, discusses strategy with one of several student phonathon workers who spent four nights during the past week soliciting support for the 1990 Senior Class Gift Fund. Through three nights of calling, seniors had pledged more than $3,900 to a fund that will be used to purchase books for Feinberg Library. Assisting Milliman is student phonathon coordinator Doug Sloan '91.

Halder Dies in Washington

Dr. Ras Halder, former professor of sociology at SUNY Plattsburgh, died April 19, 1990 at Howard University Hospital in Washington, D.C. He was 85. Dr. Halder joined the sociology faculty at SUNY Plattsburgh in 1962 as an associate professor and retired in 1975.

Prior to coming to Plattsburgh, Dr. Halder was first secretary for educational and cultural affairs at the Indian Embassy in Washington, D.C. and a prominent instructor of the blind. He also served as a broadcaster at Voice of America and was professor of Indian Affairs at MacMurray College in Illinois.

He is survived by his wife, Sulekha Halder of Silver Spring, MD, a daughter, a son, five grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Services were held in Silver Spring, MD, on April 24. His family has requested that expressions of sympathy be made in the form of a contribution to the Halder Memorial Fund, Howard University Hospital, 2041 Georgia Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20060.

this week on campus

THURSDAY, MAY 3 - THURSDAY, MAY 12

Unless otherwise noted, all events are free and open to the campus and public.

THURSDAY, MAY 3

7 pm — Club International meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 8.

FRIDAY, MAY 4

10 am - 2 pm — "Buckle Down for Finals/Buckle Up for Safety." Stop by the Angell Center Lobby to pick up your safety reminder ribbon. Place this Cardinal red ribbon on your car antenna to remind you to buckle up for safety. Also look for flyers on your car parked in college lots. Sponsored by Campus Life and Public Safety.

7:30 pm — Newman Association Spring '90 Film Festival presents, "Dr. Coppelius." Open to the campus and public. Donations accepted for a worthy cause. Non-perishables and clothing accepted for local needy. Newman Center.

SATURDAY, MAY 5

8 pm — Fashion Show and Farewell Party sponsored by Finesse. Open to the campus and public. Tickets: S.A. members $3, faculty/staff/public $4 and on sale at the Angell Center Desk. Angell Center Ballroom.

SUNDAY, MAY 6

8 pm — Management Club meeting. Open to the campus. Angell Center Meeting Room 2.

FRIDAY, MAY 11

2 - 6 pm — Senior Clambake. Angell Center courtyard. Tickets required.

SATURDAY, MAY 12

11 am — Annual Spring Commencement exercise. Field House.

NOTES

Library hours through Thursday, May 10th, will be every night until 11:30 pm. Opening hours remain the same: Monday - Friday, 8 am; Saturday - Sunday, 9 am.

Museum Docents sponsor trip May 18. Art bus trip to Saratoga Racing Museum and the Hyde Museum in Glens Falls. $25 covers transportation and museum tours. Call Phyllis Freedman 2813 for reservations and information.

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor

Biology (2) — Fall '90

Business & Economics (3) (Marketing) Fall '90 & Vita Bank

Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90

Summer Theatre Staff (3) (Wardrobe

Assts./Construction (1),

Tech. Assts. w/Produc/Stage Mgmt. (2),

Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90

Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90

Computer Science (2) — Fall '90

EOP Summer Program (6), Language Arts Inst. (2),

Math Inst. (2) and Communication Inst. (2)

Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90

History — Fall '90

Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP

(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)

Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90

Nursing — Fall '90

Professional Studies Vita Bank — P/T Faculty

Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90

Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)

Staff Assistant (Field House)

Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors) (Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

SPOTLIGHT

"Getting the Most From Co-op Advertising," is the title of an article by Dr. Nancy Church, assistant professor in the Department of Management and Marketing, which appears in the April issue of Jobber Topics magazine. . . Mary Dossin and Marcia Gottschall of the Special Services Project, and students Ron Flax, Darren Friedman, Christine Kelly, Ralph Risch and Howard Soloman, gave a presentation on "Students Empowering Learning Disabled Students" at the recent symposium of the New York College Learning Skills Association, held in Ellenville. . . Dr. J. Justin Gustainis, associate professor of communication, presented two papers recently at the convention of the Eastern Communication Association: "Kennedy's Dream: The New Frontier as a Rhetorical Proposition" and "Fiction as Rhetoric: The Ugly American and the New Frontier." The latter was selected as one of the "Top Three Papers in Political Communication". . . Dr. Sunderesh Heragu, assistant professor in the Department of Management and Marketing, is the co-author of two chapters published recently in a book titled Artificial Intelligence: Manufacturing Theory and Practice. The chapters are titled "Expert Systems and Optimization in Automated Manufacturing Systems" and "KBML: An Expert System for Machine Layout". . . Dr. Richard Lamb, associate professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, served as a key resource person and speaker on land development issues at the "Clinton 2000 Leadership Conference" recently held at Clinton Community College. . . Dr. Robert W. Quesal, assistant professor of hearing and speech science, presented a half-day short course entitled "Assessment of Stuttering: Considerations and Techniques" at the recent 30th Annual Convention of the New York State Speech-Language-Hearing Association. . . Dr. Thomas Rumney, associate professor of geography, presented a paper entitled, "Canadian Industrial Expansion into Northern New York" at the annual meetings of the Association of American Geographers held recently in Toronto. He also was a panelist for a session entitled, "Regions Across the Global Village: Problems of Methodology" and discussed the problems of research dealing with Canada.

Clark Center Dedicated

President Charles O. Warren presided at last Friday's dedication of the Claude J. Clark Learning Center, which honors the memory of a Malone attorney who served the College Council from 1964-80. The Center was established with the aid of a substantial gift from Mrs. Jeannette Clark, widow of the late Mr. Clark.

With President Warren at the site of the facility's memorial plaque are (l-r) Robert Empsall, Mrs. Clark's brother, Charles Hotchkiss, Nancy Clark Hotchkiss, who unveiled the plaque and responded on behalf of the Clark family, and Owens D. Grogan, an attorney from Malone who was a colleague with Mr. Clark.

1,000 to Receive Degrees at Saturday's Centennial Commencement

An estimated 1,000 men and women will receive bachelor's, or master's degrees or certificates of advanced study during SUNY Plattsburgh's 100th commencement exercises at the college Field House on Saturday (May 12). The graduation ceremony begins at 11 a.m.

Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren will preside at commencement. The processional and music selections will be played by the College Brass Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Marshall Onofrio, assistant professor in the Center for Art, Music and Theatre. The Rev. Gerald Cerank, pastor of St. Peter's Church in Plattsburgh and a 1965 graduate of the college, will deliver the invocation.

Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, will present the candidates for degrees, and President Warren will confer the degrees. Diplomas will be awarded by Robert M. Garrow '52, chairperson of the College Council, and Wayne H. Byrne, vice chairperson of the Council. The Rev. Dr. Evelyn P. Meridith, interim pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Plattsburgh, will give the benediction.

Highlights of the ceremony include the presentation of awards and special Centennial Year brief commencement addresses from representatives of three major college constituencies. The Distinguished Alumnus Award, presented by the college and the Board of Directors of the Plattsburgh Alumni Association "to honor graduates . . . for their achievement, their humanitarian efforts and/or their contributions" to their alma mater, will be presented to William J. McCarthy '52. The recipient, retired Superintendent of Schools in the Huntington, L.I.

(Continued on next page)

Freedmans Create Major Endowment Fund with College Foundation

Dr. and Mrs. Henry K. Freedman have established a major endowment fund with the Plattsburgh College Foundation in memory of Phyllis Freedman's parents, Harry and Rose Roth, and grandparents, Hyman and Minnie Roth. The Roth Memorial Endowment Fund for Judaic Studies, will fund courses in Judaic Studies at SUNY Plattsburgh.

Phyllis Freedman, who is assistant to the director of the Campus Art Museum and docent coordinator at the Kent Gallery, explained the reason behind the gift. "My parents and grandparents," she said, "are part of a long tradition of giving, 'tzedukah,' sharing one's good fortune. My grandparents came to America with nothing. At times they were homeless, but they always saw to it that their children went to school. Their values — family, education and tzedukah — were strong. Typifying the American Dream, they made it, and rich or poor, they shared what they had. Eventually they established a Hebrew Free Loan Society and a convalescent home in Florida, which literally gave scholarships to those who needed to recuperate and vacation in Florida."

She continued, "My parents followed the tradition of tzedukah. They also made sure I received a Jewish education, not easily available for a girl in the 1940's. Henry and I have been fortunate to be able to give our four sons an education, both secular and Jewish. Now we would like to share our joy of Judaism with the students of SUNY Plattsburgh, as well as our congregation. We recalled the few courses that the college had offered some years ago. They were very dowment Fund for Judaic Studies, will fund courses in Judaic Studies at SUNY Plattsburgh.

(Continued on next page)

President Charles O. Warren (R) expressed his appreciation for the Roth Memorial Endowment Fund to Henry and Phyllis Freedman.

According to the agreement between the Freedmans and the Foundation, income from the Roth Endowment will be used to employ the Rabbi serving at Temple Beth Israel to teach a credit-bearing course in Judaic Studies each semester. If it is not

—Congratulations & Best Wishes, Centennial Class of '90!—

College a $54.6 Million Bonanza to the Economy of Clinton County

SUNY Plattsburgh injected $54,658,121 into the Clinton County economy in 1989, according to the most recent Economic Impact Survey conducted by the Technical Assistance Center and released today at a breakfast meeting of the Plattsburgh and Clinton County Chamber of Commerce. When a multiplier effect (a system for measuring the recycling of dollars) is taken into consideration, the college's total direct and indirect economic impact reached $114,782,054.

Announcing the study results, President Charles O. Warren looked back at the college's early history for a moment, saying, "In 1889, the New York State Legislature appropriated $60,000 to build Normal Hall. The top faculty salary was $1,500 and most of the 12 faculty members earned between $500 and $700 a year. Tuition was free and room and board averaged $3.50 per week. Clearly, some things have changed."

"Today's college," he continued, "plays a major role in the economy and culture of this region. We take pride in having been a good neighbor for the past 100 years. We are grateful for the strong community support we continue to receive and we look forward to a continuing and mutually beneficial relationship as we enter the first decade of our next 100 years."

SUNY Plattsburgh is one of the five largest employers in Clinton County with 949 total employees (including the Research Foundation staff, College Auxiliary Services and Marriott employees) and a 1989 payroll of $29,017,693. The study showed that, in 1989, SUNY employees and students accounted for $1 of every $12 in retail sales, $1 of every $21 spent for food in supermarkets and stores, $1 of every $20 spent in restaurants, and $1 of every $19 spent for purchases and maintenance of new or used cars.

Employees spending averaged $16,544 locally while student spending averaged $2,848. Those figures are based on expendable income only.

The college's direct local expenditures totalled $4,084,617 and included $547,946 for electricity, $807,794 for fuel oil, $108,281 for water and sewage, $468,376 for telephone charges, $1,123,910 for supplies and equipment, $12,000 for trash removal and $1,016,310 for contractual services.

Stoller Gets 2nd Year Funding for Health and Aging Project

Dr. Eleanor Stoller, professor of sociology, has received word that the second year-funding for her health and aging project has been approved by the National Institute on Aging in the amount of $221,181. Stoller said that in the upcoming year, the research team will complete the interviewing and begin data analysis. In addition to the original research questions, the team will be exploring the role of women as unpaid providers of health care.

Working with Stoller on the project are: Lorna Earl Forster, research associate; Tami Duniho, field coordinator; Dr. Rachel Pollow, associate professor of nursing; Dr. William Tisdale, professor of medicine and director of the Geriatrics Unit at UVM; and Susan Portugal, statistical consultant.

Centennial Commencement (Continued from page 1)

School District, currently serves as chairman of the board of the Guide Dog Foundation for the Blind, Inc., in Smithtown. The award will be presented by Rolando Thorne '72, president of the Plattsburgh Alumni Association.

Five members of the campus community will be cited for outstanding service or for excellence in teaching or in performance of their professional duties. Dr. Prem Gandhi, professor of economics, will receive an award symbolic of his promotion by the SUNY Board of Trustees to the rank of State University of New York Distinguished Service Professor. The SUNY Chancellor's Award of Excellence in Teaching will be presented to Dr. Bruce Butterfield, associate professor of English, Dr. Philip DeVita, professor of anthropology, and Anna Nardelli, associate professor of education, and the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Professional Service will be conferred on Suzanne Sokolowski, director of financial aid.

A reception for the graduates, their parents, relatives and friends, and for college faculty and staff will be held immediately following the commencement program on the lawn facing the Field House, or, in the event of rain, in the Ronald B. Stafford ice arena.

Freedman Endowment (Continued from page 1)

popular and we would like to encourage their renewal. Further, we hope that the pride both the Roth and Freedman families have in their heritage, can be continued in other families for generations."

President Charles O. Warren, who was delighted to receive the endowment on behalf of the college, commented, "We are sincerely grateful to the Freedmans for this most generous gift. It will allow the college to enrich its curriculum in a very important area. It will provide our students an opportunity to learn a great deal about a very rich heritage. The tradition of 'tzedukah' is one that translates well into any culture and is surely one that we would wish to inspire in all of our students."

The Freedmans live in Plattsburgh. Dr. Henry Freedman is a well-known urologist in the area.

118 Will Graduate With Honors; Six Summa Cum Laude

More than 10 percent of SUNY Plattsburgh's Centennial Year graduating class will receive their degrees with honors during Saturday's 100th commencement ceremony at the college Field House.

One-hundred and eighteen on the commencement eligibility list will be acknowledged as Summa Cum Laude (with highest honors — 3.9 to 4.0 grade point average), Magna Cum Laude (with high honors — 3.7 to 3.89 grade point average) or Cum Laude (with honors — 3.4 to 3.69 grade point average) graduates as they cross the stage to receive their diplomas. The college's 1990 honors graduates are:

Summa Cum Laude — Tanya Cohen, anthropology, Moriah; Melissa M. Frenyea, secondary education, mathematics, Morrisonville; Russell K. Johnson, secondary education, earth science, Plattsburgh; Beverly A. Latremore, medical technology, Plattsburgh; Carole A. Medema, speech and hearing handicapped education, Long Lake; and Patricia Phillips, nursing (registered nurse option), Stratford, CT.

Magna Cum Laude — Howard Alan Anderson Jr., Elizabeth F. Benson, Sonya Ann Bianchi, Anastasia Boba, Jamie Ann Bushey, Catherine A. Chase, Glenn Scott Cutter, Melanie Ann DeLuke, Sharon L. Derr, Julie Lynne Dobert, Angela Geroux, Melissa Lorraine Hoosier, Tammy L. Jarvis, Julie Elizabeth Kunderling, Joanne W. Loftus, Kathleen Patricia Marasa, Donna Lynn McMann, Kelly Nora McNamara, Nabila Michael, Holly A. Morrow, Susan Poland Ouellette, Cynthia D. Purdy, Linda M. Reh, Michael Robbins, Ellen Marie Rudd, Michele Marie Tompkins, Ina E. Trowbridge, Linda I. Unrue, Robert Vaughn, and Valerie Wolson.

Cum Laude — Claire Anne Arnold, Emily Beth Baglione, Keith Baugh, Pamela Jane Boulerville, James A. Bousquet, Corrine L. Briggs, Grazia Bueti, Kristie Burr, Carol Cervelloni-Vossler, Kirk William Christensen, Stacey Lynn Clark, Jan D. Couture, Michelle Angela Davis, Deborah Lyn Dayton, Christina Robin Dubuque, Georgette Theresa Du Mont, Barbara J. Feeney, Debbie M. Finnegan, Theresa Marie Fucito, Michael C. Graham, Tracy Jean Griffing, Carol Ann Harrington, James Alan Hart, Alice Louise Pape Heuser, Margaret Hodgson, Edwina Gatley Hopp, and Robert G. Hugus.

Also, Kristen M. Islas, Anne Jelley, Lisa K. Johnson, Leslie Ann Jones, Brian Kavanagh, Alan James Krathaus, Laura M. Kuhl, Louise M.G. Laplante, Tahnya Nicole La Veck, William P. Layer, Michelle Ann Layo, Jennifer LeBlanc, Joy Marie Licata, Robert Loeser, Diana Lyng-Gliddi, Jennifer E. Malcolm, Maureen K. Mallon, Suzanne A. Marotta, Michelle D. McAnerney, Eileen Marie McBath, Cynthia Horton McKane, George William Mickel Jr., James K. Miller, Michelle M. Minahan, Margaret M. Moran, and Joanne Patricia Murphy.

Also, Kimberly A. Noeker, Kathryn K. Normile,

Joseph Andre Paquet, Sharlene F. Petro, Francis Joseph Poore, Colleen Anne Pope, Fred Gerard Putorti, Steven A. Ramer, Dawn E. Reed, Donna Lynn Rehm, Lance J. Rider, Lisa Jane Riley, Krista Lynn Roll, Monica Lynne Rowell, Jennifer M. Ryan, Patrick Emmett Ryan, Mark Anthony Sardo, Dawn M. Shea, Donna Marie Sherlock, Denise Ann Simard, Annette M. Smith, Lori Elizabeth Staples, Christine N. Taffuri, Marc William Turenne, Lori Kristine Van Allen, Robanne Daniels Vasquez, Steven Wiesen, Richard Wisneski, and Kenneth W. Witzell Jr.

Miller to Head Faculty Senate

Dr. Edward Miller, assistant professor of chemistry, has been elected chairperson of the Faculty Senate for the 1990-91 academic year. Elections were held during the annual organizational meeting of the 1990-91 Senate held on May 1. Re-elected vice chair was Dr. Thomas Wolocz, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science. Dr. Thomas Konda, assistant professor of political science, was elected the Senate's secretary. Dr. Marilyn Chase, director of the Center for Human Resources, and Dr. Craig Sample, associate professor of foreign language and literature, were elected members-at-large on the executive committee.

Six members of the Senate were elected to chair the various standing committees: They are: Resources and Planning — Michael Miranda, associate librarian; Academic Policies — Dr. John Madison, associate professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Curricula and Programs — Dr. Kathleen Whittier, assistant professor in the Center for Teacher Education; Faculty Affairs — Dr. George Flynn, associate professor of physics; College Services — Alice Champagne, associate professor of nursing; and General Education — Dr. William Culver — professor of political science.

Following elections, the 1989-90 Faculty Senate was called to order for its last formal meeting. The Senate approved a revision to the Master of Science in Teaching program, which will give students in the program the option of a comprehensive examination instead of a thesis. Also approved were minors in Athletic Training and Athletic Coaching. Finally, the Senate approved a new policy for In Progress (IP) grades for graduate students. Under the new policy, an IP grade, which may be assigned for incomplete thesis work, thesis seminars, field work and other long-range projects, will become an E after two years, unless the student re-enrolls in the course. These resolutions will now go to President Charles Warren for his approval.

College to Host Second Annual Transfer Network Summer Institute

SUNY Plattsburgh will host the second annual Transfer Network Summer Institute from May 30 to June 1. It will bring together more than 40 selected faculty, staff and students from the college and from each of the 10 SUNY and CUNY two-year colleges participating in the federally funded Transfer Project.

The Institute will take place in the Angell College Center and at Clinton Community College and is sponsored by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education's Fund for the Improvement of Post-Secondary Education (FIPSE). Its participants will include representatives from Plattsburgh and from the 10 other Transfer Network institutions: SUNY agricultural and technical colleges at Adirondack, Canton and Cobleskill and from Clinton, Hudson Valley, LaGuardia, Monroe, Nassau, North Country and Onondaga Community Colleges. Representatives of other SUNY four-year schools will also be participating. Dr. Judith Eaton, Director of the National Center for Academic Achievement and Transfer, will be joining these representatives and will speak at the Institute on May 31.

Institute seminars, workshops and presentations will focus on a variety of topics related to student transfer, and participants will be encouraged to design and implement projects that will enhance the academic environment, student and faculty interaction, and the cultural climate at institutions that send or receive transfer students. Topics will include teaching and learning strategies, student culture, faculty culture at both two-year and four-year institutions, advising/orientation, national perspectives on transfer issues, collection and sharing of data, learning skills, and curriculum development. The three curricular areas of focus for this year's Institute are Criminal Justice, Human Services and Writing. There will also be a focus on Transfer Counselors, Plattsburgh participants from these areas include: Jane Gore, Geoffrey Guest, Padmini Gulati and Kenneth Hoeltzel (Human Services); Paul Clare, Tony Poveda, Ed Schaffer, and Robert Weiss (Criminal Justice); Bruce Butterfield, Mary Dossin, and Pat Hoffman (Writing); Richard Higgins and Michael Walsh (Transfer Counselors).

Last year's Institute resulted in the implementation of several joint projects between the participating institutions. This year, Plattsburgh faculty and staff as well as faculty and staff from Clinton Community College and Hudson Valley Community College will be discussing such projects as bridge courses, mentoring, transfer clubs and transfer fairs.

In 1988, SUNY Plattsburgh's "New Transfer Student Network" received a three-year grant of more than $250,000 from FIPSE. The 11-institution partnership project is currently in its second year of funding. The goal of the project is to foster inter-institutional collaboration in an effort to raise the quality of academic experiences and increase the persistence level of transfer students.

Plattsburgh is recognized in the University as a pioneer in developing articulation agreements with two-year colleges. Each year, between 650 and 700 students transfer to the college, and 50 percent of each year's graduating class entered Plattsburgh as transfers.

Harris Assumes Director's Role in Center for Human Resources

Dr. Carrie Harris, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, has been named Center Director, replacing Dr. Marilyn Chase, who recently resigned that administrative position to return to the teaching faculty. Harris, who was selected following an internal search will officially assume the post at the beginning of the fall semester.

Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of the faculty of Professional Studies, said, "We're very pleased that Dr. Harris has accepted this post. She has had a long and distinguished career in her field and we believe she will do an excellent job as Center Director."

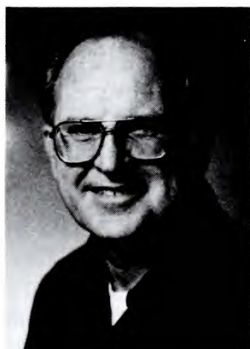

Harris joined the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty in 1977 and teaches primarily courses in nutrition. She has been active in college service, is a past Faculty Senator and has been a member of various minority recruitment and retention committees. She has also been very active with the American Dietetic Association. She is a former member of that organization's Board of Directors, a former chair of its Council on Education, a former Career Guidance Chair, and currently serves as its program director for this campus.

Harris, who played a major role in the development of the hotel-restaurant management major at SUNY Plattsburgh, is currently chairing the search committee for a new Dean of Professional Studies. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the college's Child Care Center.

Harris earned her bachelor's degree from Kansas State University and her master's degree and doctorate from the University of Massachusetts.

Kissner Receives Faculty Grant Backing Active-Learning Courses

Dr. Fred Kissner, professor of physics, has won a Faculty Grant for the Improvement of Undergraduate Education from the SUNY Research Foundation. Kissner plans to develop a sequential pair of active-learning courses, entitled "The Science of Sports and Exercise" and "Exercise Physiology." Both courses will serve as part of a new minor in Physical Education and are also being submitted for consideration as part of the natural science category of the new general education program.

Kissner said, "This is a unique opportunity to provide a meaningful academic collaboration between the physics and physical education departments. National surveys show that only one college-bound student in five or ten will take high school physics. On the other hand, the interest in sports and recreation is pervasive. This disparity of attitudes towards sports and the physical sciences is unfortunate, because the insights provided by a modest knowledge of physics can increase the appeal of a sport or activity for a participant, and can make a spectator more sophisticated. These courses should not only provide an appealing outlet for students required to take courses in the sciences, but also create an opportunity to include a female component in physical science courses, where female enrollments are traditionally low."

Council Votes 6-1 to Impose Parking Fee on Employees, Students

By a margin of 6-1, the College Council last week approved the imposition of a parking fee on students and employees. Voting yes were Chairperson Robert Garrow, Vice Chair Wayne Byrne, Sally Webb, Robert Pearl, SA President William Sherman, and Jacqueline Walker. Council member Beth Johnson cast the sole dissenting vote. Following that vote, the Council unanimously approved a fee schedule, based on a sliding scale.

The fee schedule for employees is based on salary as follows:

Less than $15,000 — $2 per month
$15,001-$30,000 — $4 per month
$30,001 - $45,000 — $6 per month
$45,001 - $60,000 — $8 per month
$60,000 and above — $10 per month.

Full-time students residing on campus will pay $18 per semester, while full-time commuter students will pay $15 per semester. Part-time students carrying six or fewer credit hours will pay $9 per semester. The fee for students enrolled in summer session courses will be $2 while faculty teaching summer session courses will pay $3.

The fee schedule was proposed by members of a campus parking committee, which was chaired by John Homburger. Other members were Derek Allan, Lillian Cassidy, Leon Coldgo, Wayne Duprey, Clara LaRose, William Laundry, Larry Lorch, Cerise Oberman, Robert Pearl, William Sherman, Robert Tabor, and Sean Ganter.

For Good Attendance...

College Council Chairperson Robert M. Garrow '52 and Council member Sally Webb shovel dirt while planting a sugar maple tree in the lawn facing the Kehoe Administration Building. The tree, the official tree of New York State, was presented to the Plattsburgh Council by the SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry in recognition of the Plattsburgh group's standing as attendance leader at last June's annual meeting of the Association of College Members and College Trustees. Also on hand for last Thursday's planting ceremony (background, L-R) were Council members Jacqueline Walker, Beth Johnson, Robert Pearl and vice chairperson Wayne Byrne.

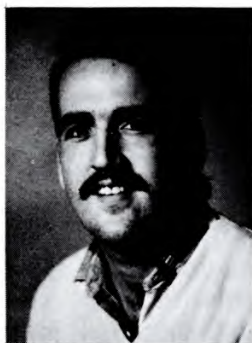

Final Weekly of Spring Term

This is the final issue of Weekly for the spring semester 1990. Weekly will be published twice during the summer months — on Wednesday, June 20 and Wednesday, July 25. News items or suggestions for articles for those issues are welcome at any time, but the copy deadline for Weekly remains as noon on Monday of the week of publication.

The editors wish to acknowledge the splendid cooperation of all members of the college community who have contributed to this publication in the past year by making news and otherwise keeping us informed of their own and their colleagues' professional activities and accomplishments. We're especially grateful to the many faculty and staff who gave that extra measure of energy and support to programs and events that made SUNY Plattsburgh's Centennial Celebration enjoyable and memorable.

Emery Named Head Hockey Coach, Assistant Professor in PEARS

Robert Emery, an assistant who assumed the reins of Plattsburgh State's hockey team last fall when the college's head coach resigned days before the start of the 1989-90 season and who led the team to the finals of the 1990 NCAA Division III national title, will be the new head coach of the Cardinals. He will also be appointed assistant professor with teaching responsibilities in the Department of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreational Sports (PEARS).

College officials announced Monday that Emery was the overwhelming choice of a 10-member search committee that screened about 20 applicants for the post, selected three finalists and coordinated on-campus interviews involving representatives of all institutional constituencies. SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren has endorsed the committee's recommendation. Emery will be given a two-year appointment.

"We're happy for Bob Emery and for our hockey program," commented Peter Luguri, SUNY Plattsburgh's athletic director and chairperson of the search committee. "The finalists were all well-qualified, but the committee was impressed with Emery's success as a coach and teacher, his strong work ethic, his sincere commitment to the academic progress of his student-athletes, and his disciplined approach to the volatile game of ice hockey."

Emery joined Plattsburgh State in September of 1988, as assistant to head coach Steve Hoar, with responsibility for helping Hoar in all aspects of the organization and administration of the college's hockey program. When Hoar resigned suddenly last November, he was appointed acting head hockey coach and instructor in the PEARS Department.

Under Emery, the 1989-90 Cardinals compiled a record of 23-12-4, won the SUNY Athletic Conference crown, and advanced to the Division III national championship series by defeating highly ranked Elmira College and Babson College on the road. They bounced back from a lopsided defeat to Wisconsin-Stevens Point in the two-game mini-game NCAA championship tournament opener to square the series and force the tie-breaker, but lost on a late goal.

Before coming to Plattsburgh, Emery was head coach in the six-team New England College Development Hockey League — a prep league for high school athletes with aspirations to play in college. Following graduation in 1986 from Boston College, where he captained the Eagles and excelled on defense, he signed a contract with the Quebec Nordiques of the National Hockey League and spent the 1986-87 season with the Nordiques' American Hockey League Frederickton Express franchise. The following year he played defense for the AHL Maine Mariners, a Boston Bruins affiliate.

Besides serving as head coach of the Cardinals, Emery's duties will include recruiting, scouting, budget preparation and administration, team travel arrangements and monitoring student-athletes' academic progress. He will also teach physical education activity and theory classes.

Emery is a candidate to receive the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies, with a concentration in administration and leadership, from SUNY Plattsburgh this summer.

Trophy Presentation

Representatives of Plattsburgh State's 1989-90 hockey team officially present the trophy symbolic of the team's second place finish in this year's NCAA Division III national championship tournament to the student body and the college at a reception for the Cardinal players and coaches hosted Thursday by President Charles O. Warren. Taking part in the presentation (L-R) are William Sherman, Student Association president, Cardinal co-captain Jerry Dineen, head hockey coach Bob Emery, co-captain Sean Haggerty, and President Warren.

Alzheimer's Center Sponsoring Program on Medicaid Laws

The Alzheimer's Disease Assistance Center is sponsoring a presentation on Medicaid laws and the preservation of family assets in the Cardinal Lounge, from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. on May 14.

Benjamin Levine, Attorney with the Koldin and Levine Law Center in Albany, will discuss topics of concern to senior citizens and caregivers. Levine will outline the process of obtaining medical assistance, cover spousal responsibility; discuss Medicaid and Medicare and a person's legal rights; and how to plan to preserve one's resources.

Kudos to...

Sharon Derr, who knows first-hand the nagging feeling of discouragement, but also knows how to vanquish it.

A veteran of 25 years of secretarial work in the always-lively admissions office, Derr decided to learn to balance the daily grind with a dose of academics.

That was 10 years ago, and, frequently fighting the sensation that her "brain was turning to mush," she went after something she always wanted — a degree in psychology.

Sharon Derr will receive that degree during commencement exercises on Saturday, and she'll receive it in style — as one of 30 students who will graduate magna cum laude (with high honors, 3.7 to 3.89 grade point average). It will be a grand day for Sharon. Her 13-year-old son Nathan, a 7th grader at Beekmantown School, will be there to applaud her achievement, and so will her 75-year-old mother, Hazel Rabideau of Cadyville.

"When I was in high school (Saranac, Class of '65), I felt I wanted to one day work with adolescents," commented Derr, who resides with her son at RFD 1 in Morrisonville. "However, I had to enter the work force so I went straight secretarial." When she got around to pursuing her dream for an education in 1980, she started in sociology but quickly switched to psychology, with a minor in language and human behavior. "I hope to eventually finish the M.S. in counseling and work as a child psychologist," she said, "but first I intend to take a break for a couple of semesters."

Derr missed taking at least one course in only one semester in the past decade. Until this semester, when she carried a 10 credit-hour load, the most she had taken in any one term was nine hours.

"There were times when I became discouraged," she admits, "but never enough to call it quits. Besides my son and mom and dad, I received tremendous support and encouragement from the admissions staff. As an employee, I feel this college is a tremendous resource . . . an advantage I'd have been silly to ignore."

CURRENT POSITION VACANCIES

Faculty

Arts & Science Vita Bank & Visiting Professor
Biology (2) — Fall '90
Business & Economics (3) (Marketing) Fall '90 & Vita Bank
Center for Art, Music & Theatre (Dept. of Music) (Band/Woodwinds) — Fall '90
Summer Theatre Staff (1) Wardrobe
Assts./Construction
Center for Human Resources (Counseling) — Fall '90
Communications (Public Speaking) — Fall '90
Computer Science (2) — Fall '90
EOP Summer Program (6), Language Arts Inst. (2), Math Inst. (2) and Communication Inst. (2)
Foreign Languages & Literature (Spanish) — Fall '90
Library — (Reference Librarian) — ASAP
(Adjunct Instructor Faculty Vita Bank)
Mathematics (2) (Asst. Prof. & Chairperson) — Fall '90
Nursing — Fall '90
Professional Studies Vita Bank — P/T Faculty
Teacher Education (4) — Fall '90
Teacher Education/Foreign Languages

Professional

Dean — (Professional Studies)
Staff Assistant (Field House)
Staff Assistant (Summer Camp Counselors)
(Student Affairs/Physical Education)

Civil Service

Keyboard Specialist (Telecommunications) Temporary)

Complete details are available in the Office of Personnel and Affirmative Action. For campus job vacancy information anytime, day or night, please call 564-JOBS.

SUNY/Plattsburgh is an Equal Opportunity Employer. It is the policy of this College to provide equal opportunity in employment for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, national origin, age, sex, handicap, or veteran status.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Stuart Baum, professor of chemistry, has been invited to present a paper entitled "Hands-On Science Activities" at the American Chemical Society's northeast regional meeting at Clarkson University in June and at the 11th Biennial Conference on Chemical Education to be held in August in Atlanta. At both meetings, Baum will discuss the science course he developed here for elementary education majors. . . Dr. Gary Brannigan, professor of psychology, is the co-author of two recently published articles: "Calming the Storm," which attempts to help school personnel channel parent anger into positive action, in Learning magazine, and "Strategies for Resolving Parent-School Conflict," in the most recent issue of Reading, Writing and Learning Disabilities. . . Two of Brannigan's students — juniors Julie Schaller and Andrew McGarva, presented a paper entitled "Approval Motivation: Effects on Reports of Sexual Daydreams" at the recent 25th annual Undergraduate Psychology Conference held at SUNY Oswego. . . Dr. Bruce Butterfield, associate professor of English, presented a paper entitled "Multiplicity and Community: Images of the Native in the Fiction of Cohen, Musgrave and Birdsell" at the Canadian studies section of the annual conference of the Western Social Science Association, held recently in Portland, OR. . . Dores Candussi and Peter Ensel of the Department of Communication presented a videotape entitled "Television and Radio Production at SUNY Plattsburgh" at the recent annual convention of the National Broadcasting Society in Orlando, FL. . . Gordon DeVries, technical assistant in the Technical Assistance Center, has been appointed by the mayor of Plattsburgh to the Plattsburgh Local Development Corporation. . . Dr. Melvin Donaho, professor of communication, discussed "Effective Communication — Presenting Business Reports and Proposals" at a recent meeting of local business leaders. He spoke on "Effective Leadership of Various Committees and Boards" and served as panelist on "The Pros Answer Your Questions" at the April 21 Region IV conference of the American Institute of Parliamentarians in Syracuse. Donaho has been elected governor (president) of Region IV of the Institute for a two-year term. Region IV includes the northeastern U.S., eastern Canada, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. . . Dr. Robert Fuller, assistant professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, is the author of "Spodosol Variability and Assessment of Response to Acidic Deposition," which appears in a recent issue of Soil Science Society of America Journal. . . Dr. William Gaeddert, associate professor of psychology, and psychology student Deborah Hoffman gave a presentation on "The Assessment of Moral Judgment and Moral Behavior" at the spring annual meeting of the Eastern Psychological Association in Philadelphia. . . Dr. Jane Gore, professor in the Center for Human Resources, has been selected to receive the 1990 "Outstanding Alumni Achievement Award" from Cornell University's College of Human Ecology. The award, given annually for distinguished public service in relation to the recipient's professional work, will be presented on June 9 at a reunion breakfast on the Cornell campus. . . Drs. Douglas Graham and Nicholas Mammano, professors of physics and chemistry, respectively, are co-authors of "A Simple and Economical 1000-Hz Signal Generator," which appears in the February issue of the Journal of Chemical Education. . . Dr. Padi Gulati, associate professor in the Center for Human Resources, will spend the summer working on special projects at the National Center for Policy and Practice in the Washington, D.C. region. The Center, which is affiliated with the National Association of Social Workers, focuses on social policy issues that are relevant to the concerns of social workers. . . Dr. Sylvie Debevec Henning, associate professor and chairperson of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, presented a paper on "The Problematic Other" at the recent Twentieth Century French Studies Conference held at the University of Iowa. . . Dr. Young Sik Jang, professor of economics, will present a paper entitled "Joint Ventures Prospects in the U.S.S.R.'s Energy Resources" at the August annual meeting of the American Statistical Associations, Business and Economics Statistic Section, to be held in Anaheim, CA. . . Dr. William Tooke, assistant professor of psychology, and student Moirra McKenna gave a presentation entitled "Relationships of Cognitive-Motivational Variables to Dimensions of Personal Accomplishments" at the spring annual meeting of the Eastern Psychological Association in Philadelphia. . . Dr. Noel Smith, professor of psychology, is the author of "Indo-European Psychological Concepts and the Shift to Psychophysical Dualism," which appears in Mankind Quarterly. . . "Widow," a poem by Dr. Thomas J. Braga, professor of French and Portuguese, appeared in a recent issue of the Journal of Poetry Therapy.

Attention Graduates Be a Part of History

As part of the celebration of the One Hundredth Commencement at SUNY Plattsburgh, the Office of College Relations plans to take a very special photograph — a photograph of graduates forming a huge '100.' Graduates are asked to come to the Field House at 9:30 a.m. on the morning of the ceremony, meeting at the northeast corner of the building (to the left of the main doors). Please wear your caps and gowns. The photograph will appear on the cover of "Plattsburgh Today."

Come early — be in front!!

SUNY Plattsburgh Must Absorb Budget Cut of $671,700

SUNY Plattsburgh has been targeted for a $671,700 reduction in its operating budget for fiscal 1990-91, and another cut may follow soon.

The reduction, explained President Charles O. Warren, is Plattsburgh's share of a $27.8 million cut imposed SUNY-wide. The amount represents what the college must turn back from a proposed $1,549,500 increase in operating funds in the 1990-91 Executive Budget recommendation.

Consequently, the college has adopted a "preliminary budget reduction plan." The largest among areas targeted for reduction is a position cut (8 to 10 FTE) totaling about $260,000. The positions are to be identified through vacant lines, early retirement and possible transfers to other revenue sources.

According to Senior Business Officer John Homburger, "The total University cut includes $5 million targeted for early retirement. "But," he added, "the picture is not clear. We'll be talking with individuals who may qualify for early retirement as soon as the guidelines are definite." Other major areas in the reduction plan:

- Academic equipment replacement — $100,000 (a temporary reduction, Homburger said, "designed to get us through this fiscal year");
- Supplies and expenses — $100,000 (a pool of funds used ordinarily for contingencies, program enhancement, new initiatives, etc.);
- Extra-enrollment funding — $96,600 (an allocation tied to an enrollment increase of 15 freshmen and 30 transfer students that will not be spent this fiscal year);
- Overtime, holiday and severance pay — $75,000;
- A special budget for student recruitment publications initiatives — $15,000; and
- Library acquisitions — $10,000.

"Another reduction is pending," commented Homburger. "SUNY Central Administration is telling us to expect an expenditure ceiling estimated at one or two percent of our total budget, and that mandate may come at any time."

Summer Weekly

Published by College Relations and Development for the SUNY Plattsburgh College Community • June 28, 1990

Centennial Campaign a Marked Success

SUNY Plattsburgh's Centennial Campaign shattered all expectations, leadership donors learned last week at a gathering celebrating the campaign's conclusion. Harry Mowry, who chaired the campaign on behalf of the Plattsburgh College Foundation, announced that donors have contributed and pledged $652,037, more than 30% over the $500,000 goal.

Mowry, a retired vice president of Harris Graphics, Inc. and current member of the College Council, said, "Forty-nine persons, businesses and organizations pledged or donated leadership gifts of at least $5,000 and another 1,162 gifts of less than $5,000 have been made or pledged. The Foundation is extremely pleased with this outpouring of support from the campus community and the community at large."

Mowry added that $332,485 (more than 50% of the total raised) was pledged or donated by members of the college's 'internal family,' namely alumni, faculty emeriti, current faculty and staff members and campus organizations. "In looking at this type of campaign at other universities," he said, "we have discovered that the 'family' response is significantly higher than usual and we are especially appreciative that this constituency has been so generous on its own behalf."

continued on following page

Centennial Campaign Results

Campaign Goal.....	$500,000
Final Results.....	$652,037
Dollars Above Goal.....	$152,037
Percent Over Goal.....	30.4%

Plattsburgh

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Centennial Drive Exceeds Goal by 30%

Continued from page 1

SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren commented, "We are greatly encouraged by this demonstration of faith in our institution's future. None of us could have predicted that so many people would respond so generously. We cannot thank our friends enough."

"The money raised through the Centennial Campaign," he added, "will allow us to meet some of the college's most urgent needs through a private-public partnership — using these private dollars together with funds provided by the state of New York to offer students and faculty special opportunities, to renovate and improve some of our facilities and to purchase desperately needed equipment."

New York State Senator Ronald B. Stafford, who served as an honorary chair of the campaign, echoed Warren's comments, and said, "New York State is proud of its excellent university system and committed to ensuring a quality education to all of our citizens. Yet economic realities demand innovative answers to future challenges. A campaign such as this stands as a tribute to SUNY Plattsburgh, to the people who are the strength and vitality of that institution, and to the North Country community which has responded so generously."

The Centennial Campaign formally kicked off on June 15, 1990, as part of the Founders' Day celebration. At that time, Mowry announced that $337,000 of the total goal had already been pledged or given.

The campaign was SUNY Plattsburgh's first capital campaign. The money raised is being placed in an endowment fund and invested. The income generated through that investment will provide funding for special student, faculty and administrative initiatives designed to promote excellence across the campus throughout the future years of the college.

Members of the steering committee, in addition to Mowry, Stafford and Warren, included the late Dr. Edward E. Redcay, Robert T. Booth, Roger Forrence, Dawn M. Fratangelo '82, James E. Hutchinson '39, Joseph E. Johnston '89, Margaret Q. Kennedy '60, Clyde A. Lewis, James L. Murnane, Barbara M. Murray, M. Margaret Ryan '32, Jeffrey M. Selchick '72, and Dr. Nicholas F. Troisi.

The following individuals, businesses and organizations made leadership gifts ($5,000 and above) to the campaign:

Alumni: Barbara A. Crosby '45, Dr. and Mrs. Xenophon Damianos '51/'50, Dawn Fratangelo '82, Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchinson '39/'58, Margaret Q. Kennedy '60, Mr. and Mrs. John Longware '56/'66, Kathy MaGaw '72, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Malvese '62, Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Connor '75, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Pray '70, M. Margaret Ryan '32, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Selchick '72/'72, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Stafford '72/'72.

Businesses/Corporations: Adams Glass, Champlain Valley Electric Supply, Clare & Carl's, Don G. Orchards, Jeffords Steel & Engineering, Keeseville National Bank, Marriott Corporation, Murnane Associates, National Savings Bank, Northern Insuring Agency, A. Schonbek & Co., Inc.

Community Friends: Marie L. Beemer, Estate of Jeremyn Davern, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Forrence, Elizabeth A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Shipman, Senator Ronald B. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Webb.

Faculty/Staff: Mr. and Mrs. J. Derek Allan, Dr.

Marilyn A. Chase, Janet Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Garrant '57, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm R. Lavery '64/'75, Dr. and Mrs. Houn Z. Liu '70, Dr. and Mrs. E. Thomas Moran '69/'70, Drs. Eldridge and Mary Roark, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Skopp, Dr. and Mrs. Charles O. Warren.

Faculty Emeriti: Florence Callahan, Drs. Richard & Annette Manganel, Dr. Edward E. Redcay, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wiley.

Organizations: College Auxiliary Services, Student Association, SUNY Plattsburgh Federal Credit Union.

Centennial Campaign Gifts

Alumni.....	$102,272
Businesses/Corporations.....	$109,600
Community Friends.....	$202,710
Faculty/Staff.....	$ 83,064
Faculty Emeriti.....	$ 67,775
Organizations.....	$ 72,000
Miscellaneous Gifts.....	$ 14,616
Total.....	$652,037

*$332,485 was pledged and/or donated by members of the campus community (alumni, current and retired faculty and staff, and campus organizations).

Admissions Outlook Bright; Deposit Rates Ahead by 6%

The admissions picture for fall, 1990 is a good one, according to Admissions Director Richard Higgins. Higgins said last Friday that, as of mid-June, deposits from incoming freshmen stood at 100.4% of the target, while deposits from new transfer students stood at 100.3%.

While fall admissions have officially closed, Higgins explained that applications to the nursing and home economics programs will continue to be accepted in response to critical national shortages in both areas.

"We are very pleased with our success in admitting a good class," Higgins said. "Quality indicators, at this point, appear to be equivalent to new students of previous years." He added, "This year was a difficult one since 13,000 fewer students graduated from New York State schools this June. Our applications were down about 9% from last year. However, our share of the market is increasing and our deposit rates for both new freshmen and new transfers are running more than 6% above last year."

That has been a trend throughout the decade, Higgins said. "Between 1980 and 1990, the number of students graduating from high school each year in New York State has decreased by 64,000. Yet we have continued to do very well in attracting quality students."

Higgins credited the high rate of success to "a dedicated admissions staff who increased the number of their visits to high schools, increased Saturday interview opportunities, and increased special admissions events such as Scholars Weekend, Multicultural Access Weekend, and Transfer Institute visits." He also commended faculty and staff across the campus who have become much more involved in personal contacts, through letters and phone calls to accepted students.

Baum Playing Leading Role in Nationwide Chemistry Project

Dr. Stuart J. Baum, professor of chemistry, is one of several chemistry professors selected to play lead roles in a nationwide project to improve the teaching of chemistry in middle schools. Operation Chemistry (Op Chem) is based at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, supported by the American Chemical Society and has recently won a two-year National Science Foundation grant totalling over $320,000.

The goal of the project, according to the principal investigator Dr. Paul Kelter of UW-O, is "to develop a national middle school chemistry curriculum, complete with content, activities and teaching methods."

The first two years of the project, beginning this summer, will entail writing and nationwide field-testing of Op Chem modules. Baum and about six other chemistry professors are writing the modules. After testing and revisions, yearly Op Chem workshops will be held at UW-O, which will bring together 36 teams of four members, each with a middle school, high school and college teacher, plus an industrial chemist, to learn the curriculum. The teams will then become "Op Chem trainers," and will return to their own states to train other teachers.

"This is a very exciting project," Baum said. "In a short time, a tremendous number of students will be directly affected by what we're doing."

Baum, a member of the chemistry department since 1965, won the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1976 and the Phi Eta Sigma Distinguished Faculty Award in 1986. In 1989, he was designated a SUNY Distinguished Teaching Professor.

Annette Manganel Vacates Post with Foundation

Dr. Annette Manganel, professor emeritus of education, has resigned from her appointment as faculty representative to the Plattsburgh College Foundation Board of Directors.

Manganel and her husband, Dr. Richard Manganel, who also is an emeritus member of the education faculty, will be relocating permanently to Florida.

SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren accepted the resignation "with a deep sense of loss." He praised Manganel for having made the college "a better place" through her "unselfish commitment of time, energy and creative thought." He also thanked the Manganel's "deeply and sincerely" for their personal generosity in support of the Foundation.

Annette Manganel taught at the college from 1959 until her retirement in 1985. Besides her involvement with the Foundation, she continued to serve SUNY Plattsburgh in retirement, most notably as chairperson of the committee that planned the college's multi-dimensional Centennial Celebration during academic 1989-90.

Twenty-four Area Students Receive Guilbault Awards

Twenty-four students will receive scholarships from the Elva O. Guilbault Trust for the 1990-91 academic year. The Guilbault Trust was created through a bequest from the late Miss Elva O. Guilbault of Plattsburgh, who for many years was a dental hygienist in the office of Dr. Leroy Earl of West Chazy. Income from that trust is used to provide scholarships to Clinton County residents who are full-time students at SUNY Plattsburgh and who are majoring in a curriculum

James Keable (seated), trustee of the Elva Guilbault Fund congratulates three of the 24 winners of 1990-91 scholarships, (l. to r.) Robert Kotula, Jeanette Bortnick, and Jodi Kourofsky.

Wolfe Resigns Directorship

Dr. Michael Wolfe, director of the Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services for the past five years, has resigned to accept a new position. Wolfe, who will leave campus in mid-August, has accepted the post of executive director of Kappa Delta Pi, an international honorary society for educators which has as its primary purpose the enhancement of the teaching profession. Kappa Delta Pi has more than 400 chapters throughout the world, with more than 60,000 members. Wolfe, who was inducted into the honorary society in 1984, will be responsible for overseeing the operations of the society, which include scholarly publications, workshops and national conferences and an extensive scholarship and fellowship program for undergraduate and graduate students.

Wolfe has directed the Center for Teacher Education since 1985. During those five years, enrollments in teacher education programs have increased significantly; the teacher education curriculum has been revised; collaborative efforts between the Center, the North Country Teacher Resource Center and area school districts have been enhanced; student organizations in the Center have been energized; and several grants have promoted re-training of area teachers.

Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, said that an acting director will be appointed for the 1990-91 academic year and a national search will be conducted to fill the post on a permanent basis.

which would prepare them to enter a medical or dental-related career or profession.

This year's scholarship winners are: David Ashline, Kathy Lyn Barcomb, Eric Blair, Jeannette Bortnick, Brandi Carter, Marie Denton, Susan Hatch, Sheri Lynne Donnelly, Susan Gonya, Kelly Anne Grogan, Alice Hawley, Donna Honan, Judith Hundemann, Nanci Howe Jarvis, Maureen Keefe, Theresa Kempisty, Robert Kotula, Jodi Kourofsky, Warren Lushia, Marilyn McClure, Kelle Monrian, Douglas Moore, Patricia Passante and Victoria Siskavich.

Centennial Week Program Cited by SUNY-wide Group

Last year's Alumni Centennial Week program has won another commendation, this one from the SUNY Council for University Affairs and Development (SUNY/CUAD). The program, which brought several hundred alumni to campus last July for seminars with current and retired faculty members, a Campus School reunion, campus tours, and a picnic for former Student Association officers and resident assistants, received an Honorable Mention in the state-wide competition. Alumni Centennial Week won the top prize in the competition sponsored earlier this spring by the SUNY Confederation of Alumni Associations.

Several members of the SUNY Plattsburgh administration and staff played active roles in the annual SUNY/CUAD conference which was held last week in Lake Placid. President Charles O. Warren joined SUNY Chancellor D. Bruce Johnstone, Geneseo President Carol C. Harter, and Schenectady County Community College President Peter F. Burnham in a panel discussion on "A Preferable Future for SUNY and the State."

Don Garrant, assistant to the president for college relations and development, was a co-presenter of a panel entitled "Beyond Media Relations" and Carolee Smith, director of public information, served as co-chair of the media relations track for the conference. Smith was also recently elected to a three-year term as a representative of SUNY media relations professionals on the SUNY/CUAD Board of Directors.

SUNYCAP, the organization of admissions personnel, met concurrently with SUNY/CUAD and joint sessions were scheduled as part of both programs. Admissions Director Richard Higgins was presented with a SUNYCAP award in recognition of his outstanding service to the organization during the past ten years. Higgins also was a member of a panel which discussed "Developing Professional Skills for the '90's."

Admissions counselor Timothy Penix was elected Region III representative for the Multi-cultural Concerns Committee of SUNYCAP.

Yarborough Appointed Director of Clark Learning Center

Dr. Thelma B. Yarborough, supervisor of human rights officers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts' state hospital system for the past two years, will join SUNY Plattsburgh August 1 as director of the Claude J. Clark Learning Center.

Yarborough will serve an appointment linked with the mission of both Academic Affairs and Student Affairs, although she will be assigned administratively to the latter division. "The college is fortunate to have a person of the caliber and with the broad experience of Dr. Yarborough fill this important position," commented Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs. "(Student Affairs) Vice President Eldridge Roark and Associate Vice President Ann Hasting deserve to be commended for bringing the search to a successful conclusion."

Hasting, who chaired the search committee, said that more than 25 candidates applied for the position. The search was initiated last fall.

As director, Yarborough will be responsible for a program and staff that each year provides computer-assisted writing instruction and tutoring services in a wide variety of disciplines to nearly 1,000 students at all levels of academic ability. The Clark Center also serves as a 20-hours-per-day study space for individuals and groups of students.

During the past 18 years, Yarborough has taught and held administrative positions at higher education institutions in North Carolina, Maryland, Washington, D.C., Wisconsin, Georgia and Massachusetts. Prior to assuming her current post, she served Cape Cod Community College for a year as coordinator of Language Skills, and before that, respectively, she was reading specialist and director of the Learning Laboratory at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside and director of the Adult Reading Academy Program and instructor in reading and study skills in the University of Maryland's Upward Bound program.

Yarborough holds the B.S. in history from D.C. Teachers College (1969); the M.A. in history from Memphis State University (1972); and the M.Ed. in higher education administration (1976) and the Ed.D. in curriculum development (1980) from the University of Maryland. She holds a certificate in Afro-American studies from Kentucky State University, and in 1981 she studied at Northeastern University as the recipient of a postdoctoral faculty research fellowship.

The Clark Center's first full-time director has taught courses ranging from history, mathematics and English composition to social science, curriculum development and Afro-American history and culture. In her present role with the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health, Yarborough's duties have included regional training of hospital administrators in human rights advocacy for community mental health programs and the development and implementation of curriculum and educational programs for staff.

Foundation Business Campaign Now at 81 Percent of 1990 Goal

With two weeks to go before it ends, the Plattsburgh College Foundation's business campaign has achieved 81 percent of its $100,000 goal for 1990.

Gifts and pledges as of June 14 totaled $81,130, according to Don Garrant, the Foundation's executive director. He pointed out that the results to date were tallied during the third of a scheduled four report meetings of campaign volunteers and Foundation staff.

"We have reason to be encouraged," commented Garrant, "because we are ahead of 1989's pace by a substantial margin. At our final report meeting at the end of June last year we had achieved $59,170 in gifts and pledges in a campaign that eventually surpassed $100,000 in contributions."

The current drive involves 14 volunteer solicitors on teams headed by local businessmen Patrick Murnane and Michael O'Connor. The teams thus far have generated $28,000 and $33,455 in total gifts and pledges, respectively. The Foundation had amassed $19,675 in gifts from the business community before the campaign began last month.

Murnane's team consists of Donna Avery, Anne Brandell, Donald Kasprzak, Darcy Mousseau, Barbara Murray and John Vroman. The O'Connor group is composed of John Atwater, Mark Barie, Clifford Calongne, Ann Martin, Deena McCullough and Peter Whitbeck.

Exhibit in City Hall Spotlights College's 100th Anniversary

The Clinton County Historical Association is presenting an exhibition honoring the college's 100th anniversary celebration.

The exhibition, in place in the association's facility in Plattsburgh City Hall through the end of November, includes materials relating to the college's history from its founding as a Normal School in 1889 to the present day. It focuses also on the years immediately following the Normal School's destruction by fire in the winter of 1929 — years in which students attended classes in City Hall and became known as "City Hall graduates."

The exhibition is supported by a $300 contribution from the SUNY Plattsburgh Centennial Celebration Committee.

Maintenance Staff Busily Preparing Campus for 1990-91

With students gone the SUNY Plattsburgh campus is wrapped in a slumbering mood, but inside many of its 35 buildings and outdoors on grounds and in planted areas the college's maintenance team is priming the physical plant for its 101st academic year.

A student prepares residence hall area for painting. Five residences are among many campus buildings being made ready this summer for fall term occupancy.

More than 80 separate items comprise the list of summer projects for facilities, maintenance and operations staff. They range from clean-up and preparation of residence halls and academic buildings to utilities repair, office moves, painting, planting and grounds beautification and installation of systems designed to bring the college into compliance with fire-safety regulations.

"Yes, you can say this is the busiest time of the year for maintenance and operations personnel," stated Butch Clodgo, director of maintenance. "It's difficult working around people who occupy our buildings, so summertime is ideal to set and meet goals."

Clodgo supervises 14 full-time maintenance workers, seven members of the grounds crew and three each classified as laborers or garage staff. They would be hard-pressed to accomplish the varied tasks on the summer 1990 list in six months, not to mention three, so nearly as many again have been hired as temporary service employees or help paid for out of a dormitory income fund reimbursible account.

The latter, Clodgo said, are serving 90-day appointments. Their priority projects include the installation of toilets and shower partitions in five campus residence halls. Two extra painters have been hired to paint residence hall hallways, lounges, lobby areas and stairways and stairwells, and a maintenance assistant has been retained to help install improved fire alarm systems in five campus dorms.

The temporary service employees are mostly students — all from SUNY but not necessarily Plattsburgh students. Four are working in "painting prep" — patching, scraping and taping, for example — and two others are working exclusively in the upkeep of campus flower beds.

"We take pride in the condition of the campus," commented Clodgo. "It'll be in tip-top shape by the time students return in August."

Spring Reunions

'The Big Apple' and Albany served as sites for spring '90 reunions for alumni. Above: President and Mrs. Warren chat with some of the more than 340 alumni and friends who boarded the steamboat replica Dewitt Clinton for a reunion that featured a two-hour cruise of the lower harbor of Manhattan. Below: Missy King '82, Associate Professor of English Ron Davis, Anita Larsen '82 and Larry Arcarese, associate professor of communication, enjoy their June reunion of SUNY Plattsburgh communication/broadcast journalism alumni and faculty in the state capital.

Placement Report: 97.5% of '89 Grads Find Employment

The latest survey of alumni conducted by the college's Office of Career/Life Planning indicates the pattern of success in the job marked by graduates in recent years is continuing. It also shows an improvement in average starting salaries due to better pay for women.

According to Patrick Lennahan, director of SUNY Plattsburgh's Career/Life Planning Center, the findings are based on survey responses from 538 members of the Class of 1989 who reported their job status at between six and nine months of their graduation. He said that 1,133 surveys were distributed, providing a response rate of 47.5 percent.

"The data show an employment level of 97.5 percent for the Class of 1989," commented Lennahan, "and that ranks second highest — one percentage point behind the Class of 1986 — in the more than 20 years we have been doing employment surveys. Nearly 80 percent say their first positions are related to their major field of study, and that, too, is on the mark in comparison with the past few graduating classes."

Lennahan explained that the surveys are taken several months following graduation to allow a reasonable period of time for job placement to occur. Besides job status, the survey instrument is designed to provide information about average salaries, satisfaction with their educational preparation for a career, and undergraduate experiences that proved helpful in their search for employment.

"The results on these measures also are encouraging," said Lennahan. "Starting salaries for respondents employed full time increased by about $200 in comparison with the Class of 1988 for average of $21,681. The gain was made by women graduates, whose salaries are up slightly more than $1,000 in a year's time. Survey comparisons show that annual salaries for women alumni have increased nearly $4,500 over the past three years."

While 74.9 percent of the respondents reported satisfaction with their career potential, 88.6 percent affirmed that SUNY Plattsburgh had met their expectations in preparing them for jobs or graduate studies. They said that internships, field work and extracurricular activities were most helpful in the job search.

About 14 percent of the Class of 1989 is pursuing graduate studies on a full-time basis, while another 18.5 percent is doing so part time.

Impressions from Toronto ...

"SUNY Plattsburgh is a pleasant, sprawling campus located in a charming old town of about 20,000 on the western shore of Lake Champlain. From the upper floors of the college buildings one can see the Green Mountains of Vermont rising across the lake in the east, and the Adirondacks of New York in the west. The college enrolls about 6,000 students who are taught by a faculty of 300. The atmosphere seemed ... friendly and relaxed."

"There is very little in the way of graduate programs at SUNY Plattsburgh, and although many of the professors are engaged in research, it is clear that the primary mission of the institution is undergraduate education. Although it is a publicly supported institution, (it is) very much (similar to) the small, mainly private liberal arts colleges where so many young Americans receive their education."

Text from a college recruitment piece? Chamber of Commerce brochure? Promotional video script?

Wrong on all counts. The narrative is from "A Tale of Two Colleges," an article by-lined by Lynd Ferguson, president of the University of Toronto. It appears in a recent issue of that University's alumni magazine, and it describes Ferguson's impressions of this college's academic environment following his visit here in January to sign a formal student exchange agreement between the two institutions. The article goes on to contrast the environments and the "peculiar strengths" of his "large urban multiversity" with those of "the small college."

"Ferguson's very generous discussion of his visit to our campus gives enormous exposure to SUNY Plattsburgh among a large and very distinguished group of Canadians," commented Dr. Richard Beach, director of the college's Center for the Study of Canada." Beach said that the Toronto principal gave him copies of the alumni publication during a recent visit to University College there.

The exchange agreement between SUNY Plattsburgh and Toronto will enable students to study for up to a year at the other institution while receiving course credit from, and paying tuition and fees to, the home institution.

Imasco Ltd. Donates $4,000 to Support Canadian Studies

The Plattsburgh College Foundation has received a $4,000 gift from Imasco Ltd. of Canada in support of the college's program in Canadian studies.

The gift, according to Dr. Richard Beach, director of SUNY Plattsburgh's Center for the Study of Canada, is Imasco's eighth in as many years. One fourth of the corporation's donation has been designated to support each of a scholarship fund and the Imasco Endowment, with the balance targeted for Canadian events, guest speakers, research and teaching, outreach coordination and program administration.

'87 Grad Wiley, Former Athlete of the Year, Named Soccer Coach

Karen Sue Wiley, a 1987 SUNY Plattsburgh graduate and recipient that year of her alma mater's "Athlete of the Year" award, has been named head women's soccer coach and assistant professor in the college's Department of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreational Sports (PEARS).

The appointment, effective August 27, is for two years. Besides coaching soccer, Wiley will teach physical education courses and will coach another sport, to be determined during the fall semester.

Wiley, of Hannawa Falls, comes to Plattsburgh from arch-rival SUNY Potsdam, where she was head women's soccer coach, assistant athletic trainer and assistant professor of physical education during the 1989-90 academic year. Previously, she was assistant soccer coach and head junior varsity coach at Ithaca College, whose varsity team advanced to the NCAA final four in 1988. Wiley received her master's degree in physical education from Ithaca that year.

During her undergraduate career at Plattsburgh, Wiley was a four-year starter for Cardinal teams that made three appearances in post-season tournaments. She was team captain in her senior campaign, earning a sport on the State University of New York Athletic Conference All-Conference Team.

Following graduation from Plattsburgh, and before moving on to Ithaca, Wiley was head soccer and softball coach for a year at Clinton Community College. She was a participant in women's soccer in the Empire State Games in 1983 and 1984, and last summer she was head coach of the Central Region entry in those games.

Wiley is proficient in several sports besides soccer. She is a former ski instructor at Whiteface Mountain, and she has taught sailboarding in Ithaca and canoeing and sailing in the Binghamton region. She ran in the Boston Marathon earlier this spring.

SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Thomas J. Braga, professor of French and Portuguese, is the author of Coffee in the Woodwinds, a collection of poems in the form of composite vignettes of North Country people as viewed by an habitue of Plattsburgh's coffee shops . . . Dr. Wallace Feldman, dean of the School of Business and Economics, lectured at Moscow State University during the last two weeks of May, under the SUNY Moscow State Exchange Program. Feldman addressed faculty members and graduate students concerning marketing as an academic discipline and an applied area of practice . . . Robert Hall, visiting assistant professor of music, adjudicated at two music festivals in May in Quebec City and one in Burlington, Vermont. He was selected to be the vocal adjudicator for the Ontario Music Festival Association Provincial Finals held in Windsor, Ontario in May and June. Hall was also bass soloist with the Canadian Centennial Choir of Ottawa, Ontario for a performance this spring of the J.S. Bach Magnificat . . . Dr. Alexis Levitin, associate professor of English, was a special guest reader of his translations at the recent conference "Translating Latin America: An Interdisciplinary Conference on Culture as Text" at SUNY Binghamton on April 19-21. He read stories from his translation of Clarice Lispector's Soulstorm. Levitin's translation of Eugenio de Andrade's prose-poems, Memory of Another River, won honorary mention from the Columbia University Translation Center Award committee for 1990. Translations from the Portuguese by Levitin have appeared in the last few months in Wordsmith, Northwest Review, The Hampden-Sydney Poetry Review, Apalachee Quarterly, and Mid-American Review. . . Graduate student Joseph Seagriff has had several poems accepted for publication. "Slurping innocence" was published in the Spring/Summer issue of Aura Literary/Arts Review. The Founds of Poetry has accepted three of his poems, "Beer foam," which will appear in the the winter '91 issue, "The Only Gift," which will appear in the spring '92 issue, and "Another Day's Love," which as been accepted for the summer '92 issue. . . Scott Smith, lecturer in computer science, presented a paper this spring entitled "A Hyper-Text-Based Collaborative Learning Environment" at EURIT '90 (European Conference on Information Technology in Education) in Herning, Denmark. The paper stems from work conducted with Dr. Richard Robbins, associate professor of anthropology, Dr. Stewart Denenberg, professor of computer science, and computer science graduate Aaron Glascock '89.

Mark Your Calendars

Opening Academic Convocation
Wednesday, September 5, 1990 at 4 p.m.
More information to follow

Summer Weekly

Published by College Relations and Development for the SUNY Plattsburgh College Community • July 25, 1990

Another 1% Budget Reduction Is Possible

SUNY Plattsburgh's budget woes continue.

As expected (Weekly, June 28), the college has been asked to submit a contingency plan for an additional one percent reduction in its budget for fiscal 1990-91. The reduction, which would total $284,000, would follow a $671,700 reduction in operating funds for the current year imposed about a month ago.

"The University believes an additional system-wide $14.5 million cut is possible," commented SUNY Plattsburgh President Charles O. Warren. "We were requested on July 18 to prepare a specific contingency plan for our share of the reduction by Wednesday (July 25). Both the Executive Staff and the Faculty Senate's Resources and Planning Committee met last week to review proposed actions.

The college's 1990-91 Financial Plan "addendum" calls for a reduction of $100,000 in unallocated funds, $50,000 for academic equipment and $25,000 in overtime and holiday pay. The first two actions would leave $50,000 in the unallocated account and $68,000 for equipment for the entire academic year — a circumstance the president labels as "precarious."

Additional savings actions include a request that

Parking Fee Won't Become Effective Until January '91

No one on campus will pay a parking fee this fall, according to senior business officer John Homburger. Homburger said the fee, originally slated to go into effect on September 1, has been deferred until January 1, 1991 in order to put the administrative system in place for implementation of the fee.

Acting to close a budget gap, a campus parking committee had studied the issue this spring and proposed a graduated fee schedule based on income. The fee schedule set five categories for employees, ranging from $2 to $10 per month. Students were to have been charged according to whether they were enrolled full-time or part-time and whether they lived on or off campus.

At its May meeting, the College Council, by a 6-1 vote, approved the imposition of a parking fee, then voted unanimously to approve the proposed sliding fee schedule.

members of the college's Executive Staff set aside five percent of their operating budgets, keeping two faculty positions open, delaying filling vacancies at least two payroll periods, closing most college offices on official holidays, and shifting two professional staff to non-state budget lines.

A memorandum from SUNY's Division of Administrative Affairs points out that, if the $14.5 million cut materializes, the University's total state-supported appropriation would have increased only $35.4 million over the available appropriation in 1989-90. That is $56.6 million or 3.8 percent less than the requested workload and inflationary adjusted budget in the Trustees budget request for 1990-91.

The memo states that "any expenditure reduction will require action by the Trustees within 30 days of its receipt," adding, "the later in the fiscal year an action is imposed, the more difficult it is to manage (it)."

Further detailed information will be forthcoming at the beginning of the fall semester.

President's Office Moves to Former Hawkins Location

After 22 years in the Kehoe Building, the Office of the President has been relocated to the first floor level of Hawkins Hall.

President Charles O. Warren has settled in the office space recently vacated by retiring Dean of Professional Studies Nicholas Troisi and once occupied by past presidents Dr. Charles Ward and Dr. George Angell. Ward's office was in Hawkins 107 from the time he assumed office in September of 1933 until his death in 1952, and Angell presided there from his appointment in 1954 until the opening of the Kehoe Building in the fall of 1968.

President Angell's office was on the 10th floor of Kehoe until his retirement in 1974. His successor, Dr. Joseph Burke, moved it to the second floor of the building, its most recent headquarters.

Asked about the move, President Warren said it was made "for a variety of positive reasons," not the least of which is that it will give him increased capability to "provide direct services to students and faculty."

34th Leadership Workshop Caps Dean Troisi's Career

More than 200 professional educators are participating in the 34th annual National Leadership Workshop, which began Monday at Sibley Hall and continues through August 3.

Dr. Nicholas Troisi, dean of professional studies at Plattsburgh and resident director of the two-week workshop, said the program focuses on topics of importance to both school administrators and teachers. "Outstanding educators from all parts of the United States are presenting intensive seminars that combine theory and practice," he said. "More than 20 specific courses are being offered, and they deal with such matters as computer literacy, consumer education, classroom discipline and administering schools within the law."

Daily general sessions feature talks by prominent specialists in various areas of the profession. The speakers include Gerard L. Freeborne, executive coordinator for the teaching profession for the New York State Education Department; Barbara M. Heinzerling of Hudson, Ohio, an attorney and expert on consumerism; Dr. James Moore, director of personnel services for the West Hartford, Connecticut public schools and consultant nationally on curriculum and instruction and supervision and evaluation; Dr. Scott D. Thomson of Reston, Virginia, deputy executive director of the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NAASP), and Dale Hawley, director of student activities for NAASP and a former "teacher of the year" in New York State while principal of Cortland Junior-Senior High School.

The workshop gets its "national" distinction from its affiliation with NAASP and the National Association of Elementary School Principals, which co-sponsor it in cooperation with the college and the School Administrators Association of New York State.

This year's edition of the National Leadership Workshop will cap the professional career of Dean Troisi, who has served as its director from almost its beginning and who will end his 35-year career in service to SUNY Plattsburgh at its conclusion.

Church Gets Appointment to College Foundation Board

Dr. Nancy Church, assistant professor of marketing, has been appointed as the faculty representative to the Board of Directors of the Plattsburgh College Foundation.

Church will serve through January 31, 1991, filling the unexpired term of Dr. Annette Manganel, professor emeritus of education, who resigned recently. She joins a board consisting of 18 men and women — 12 from the community, three alumni and one person each from the faculty, student body and College Council.

In acting on the appointment, President Charles O. Warren cited the personal generosity of Church and her husband, Walter, in support of the Foundation and its program of philanthropy. "Nancy Church's leadership role in various Faculty/Staff campaigns made her the logical choice to succeed Annette Manganel," he said.

Church has been a member of the SUNY Plattsburgh faculty since 1977, where she has taught courses in management and accounting as well as marketing. She received the Ph.D. in administration, with a specialization in marketing, from Concordia University in 1987.

Arcarese Negotiates Possible Exchange with Great Britain Universities

Students of communication at SUNY Plattsburgh may be able to earn credits toward their degree in a study abroad program in Great Britain that could be instituted as early as the fall of 1991.

Lawrence C. Arcarese, association professor of communication, recently returned from a 13-day trip to Britain whose purpose was to develop an exchange program between universities there and the Department of Communication at Plattsburgh. He visited Trinity and All Saint's College in Leeds, which is affiliated with the University of Leeds, the University of Wales in Cardiff, and the City University of London.

"It appears that an exchange program between Trinity and All Saint's College may begin in September of next year," said Arcarese. "Officials at City University of London are instituting a new program in communication this fall, and it includes a junior year abroad component. They expressed great interest in an exchange program with Plattsburgh."

The exchange program, Arcarese said, is being coordinated by the Center for the Study of Canada and International Education on the Plattsburgh campus.

Pasti Named Acting Director of Lifelong Learning Center

Elizabeth Pasti, former director of the Special Services Project (SSP), has been appointed acting director of the Center for Lifelong Learning, replacing Dr. H. Griffin Walling, who has accepted a new position in Florida. Pasti assumes her new post August 15, at which time the Center office will move to the fourth floor of the Kehoe Building.

Announcing the appointment, Dr. E. Thomas Moran, vice president for academic affairs, said, "I don't believe we could have made a better choice. Mrs. Pasti is familiar with the college's

Foundation Confers 'Honorary

Harry E. Mowry, a former vice president and member of the College Foundation's Board of Directors, has been named an "honorary director" of that organization. The honor was conferred on Mowry by unanimous vote of the board during its May meeting.

The title was created last January by the Foundation's Executive Committee "to recognize individuals who have rendered distinguished service to the Foundation as a board member for a minimum of two three-year terms." As an honorary director, Mowry will be invited to participate in all board meetings in a non-voting capacity.

The former vice president of Harris Communications served the Foundation as first vice president, chairperson of annual giving, chairperson and co-chairperson of the organization's business campaign and as chairperson of the recently concluded, highly successful Centennial Endowment Campaign. He has also been among the Foundation's most generous supporters through the years.

"The honor means more than a formal way to say 'thank you' to Mr. Mowry for serving the college and the Foundation faithfully," commented President Charles O. Warren. "It's a means to say how much we value his judgment, intelligence and leadership qualities, and to let him know we may be calling on him for advice and assistance from time to time."

administrative procedures and has proven herself a capable and trusted administrator."

Moran added that over the next few months, a study of the Center for Lifelong Learning will be done, in order to identify the most appropriate functions of that office. When the study is complete, he said, a search for a permanent director will be conducted.

Pasti joined the Plattsburgh faculty in 1978 as an adjunct lecturer in the English department. In January, 1979, she became a writing skills specialist in SSP. The following summer, she was appointed acting director, an appointment which was made permanent a year later. Pasti resigned from that post in January, 1990 and spent the spring semester in California.

Pasti holds a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Illinois and a master's degree, also in English, from East Carolina University.

Director' Title on Mowry

Mowry, who now resides in Florida most of the year, also served SUNY Plattsburgh as a member of its College Council from 1980 until July 1 of this year. He is the second person to be named an honorary director; the first was retired former Plattsburgh businessman Albert F. Luck.

SPOTLIGHT

Seven members of the campus community have been awarded NYS/UUP Joint Labor-Management Committees Professional Development and quality of Working Life Committee New Faculty Development Awards. The recipients, who each received $750, are Encarna Abella, Peter J. Ensel III, Alis Headlam, Elsayed Hussein A. Kandiel, Jeanne Ryan, Muhammad A. Sadi, and Carmi R. Wells ... Freshwater Wetlands and Wildlife, 1989, CONF-8603101, DOE Symposium Series No. 61 is the title of a work by Drs. Donald Bogucki and Gerhard Gruendling, professors in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, published by the USDOE Office of Scientific and Technical Information, Oak Ridge Tenn. ... Dr. James C. Dawson, professor in the Center for Earth and Environmental Science, has been selected by the Executive Committee of the University Faculty Senate to serve on the Undergraduate Academic Programs and Policies Committee for academic 1990-91 ... Ann Kimmage, instructor in the departments of English and foreign languages and literature, was invited for the month of June to attend a privately funded retreat for women writers located on Whidby Island in Washington ... Dr. Naomi McCormick, professor of psychology, has been elected treasurer and member of the Executive Board for the Society for the Scientific Study of Sex.

Williams' Photo Exhibit Opens Today in Myers Gallery

An exhibit of panoramic landscape photographs by Roger A. Williams, professor of art, entitled "The American Terrain," opens today in the Myers Fine Arts Gallery. SUNY Plattsburgh Art Museum Director Edward Brohel said, "The show, of 90 color, wide-format photographs represents Williams' work during the better part of the past decade. Beginning in 1983, he has been assiduously creating visual statements which convey the more unusual geological and geographical features of the American terrain."

Williams began in the Adirondacks, then expanded his treks to numerous remote areas of the country, including Utah's Arches National Park, the Denali Preserve in Alaska, Arizona's Superstition Mountains, and Hawaii's Devastation Trail. The photographs range in length from 20" to 48". A full-color catalog accompanies the exhibition.

Reading Center Program Schedules Parents' Day

The Reading Center in SUNY Plattsburgh's Center for Teacher Education and Educational Services will celebrate completion of its summer program with a Parents' Day activity scheduled from 9:30 to 11:30 tomorrow (July 26) in room 332 of Sibley Hall. The event is open to all.

Youngsters who participated in the program will present a play, a magic show, a book reading and a news program. Scripts for the various presentations were written by the children under the guidance of tutors who are graduate students in education at the college.

Activities of the five-week program included journal writing, sustained silent reading, book writing, research and bulletin boards, supplemented by field trips to the Plattsburgh Public Library and to the City Beach.

The next tutoring program will run from September 24 through November 27. Besides school-age children, services are available for college students who require additional help with study skills, reading and writing. Referrals are being accepted through September 14. The Center's telephone number is 564-5145.

The exhibit will be in the Myers Gallery through September 23 and will travel to the State University Gallery in Albany in the spring of 1991.

Williams has taught courses in both studio photography and its history at SUNY Plattsburgh for 15 years. He has received grants from the SUNY Research Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts to research aspects of photographs and to conduct the Visual Artists Series on campus.

His work has been exhibited in more than 100 shows, including more than 30 solo shows. His images have appeared in photographic journals and books on photography, the most recent of which Photographic Possibilities by Robert Hirsch is due out this fall.

28 Students to Study Abroad at Three Colleges in England

Twenty-eight students will be attending classes at three colleges in England next year through student exchange programs.

Four students will spend the entire year at the University of East Anglia. The students and their fields of study are: John DiMaggio, mass communications; Robert Lattarulo, English; Carol Pennington, English; and Kathyann Wells, environmental ecology.

Ten students will study at Lancashire Polytechnic. Three students, Jill Marrone (English); Lisa Maruffi (accounting) and Lisa Mondschein (business law) will spend the entire year abroad, while the other seven, Rebecca Alvarado (international business), Stephanie Brokalis (marketing), Wayne Costigan (anthropology), Blake Harrison (history), John Henkel (English), Traci Hulkower (marketing), and David Rein (mass communications) will spend only the fall semester in England. Thirteen students will participate in the exchange program with Chester College. Spending the entire year at Chester are: Brian Farr, communication arts; Suzanne Kellett, English; and Amy Schottke, speech/hearing education. The ten students spending the fall semester at Chester are: Kathryn Cassi, health education; John Decker, theatre; Sara Fendley, theatre; Brian Kubsch, secondary education/social studies; Donna McMann, psychology; Sean Murray, marketing; Robert Pearl, theatre; Kristen Sauer, psychology/communication arts; Matthew Vredenburg, history; and Lisa Zajkowski, elementary education.

Opening Breakfast on for Aug. 24

President Warren's opening breakfast for the college community for academic 1990-91 will be held at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, August 24 in the Ballrooms of the Angell College Center. More information will follow.